Academics & Athletics

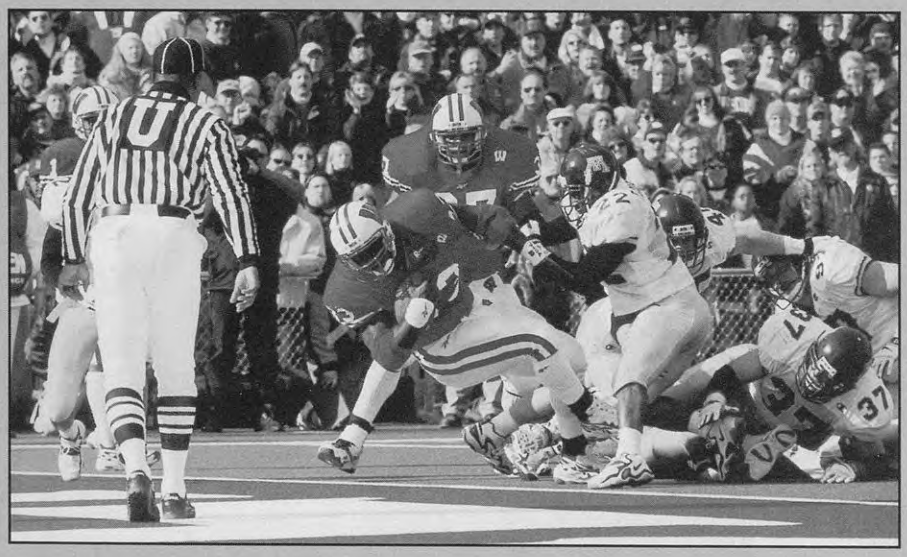
Classroom & football success do mix at UW-Madison

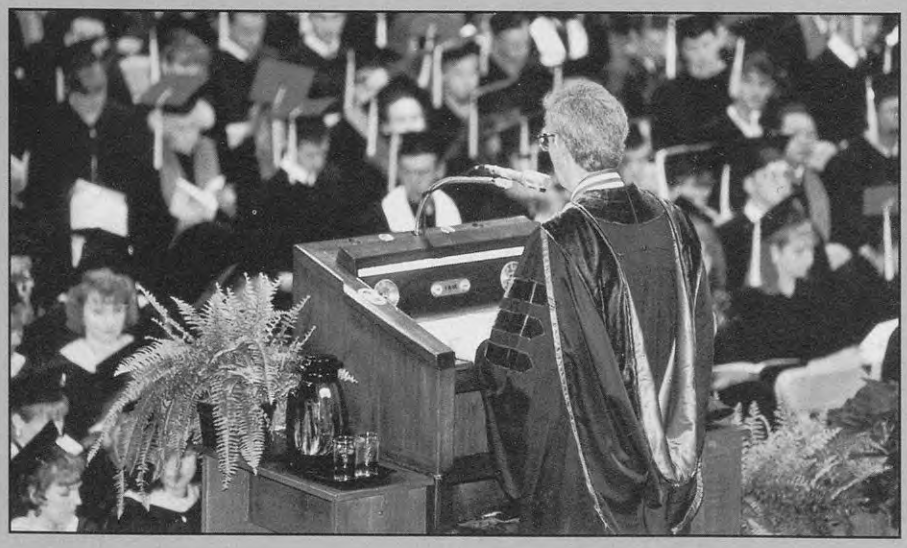
Achieving national recognition in both academics and athletics is a difficult challenge for universities today. The UW-Madison is one of a select group of institutions that has earned praise for its work in the classroom and on the field.

Balancing the academic requirements of an outstanding institution with the demands of collegiate athletic competition is challenging. However, the University of Wisconsin has attacked the challenge and succeeded.

With its inclusion in the Association of American Universities (AAU), the University of Wisconsin-Madison is recognized for its solid reputation in the academic world. In fact, only 60 schools nationwide are in the AAU.

Inclusion in the Association of American Universities and five bowl games in the last six years are evidence that academics and athletics do indeed mix at UW-Madison.





AFCA HONOR ROLL

The following 24 colleges and universities were recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for having graduation rates of at least 70 percent during the 1997 season. Wisconsin graduated 78.6 percent of its senior football players in '97. Listed below are the schools with better than 70 percent graduation rates.

Boston College	Oregon
Bowling Green St.	Penn State
Duke	Rice
Florida	SMU
Illinois	Syracuse
Iowa	Tennessee
Louisiana Tech	Tulane
Marshall	Vanderbilt
Mississippi State	Virginia
Nebraska	Wake Forest
Northwestern	Washington
Notre Dame	Wisconsin

"Athletics is a connecting point among people of Wisconsin. Win or lose, people like to talk about and reflect on sports, and they like to be a part of the excitement and camaraderie that college athletics inspires. The success of UW athletics poses our university in the national spotlight and offers the country another window through which to view our mission."

David Ward
UW-Madison Chancellor

Chancellor David Ward

David Ward was named chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Madison in June 1993, becoming the 25th individual to serve as the university's chief executive. Ward had served previously as interim chancellor since 1993.

Ward has provided strong leadership in his efforts to improve the quality of undergraduate education. Changes inspired by Ward include: enhanced student advising, particularly for freshmen and sophomores; expanded course access; a core curriculum; and increased opportunities for undergraduates to conduct research.

The next step, according to Ward, is redefinition of undergraduate education, not simply through improvements of existing programs and processes, but by developing new ways for learning to occur on college campuses. To that end, he recently published a comprehensive strategic plan, outlining priorities for the next decade as the university works toward balancing its teaching, research and outreach missions. One way the university can unify its activities, Ward says, is by emphasizing learning as a central goal.

The development of campus learning communities recently was echoed by the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State and Land-Grant Universities. In its first report, this 25-member group of university chief executives, on which Ward serves, called on public institutions to become "genuine learning communities" that are student-centered, support and inspire learners of all kinds, and sustain a healthy learning environment.

During his tenure, Ward has given new expression to The Wisconsin Idea, the venerable philosophical framework for the university's public service role. The Wisconsin Idea is embodied by a vast array of partnerships between the university and both the public and private sectors, says Ward, from economic development activity and sharing of faculty expertise, to educational collaborations with K-12 schools.

"The university's commitment to the citizens of Wisconsin is stronger than ever as we approach the 21st century," says Ward, who has the led the university in marketing its sesquicentennial in '98-99.

Ward was born in Manchester, England, and received bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Leeds. He earned a Fulbright Travel award to the United States in 1960 and received a doctorate from the UW-Madison in 1963.

Ward served as chair of the geography department from 1974 to 1977 and as associate dean of the Graduate School from 1980 to 1987. He became vice chancellor for academic affairs at UW-Madison in 1989, and in 1991, Ward was also named provost, chief deputy to the chancellor. His UW-Madison faculty career spans more than 30 years, and he holds the Andrew Hill Clark Professorship of Geography.

As a scholar, Ward is a recognized authority in historical urban geography and has pioneered research on English and American cities during their rapid growth of the 19th and early 20th centuries. He is a past president of the Association of American Geographers. He has authored two books, edited two books and contributed many articles in leading academic journals. In recognition of his postdoctoral research, Ward was awarded an honorary degree by his undergraduate alma mater.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS FOR BADGER FOOTBALL

The following is a list of named scholarships that have been established to benefit the Wisconsin football program. These endowments, which provide both full and partial scholarships, have been created by UW alumni, Badger fans and former student-athletes. The scholarships are named for the individuals listed below:

For information about how to create a named scholarship in men's or women's athletics or how to contribute to an established endowment, please contact Marija Neubauer or Randy Handel, directors of development for Intercollegiate Athletics at the UW Foundation, by calling (608) 263-7692.

Campus Life

State Street (above) is a vibrant walking mall of shops, cafes, and restaurants for every taste. Students can study or relax with friends at the Memorial Union terrace (right) on Lake Mendota. Madison, the state capital, is also one of the country's best biking towns (far right).

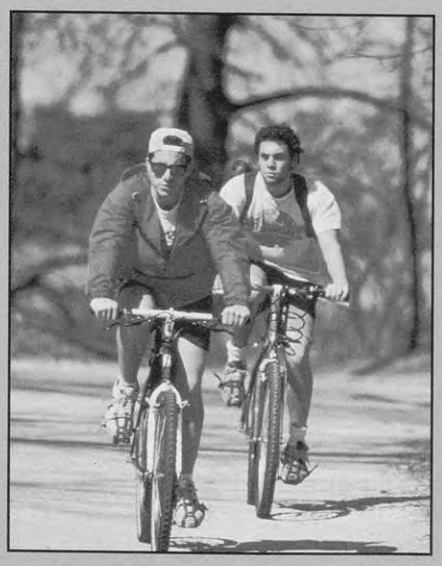
Scenic campus in a capital city

The Wisconsin campus offers a diverse range of settings to fit almost any student's needs and wants. Whether one is looking for scenic beauty or the convenience and fast-paced lifestyle that comes in an urban setting, Madison has it all.

The city of Madison's lakes, rolling hills, architecture, parks and arboretum have enhanced the school's reputation as one of the nation's prettiest campuses. A favorite gathering spot for students is the beautiful Memorial Union and its lakeside terrace.

Located in southern Wisconsin, Madison is home to the University and the state capital. With a population of nearly 200,000, Madison offers "big-city" excitement with "small-town" charm. It is an action-oriented community that is rich in arts and entertainment.

The UW's more than 40,000 students come from every county in the state and every state in the union as well as 122 foreign countries. UW-Madison boasts one of the most diverse campuses in the United States.



The UW-Madison

A world-class university

University of Wisconsin, founded in 1848, has been recognized throughout its history as one of the nation's leading institutions of higher learning. Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine in 1998 ranked UW-Madison sixth-best among the top 100 values in state universities.

Consider some of the more prominent achievements of the students, staff and alumni of UW-Madison:

• Wisconsin is one of just 62 members of the Association of American Universities, the most prestigious organization of higher education in the United States.

• U. S. News and World Report ranked the UW-Madison eighth in academic reputation among public universities.

• UW-Madison ranks first nationwide in voluntary support among public institutions.

• University researchers discovered Vitamins A, B and D as well as linking cancer to the use of saccharine and cyclamates.

• Researchers at UW developed the Orbiting Astronomical Observatory in 1968, the world's first true space observatory.

• According to Standard & Poor's, Wisconsin is second nationally in producing corporate executives.

• UW-Madison is second nationally in sending volunteers to join the Peace Corps.

• The Wisconsin Alumni Association has a network of 116 chapters around the world helping to serve 300,000 alumni. The chapters have raised $3.5 million in scholarships.

• Wisconsin has the top-rated Department of Education in the nation according to a 1994 study conducted at Illinois.

• Libraries on UW-Madison's 932-acre campus house more than 5.8 million volumes, 14th most in the nation, according to the Assocation of Research Libraries.

• Through its history, UW-Madison has produced 14 Nobel Prize winners, 22 Pulitzer Prize winners, 52 members of the National Academy of Sciences, 17 members of the National Academy of Engineering and five members of the National Academy of Education.

• U.S. News & World Report recently rated the UW-Madison's sociology, women's history and speech pathology departments No. 1 in the nation. Additionally, the magazine ranked educational psychology second, education third, chemical engineering fourth, and veterinary medicine ninth.

• UW Hospitals and Clinics is among the leading transplant centers in the nation. U.S. News & World Report rated the University of Wisconsin Hospitals and Clinics in the top three percent in the United States' medical institutions.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

1998 — International Demographics ranks Madison as the most-wired city in America.

1996 — Money magazine lists Madison as No. 1 among the 300 biggest metropolitan areas in its "Best Places to Live in America" ranking.

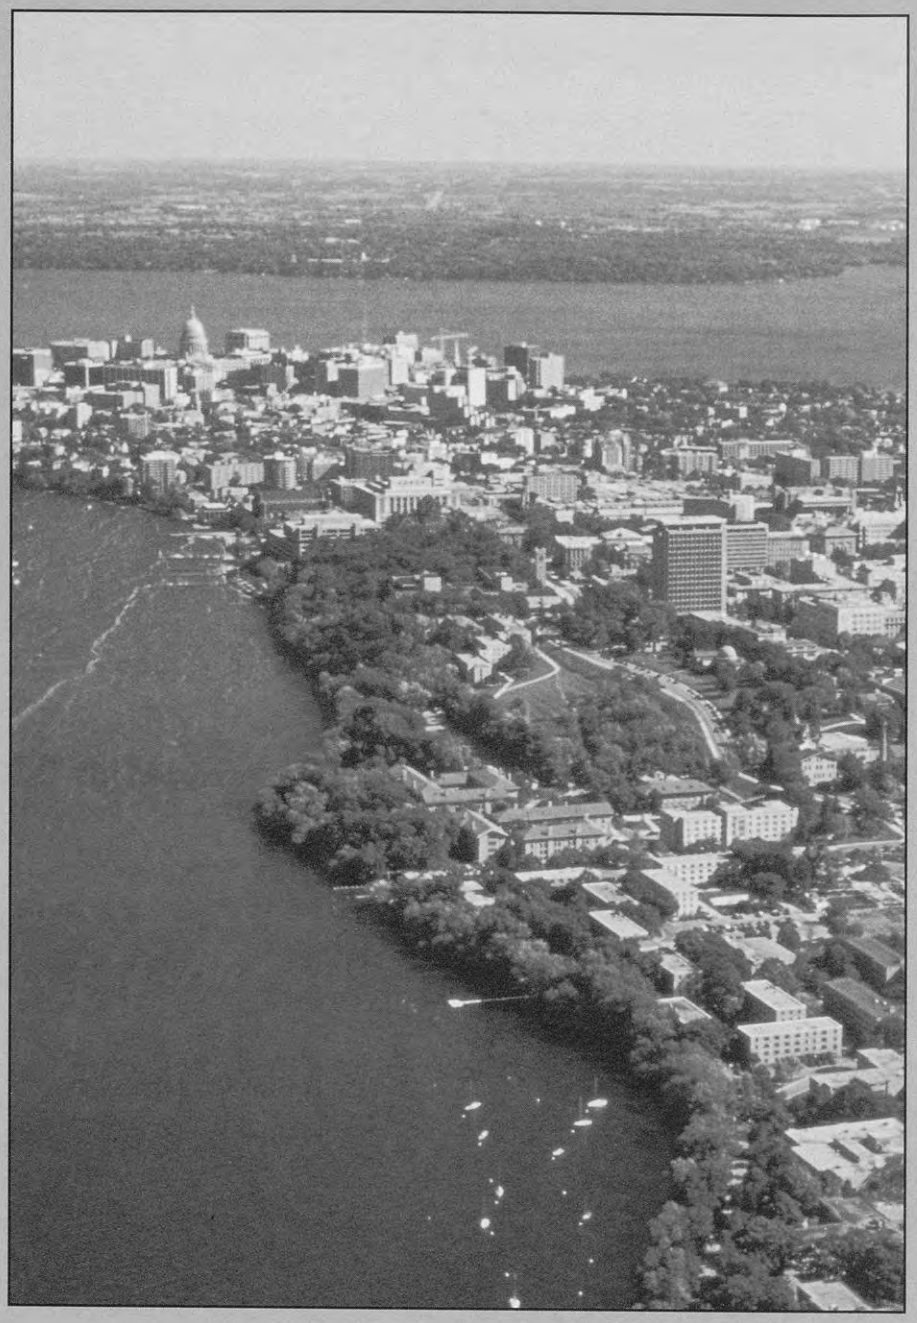
1995 — U.S. News & World Report ranks Madison third-hottest city for growth.



"Madison, Wis. is not the best place to live. It's the perfect place to live. If I had my choice of living anywhere in the U.S., it would be Madison."

Donna Shalala, former UW-Madison Chancellor and currently U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services

Wisconsin Fans

Fans make Camp Randall a difficult venue for opponents

The success of the Wisconsin football team and the support it receives from thousands of Badger fans go hand in hand. UW supporters have become famous for their strong following.

Along with the fans, the 300-member Wisconsin Marching Band and spirit squads add to the loud, boisterous atmosphere on game day in Camp Randall Stadium.

The Badgers ranked 13th nationally in home attendance (77,428) last fall and have sold out Camp Randall Stadium 29 times in the last six seasons. There isn't any better game-day atmosphere than at Camp Randall Stadium in the fall.

Community Outreach

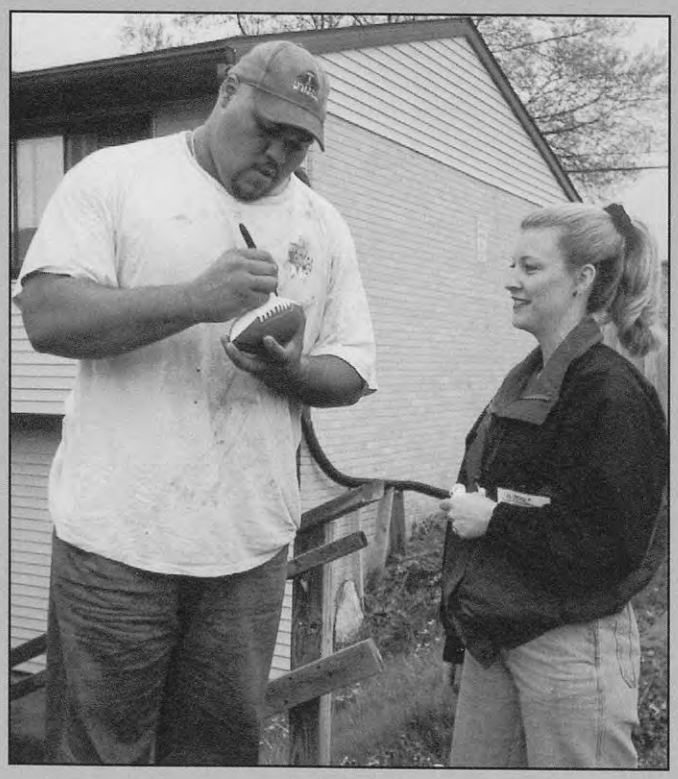
Gridiron Badgers help out Madison and its residents

The Wisconsin Department of Athletics has a number of teams that regularly contribute to the city via outreach programs. The Madison community is truly supportive of the UW athletic teams and their student-athletes. In appreciation of that support, many student-athletes volunteer frequently in community service projects.

Every season, the football team works together on a community service project to give something back to Madison. Among the projects that the Badgers have participated in most recently were landscaping and cleanup days in the Eric Circle, Allied Drive, Vera Court and Harmony Park neighborhoods. The team has also participated in several walk-a-thons to raise funds for charitable causes.

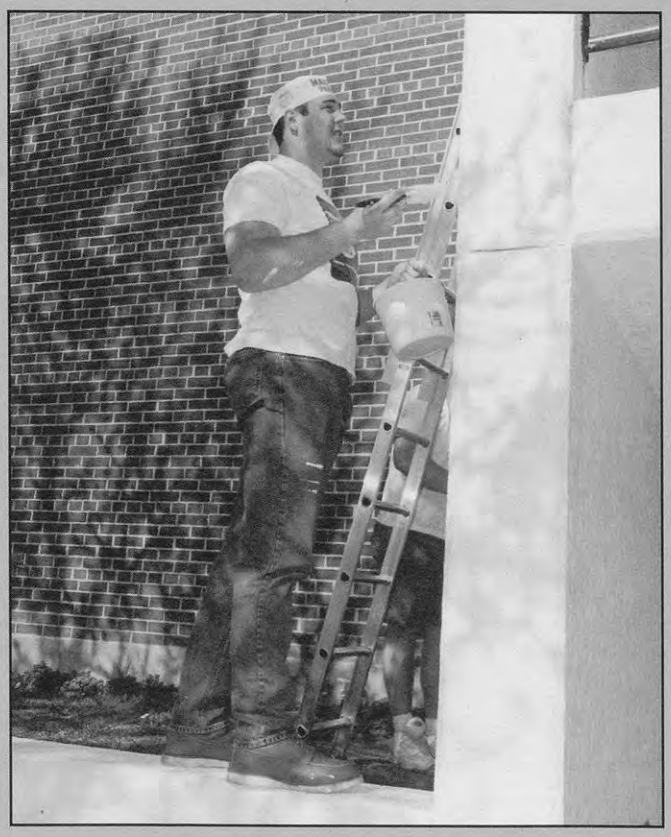
Players and coaches make visits throughout the year to the UW Childrens' Hospital, area schools and numerous other charity functions and organizations.

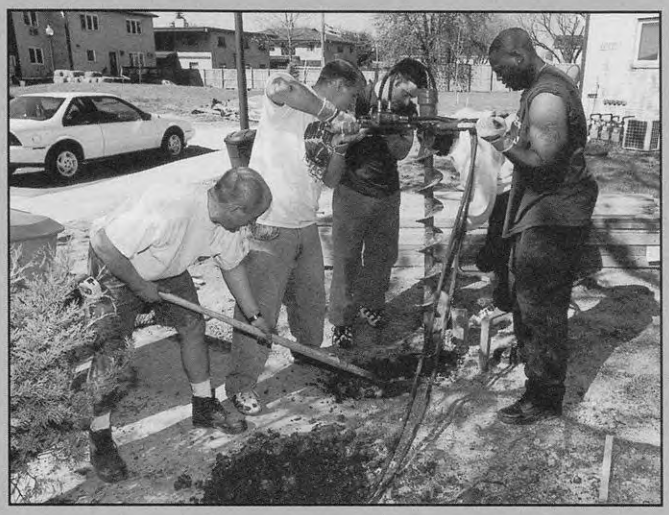


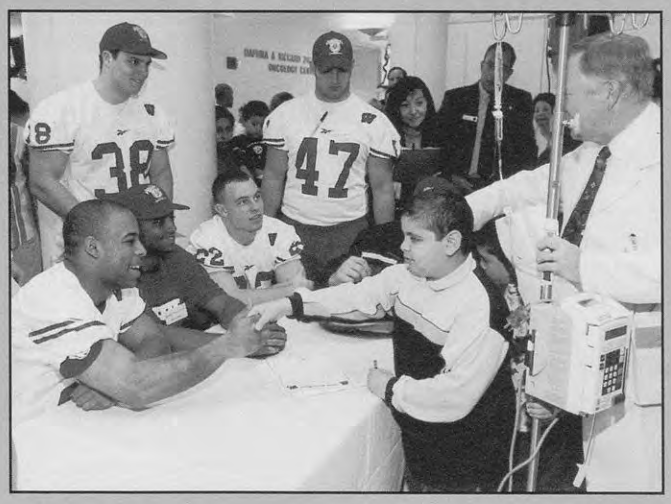
GOOD WORK ON AND OFF THE FIELD

Fullback Cecil Martin, a senior on the 1998 squad, was named to the American Football Coaches Association "Good Works" team for community service in both 1997 and 1998. He was cited for establishing an offseason program for players to visit the UW Children's Hospital. Martin also made weekly visits to see patients during the playing season. He served as a mentor at the Southside Community Center, where he tutored and played with children.

The AFCA started the "Good Works" team in 1997 to recognize off-the-field achievements of college football players. Martin, along with Georgia's Matt Stinchcomb, were the only Division I-A players nationally to be named to the American Football Coaches Association "Good Works" team in each of its first two years.







Big Ten Conference

Leaders in academics and athletics

The Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place within this mission.

BOWL GAMES: The Big Ten boasts one of the deepest college bowl lineups in the nation. The Big Ten is one of six conferences with an automatic berth into the Bowl Championship Series (BCS), which was established to determine a national champion. Along with the guaranteed BCS spot, the Big Ten has slots assigned to it in the Florida Citrus (Orlando), Outback (Tampa), Alamo (San Antonio), Sun (El Paso) and Micron/PC (Miami) bowls.

VICTORIES: In the last three seasons, the Big Ten has sent 19 teams to post-season bowl games. The high-water mark was 1996 and 1997 when seven conference teams earned bowl bids. Led by the Badgers' win in the Rose Bowl, the Big Ten won all five of its bowl games last season to further its case as the nation's top football conference.

FANS: College football fans flock to Big Ten campuses each fall. Last year, a record 4.4 million fans watched Big Ten games.

TELEVISION: When Big Ten fans aren't packing stadiums, they're watching the most comprehensive college football package on television. A partnership with ABC sports, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPN-Plus will allow the Big Ten to televise a record number of games again this fall.

INTERESTING FACTS ON THE BIG TEN

- Big Ten universities are members of the only conference whose entire constituency is comprised of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.
- More than 280,000 students attend Big Ten institutions currently and 3,300,000 people are active Big Ten alumni, a base that is twice as large as any other league.
- More than 70 Nobel laureates have been faculty, students and researchers at Big Ten institutions.
- Over 35 percent of all students enrolled at Big Ten universities graduated in the top 10 percent of their high school class, while over 70 percent have graduated in the top quarter of their class.
- Typically, more than 8,000 prospective employers each year conduct campus interviews at Big Ten institutions.
- Athletic programs in the Big Ten have won more than 175 national championships and more than 1,200 individual titles. Among the national titles won by the conference this decade are the 1990 men's hockey and 1995 men's soccer championships, which were captured by the UW.
- More than 900 conference student-athletes have participated in the Olympic Games, representing not only the United States but many foreign countries as well.
- The Big Ten conference sponsors athletic competition in 25 sports.

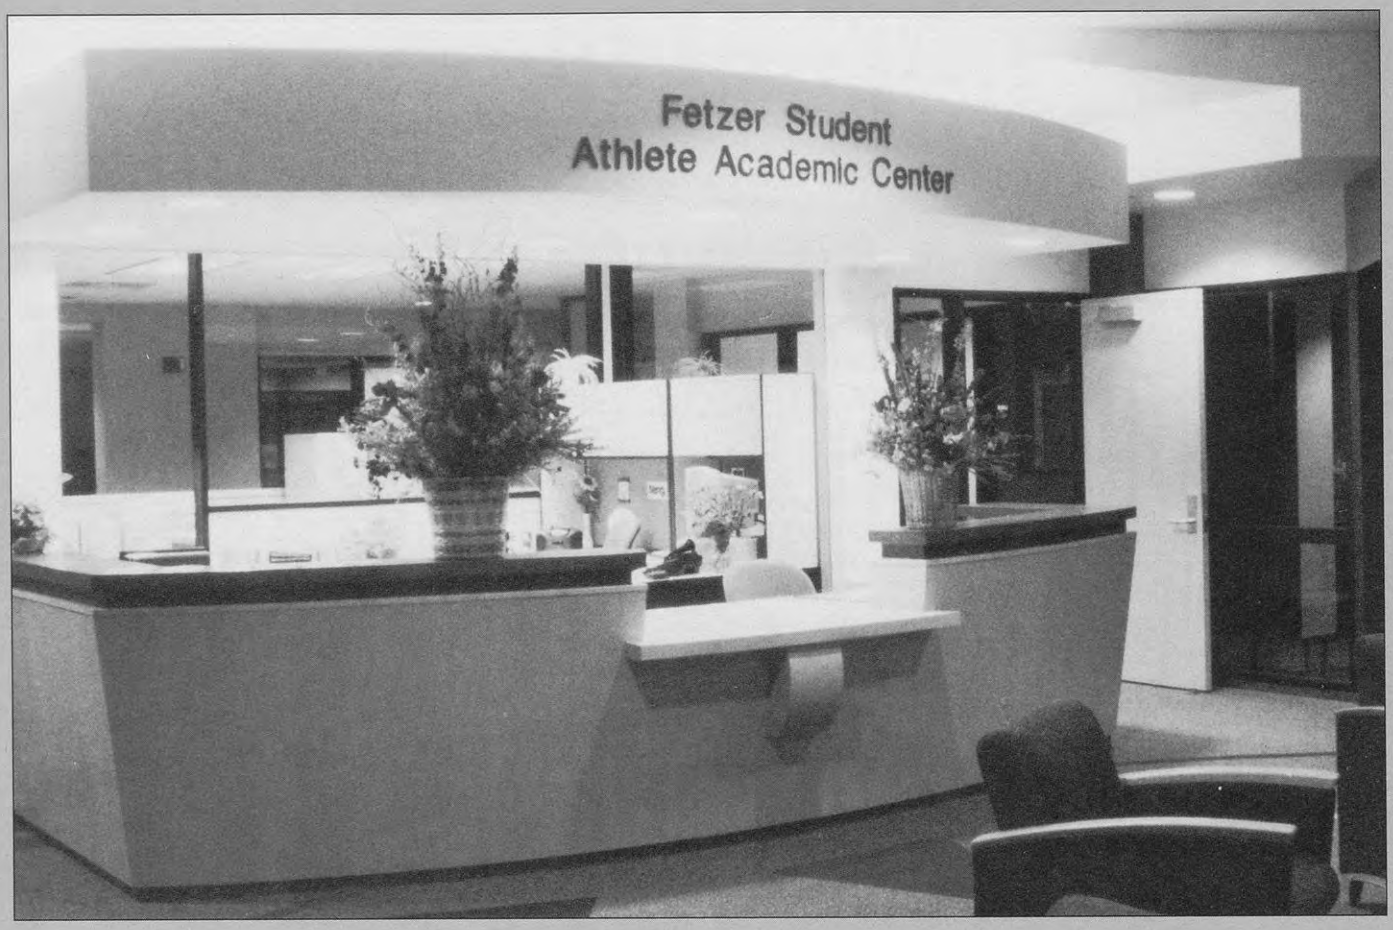
Academic Support



Student Affairs Office oversees academic progress

The primary objective of the student affairs office is to ensure the academic success of all UW student-athletes.

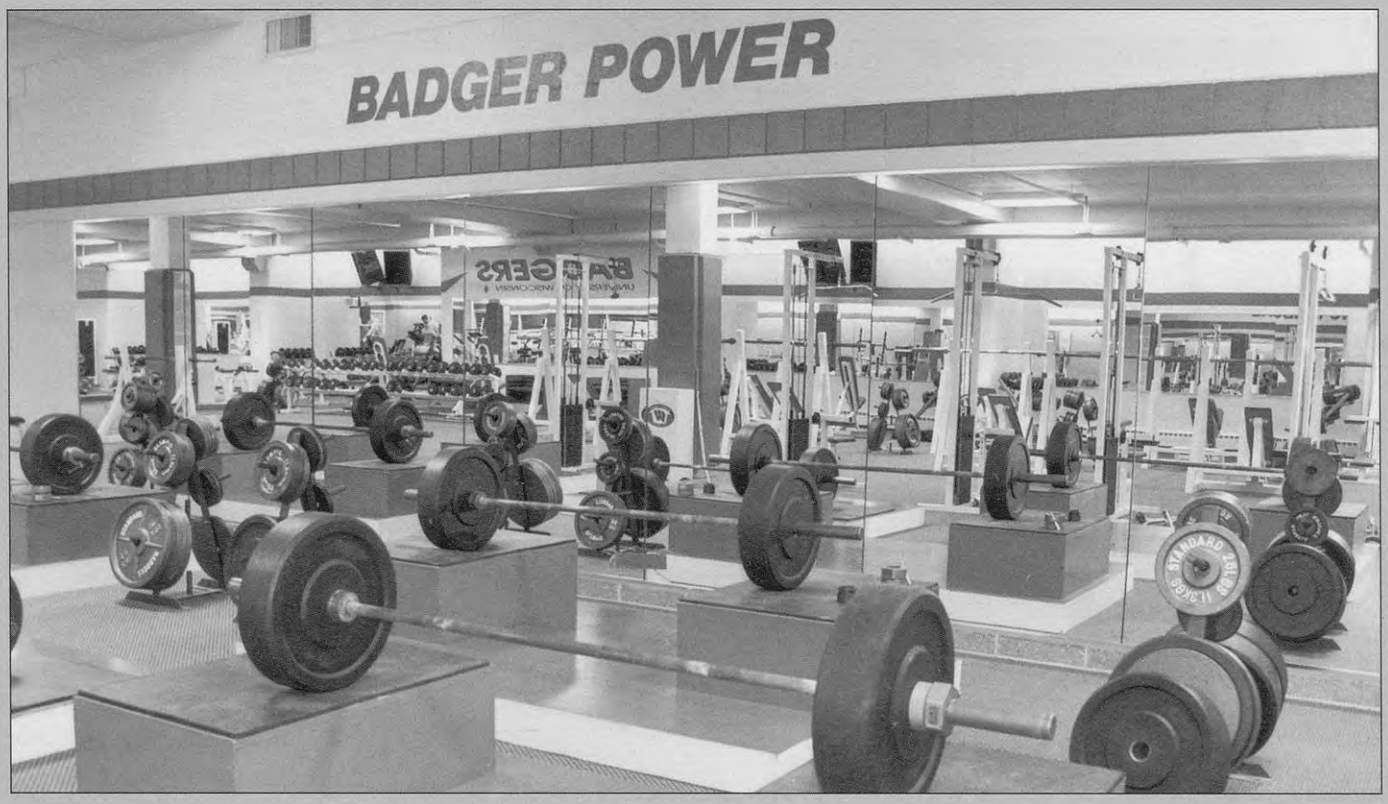
The academic and student affairs staff assists the Badgers' 700 student-athletes in registration and course selection, monitoring progress toward degrees and career guidance.

Staff members work with student-athletes who desire extra academic help. The department utilizes the services of more than 100 tutors to provide one-on-one academic assistance.

The department arranges for exam proctoring, offers advice on resume preparation and coordinates the grant-in-aid program. Support groups are offered to students who become medically or academically ineligible for athletic competition.

A new addition to help student-athletes reach their academic aims is the $1.6 million Fetzer Academic Center which opened in '97. Located in the McClain Facility, it features a computer lab, classrooms, study carrels and an auditorium.

Strength & Conditioning



Strength program builds a better Bucky

The Badger strength and conditioning program is a sophisticated blend of science, technology and one-on-one attention to each athlete. Throughout the year, UW athletes spend more time working on strength and conditioning than any other aspect of their game.

During the off-season, football players work on strength improvement, speed, power, agility and conditioning. The in-season program is devoted to the continuation of strength gains and performance-related conditioning.

When athletes appear on campus, measures of body composition, plus weight and frame size are recorded. With this information, personalized workout plans are established for each individual player.

The fully equipped weight room recently added an $80,000 Sport Impact rubber floor to help provide better traction and support for athletes when lifting.

Under the innovative guidance of John Dettmann, the UW strength and conditioning program is one of college football's best.

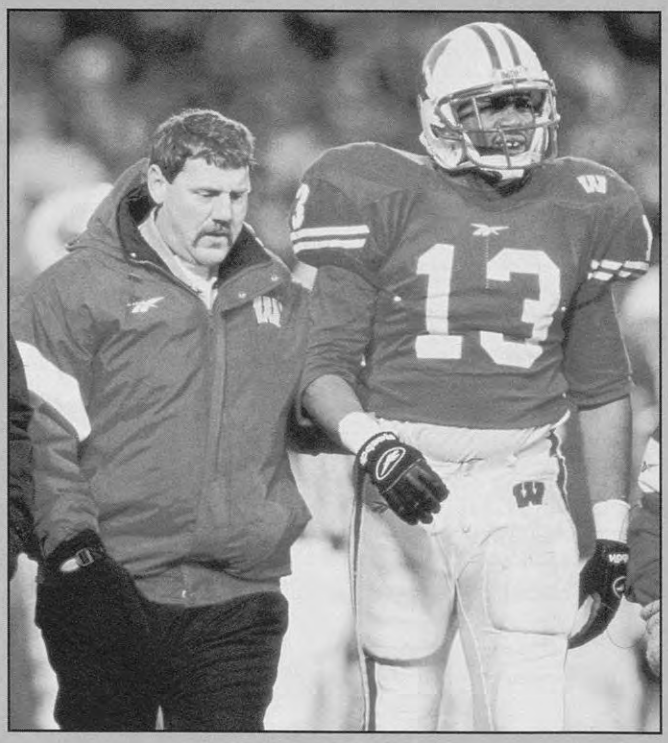
Medical Support



Sports medicine facilities provide total care

The Wisconsin sports medicine program features top-rate facilities and the outstanding services of sports and health care professionals.

The sports medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Staff members utilize Cybex strength-testing devices, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve an athlete's flexibility.

The UW-Madison is one of a handful of schools with an on-site X-ray machine, enabling physicians to quickly and thoroughly evaluate injuries.

Athletic trainers and physicians work together to design rehabilitation programs for injured athletes. A variety of facilities and equipment, including a rehabilitation swimming pool, Cybex equipment, an Impulse Inertial Exercise System, Stairmasters and Fitron Bicycles, help athletes rehabilitate injuries and minimize loss of fitness during recuperative time.

The University also has an on-site sports nutritionist to ensure that student-athletes meet their dietary and nutritional needs. The Wisconsin football team has its own training table in the McClain Athletic Facility for post-practice meals.

Media Exposure

Wisconsin is a favorite of television executives

Playing college football in the Big Ten and at the University of Wisconsin is an opportunity for success, excitement and exposure.

Badger football is unique with its intense media coverage. Among the many media outlets that cover Wisconsin football daily are three local television stations, four radio stations, three major newspapers — two in Madison and one in Milwaukee — two student papers and a specialty publication dedicated solely to Wisconsin sports.

All games are broadcast on a state-wide radio network (nearly 40 stations) and home games are replayed on public television's state-wide network each week. Coach Barry Alvarez has a weekly media session that routinely draws 20-plus reporters. Media members cover UW football on a daily basis, interviewing players and coaches after every practice.

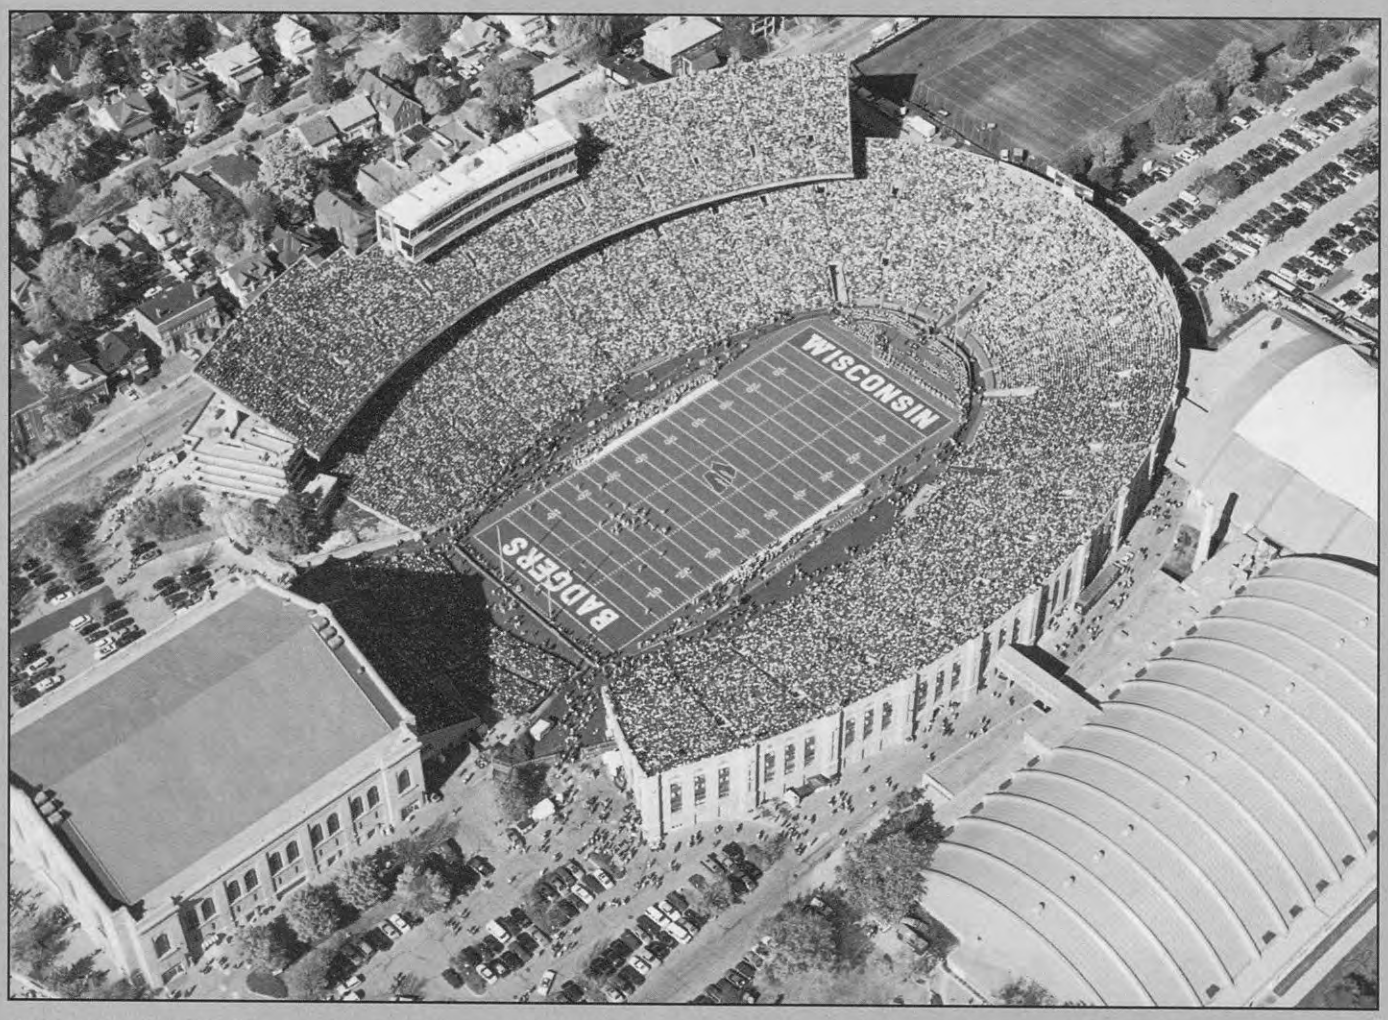
Camp Randall Stadium



Each Saturday during the fall a capacity crowd at Camp Randall Stadium becomes the sixth-largest city in the state of Wisconsin. The Badgers have sold out the facility 29 times in the last six years and were 13th in the nation with an average attendance of 77,428 in 1998.

Camp Randall Stadium: Wisconsin's football home since 1917

Camp Randall Stadium, built in 1917, is home for Wisconsin's football team. The 76,129-seat facility ranks among the nation's largest school-owned stadiums.

Distinguished by its impressive double-deck structure and horseshoe design, Camp Randall Stadium has been the site of 440 Badger games.

Besides the field, Camp Randall houses the athletic department offices, lounges and study areas for student-athletes, as well as video, training and weight rooms, training table for meals and a display of football memorabilia.

The Stadium is a cornerstone of the athletic complex. Located on the same block on the west side of campus are the McClain Facility and the Field House. The two-year-old Kohl Center is several blocks east of Camp Randall Stadium.

McClain Athletic Facility

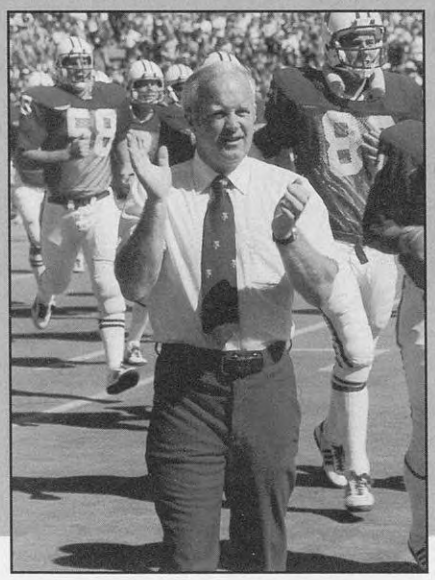
The 11-year-old Dave McClain Athletic Facility is Wisconsin's practice site during inclement weather. The McClain Facility, named for former Wisconsin football coach Dave McClain (below right), was re-carpeted in 1998 with the same turf that blankets Camp Randall Stadium.

The McClain Athletic Facility is Wisconsin's indoor practice site

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility, opened in 1988, is a symbol of the Department's commitment to maintaining a first-class sports program.

The 166,264-square foot facility compares favorably with the best indoor training centers in the nation. Named in honor of the late UW coach Dave McClain, the structure provides a suitable environment for practice during inclement weather.

A 76,380-square foot main floor features an artificial turf playing surface (90 yards). The lower level includes locker rooms, training facilities, the Fetzer Learning Center and a spacious weight room. The second level includes a theater-style auditorium (seating for 150), classrooms for individual position meetings and a player lounge. The facility cost $9.5 million to build.



Rose Bowl Review

Thousands of fans made the trip to Pasadena in January to watch their Badgers upset UCLA in the 85th Rose Bowl. The Rose Bowl, which is the Bruins' home field during the regular season, was turned into "Camp Randall Stadium West" as Badger fans outnumbered their UCLA counterparts by a large margin.

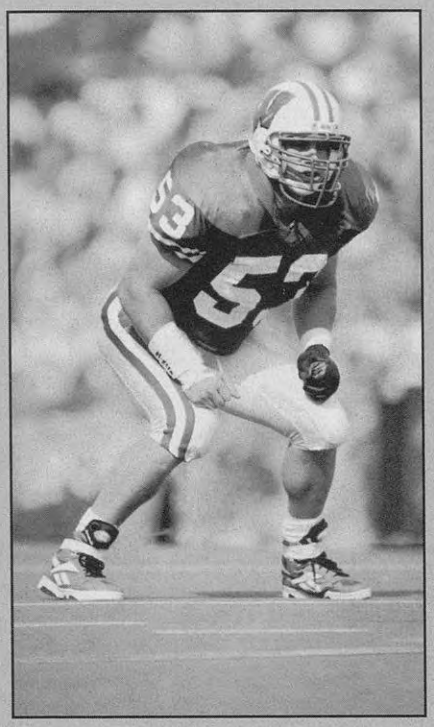
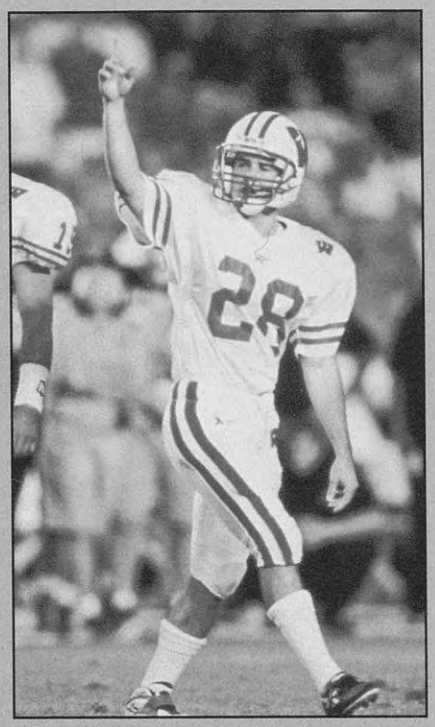
Walk-on Program



Chad Cascadden was academic all-Big Ten before moving on to play for the Jets.



Matt Davenport, a first-team all-Big Ten kicker, signed a free agent contract with the Steelers.

Walk-ons make their mark at Wisconsin

Not all high school football players earn scholarships to compete in college. That doesn't mean there isn't an opportunity for those individuals, especially at the University of Wisconsin, where walk-on athletes have a history of contribution.

Joe Panos became a walk-on success story in the early 1990s. Panos transferred from UW-Whitewater in 1991. He changed positions at UW, earned a scholarship, became a three-year starter, captained the Rose Bowl team and now plays for the Buffalo Bills.

"Walk-ons have that extra drive because they're trying to prove something," says Coach Barry Alvarez. "I love that spirit and determination in my players."

Wisconsin's 1999 Rose Bowl team featured former walk-ons Matt Davenport, Bob Adamov, Donnel Thompson, Jason Doering, Eric Mahlik, and Eric Grams as starters.

NFL Pro Timing Day

Working out for scouts

The football staff at the University of Wisconsin goes to great lengths to help its student-athletes reach the next level of competition. The ultimate goal of many athletes is to reach the professional level and compete in the National Football League.

Wisconsin hosts several professional scout timing days each spring in order to give scouts the opportunity to get a first-hand look at the talents of Badger players. Seniors who have completed their eligibility are weighed, measured, timed and drilled by representatives from professional organizations.

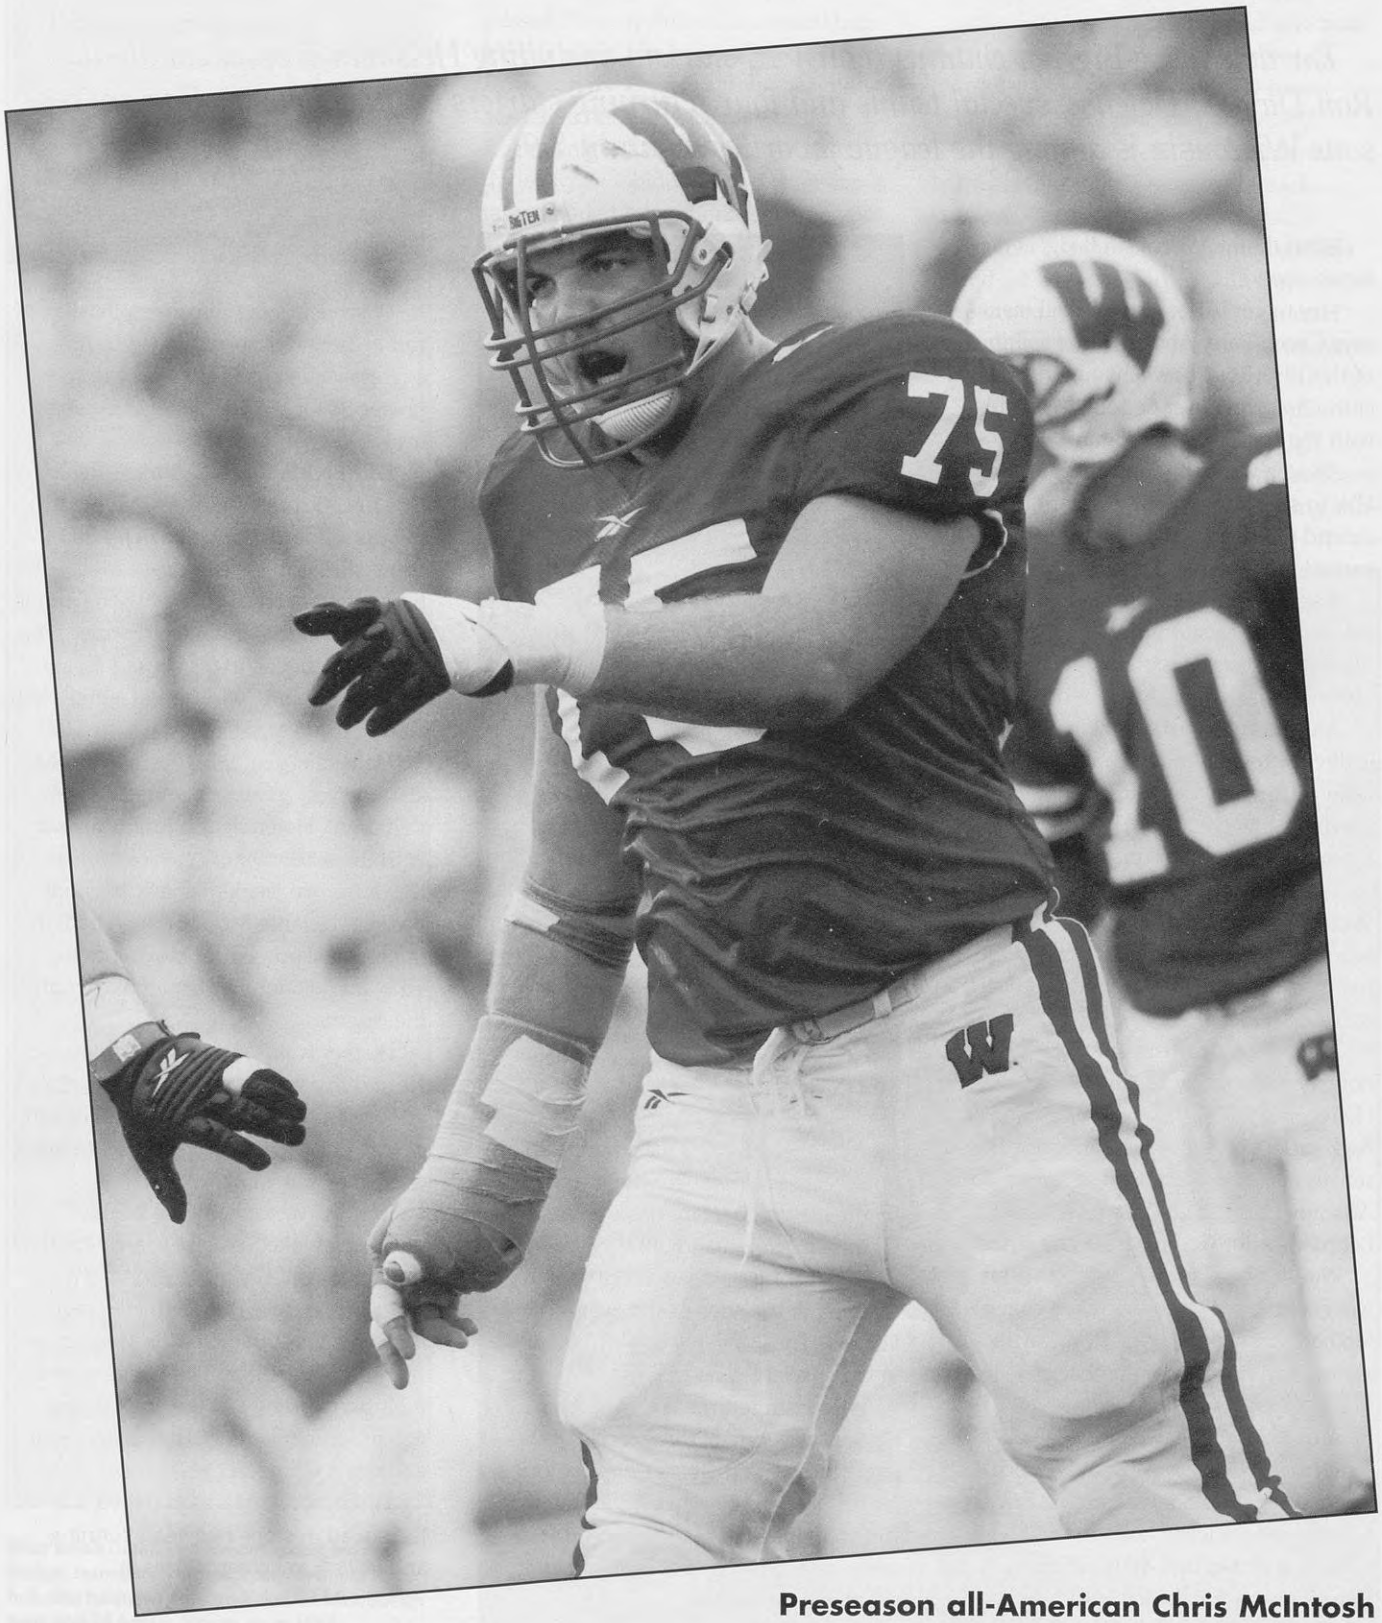
1999 Preview



Preseason all-American Chris McIntosh

1999 Preview

The defending Big Ten champs return 16 starters, including Heisman Trophy candidate Ron Dayne. Defense, special teams and four returning starters on the offensive line are reasons Wisconsin is among the league favorites again in '99.

What do the Wisconsin Badgers do for an encore?

"Try to get better as a football team," says Coach Barry Alvarez, chief architect of the 1999 Rose Bowl championship club. "You can never be totally satisfied with the state of your program."

It seems like a reasonable goal considering that 16 starters are back from the winningest team in the university's 109-year history.

Alvarez knows that total team success is directly related to the contributions from all three — defense, offense and special teams — units. There is reason for optimism on all three fronts.

The Badger defense returns eight starters from a unit that led the nation in scoring defense and ranked among the nation's top 10 in all four major statistical categories.

Three seniors must be replaced, most notably national sack leader Tom Burke. He recorded a Big Ten-record 22 quarterback sacks on the way to earning consensus all-America honors. Captain Bob Adamov (OLB) and three-year starter Leonard Taylor (SS) have also departed.

Wisconsin's offense got the boost it was seeking in December when college football's marquee player, Ron Dayne, announced he was coming back to Madison for his senior year.

A quartet of departing offensive seniors — RT Aaron Gibson, FB Cecil Martin, QB Mike Samuel and TE Eric Grams — does leave holes in the lineup. Gibson, a first-round draft pick by Detroit, was a finalist for both the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy.

Junior end John Favret started opposite former all-American Tom Burke for two seasons and reaped the benefits making 22 tackles for loss. Favret is a cornerstone on Wisconsin's 1999 defensive front.

Martin, a workhorse blocker and inspirational leader, along with the gritty Samuel, are significant departures. Grams started on and off at Wisconsin.

Alvarez' special teams contributed mightily to victories nearly every week last fall. The Badgers are well-equipped in the special teams again.

Wisconsin returns one first-team all-Big Ten player in all three facets of the game in Dayne (tailback), sophomore Jamar Fletcher (cornerback) and junior Kevin Stemke (punter). Read on for a more detailed look at the '99 Badgers, position-by-position.

Defense is Badger strength again

Wisconsin's Big Ten championship run in 1998 was spearheaded by its aggressive defense. Here are the prospects for the 1999 Badger defensive troops.

DEFENSIVE LINE: Burke's departure forced some minor reshuffling in the front line. Ross Kolodziej, a 20-game starter in his career at tackle, will play some end as well in '99. The junior is an athletic 273 pounder. Former prep QB Sam Mueller, in his second season on defense, and 300-pound George Pratt are the reserves.

Hard-charging John Favret, who has started every game for two years, is at right end. He enters his junior season with the second-most tackles for loss (22) after two years than any previous Badger. Delante McGrew, who had an impressive spring after moving from OLB, and oft-injured Donny Eicher are the reserves.

Former walk-on Eric Mahlik (40 tackles and five passes tipped in '98) is No. 1 at noseguard with help from senior run stuffer Chris Janek and scout team player-of-the-year Clint Bakken.

Impressive sophomores Wendell Bryant and Jake Sprague will vie for the right end slot. Bryant recorded two sacks in the Rose Bowl, while Sprague made his first career start in Pasadena.

LINEBACKERS: The Badgers return their two leading tacklers from a year ago in seniors Donnel Thompson (109) and Chris Ghidorzi (104).

Thompson, a Madison native, has led the squad in stops two years running and is 24th in career tackles at Wisconsin. Nick Greisen, who lettered as a true freshman, is second team.

Ghidorzi, who was on the field for all of the Badgers' 11 wins last fall and missed the only defeat, is a sound tackler. He should be an academic all-American in '99 after earning league academic honors twice previously. Roger Knight handled spring camp duties while Ghidorzi, a '99 team captain, mended from shoulder surgery. Knight was a starter entering '98 but injuries cost him that spot. Sophomore Ben Herbert will get some time, too.

Outside linebacker is well-fortified with sophomores Dan Lisowski and Bryson Thompson. Lisowski had 23 tackles as a freshman and Thompson is finding a home at OLB after playing safety and inside linebacker in '98.

SECONDARY: The most-improved area on the team last fall was the secondary. Wisconsin ranked seventh nationally in pass defense and saw both its opponents' completion percentage (61.2-54.5) and number of TD passes allowed (14-8) plummet from 1997.

Much of the credit for the improvement went to first-year cornerbacks Jamar Fletcher and Mike Echols. Fletcher led the nation in interceptions and set a Big Ten record with three picks returned for touchdowns. The former prep quarterback is an all-America candidate as a sophomore. Echols, the fastest player on defense, intercepted three passes in his rookie campaign.

The second teamers at cornerback are special teams standouts Donte King and Mike Echols (right) and Jamar Fletcher led the Badger secondary's dramatic improvement last fall. The freshmen duo combined for 10 interceptions and 18 passes broken up in 1998.

Ron Dayne has his hopes set on becoming college football's all-time leading rusher.

Joey Boese. That California duo excelled on kick coverage units, combining for 42 tackles and three fumbles recovered.

Free safety Jason Doering has received high praise from the staff for his anticipation skills and savvy. One of the hardest hitters in the Big Ten, he made 94 tackles, intercepted three passes, forced two fumbles, broke up six passes and missed only four tackles all season. The former walk-on is a 1999 team captain. Devery Hughes, a redshirt freshman, backs up Doering.

Senior Bobby Myers, who played a lot in Wisconsin's nickel package, will start at strong safety. He started some games as a freshman and sophomore at free safety. Myers is a 7-foot high jumper and three-year football letterman. Walk-on Bret Burlingame and special teams whiz Tim Rosga are in reserve.

Seeking balance on offense

Wisconsin's offense in 1998 was the third-highest scoring unit in school history, and most importantly, nearly immune to turnovers. Sixty-five percent of the club's total offense came on the ground last fall, although that ratio may be a bit more balanced in 1999.

TAILBACK: The nation's most noteworthy player, Ron Dayne, enters his final season with a chance to establish some standards that will be very hard for future backs to surpass.

> "If there is a player in college that has meant more to his school than Ron Dayne, I haven't seen him. Ron has exemplified the team approach we preach. He isn't caught up with the records he breaks, but instead deflects attention to his teammates."
> Coach Barry Alvarez

On the way to compiling a 27-11 record the last three years, Wisconsin has hitched its offense to the 252-pound Dayne. Breaking records nearly every step of the way, Dayne has a chance to leave the UW as college football's top career runner (he needs 1,717 yards).

"If there is a player in college that has meant more to his school than Ron Dayne, I haven't seen him," said Alvarez. "Ron has exemplified the team approach we preach. He isn't caught up with the records he breaks, but instead deflects attention to his teammates."

Those teammates have received a great share of notoriety because Dayne sets new standards every time he steps on the field.

Junior speedster Eddie Faulkner, sophomore Carlos Daniels and former Wisconsin prep Player of the Year Matt Unertl are the reserves behind Dayne. Faulkner sat out spring drills after shoulder surgery.

FULLBACK: Four-year starter Cecil Martin has graduated meaning that sophomore Chad Kuhns is the starting fullback. He is a good blocker and pass catcher. Three-year letterman Marcus Carpenter is in reserve.

QUARTERBACK: Mike Samuel, tied with Darrell Bevell as the school's all-time winningest quarterback, is gone. The tough-minded Samuel led the Badgers to 27 wins and set the tone with his strong running skills and timely passes.

Ron Dayne needs 499 yards to pass Archie Griffin and become the Big Ten's career rushing leader.

The candidates to replace Samuel are senior Scott Kavanagh and redshirt freshman Brooks Bollinger.

Kavanagh, an accurate thrower, is the brother of former Kansas State one-year starting QB Brian Kavanagh. He is a 53 percent career passer with six TDs.

Bollinger, a good runner/passer, was Wisconsin's scout team offensive player of the year. An all-state football, basketball and baseball player as a prep, his father was the offensive coordinator at North Dakota. Bollinger comes into fall camp after a 14-21, 168-yard effort in the spring game.

RECEIVERS: Junior Chris Chambers is the top pass catcher on the club after registering 563 yards (41.3 percent of the team total) and seven TDs in '98. Chambers was the only player in the Big Ten to average better than 20 yards per catch and his ratio of one TD for every four receptions was third-best in the nation. Chambers, who lettered on the Badger basketball team as a freshman, is a first-team all-Big Ten candidate.

Three-year letterman Ahmad Merritt has 27 career catches and is a good downfield blocker from his flanker spot.

The third receiver is sophomore Nick

Davis, the nation's third-leading punt returner (15.3 average). Davis emerged as a dangerous receiver in the Rose Bowl with a team-leading three catches for 57 yards. Davis returned two punts for TDs as a true freshman and gave a spark to the special teams. His kickoff return norm (22.5 yards) was the best at Wisconsin in four seasons. Conroy Whyte, a quick receiver, hopes to make a bigger impact as a sophomore.

TIGHT END: A pair of huge juniors, Dague Retzlaff (6-8, 276) and John Sigmund (6-6, 272), are the top tight ends. That duo combined to average 14.2 yards per catch and provided steady blocking for the run game. Sophomore Mark Anelli, an excellent receiver as a prep, could work into the mix as the Badgers try to get their tight ends a little more involved in the passing game.

OFFENSIVE LINE: The star on the offensive line figures to be senior Chris McIntosh, a legitimate nominee for the Lombardi Award and the Outland Trophy. The fifth-year senior has started every game in his career (38) and has a chance to be a rare 50-game starter in college. McIntosh, a team captain as a junior and senior, has helped the Badgers average 218 yards rushing per game during his career. Jason Jowers, a freshman, backs up at LT.

The fight to replace Gibson on the right side will be between huge Wisconsin preps Brian Lamont and Ben Johnson. Lamont (314 pounds) is a sophomore and Johnson (318) is a redshirt freshman.

Two juniors from Pennsylvania — Dave Costa and Bill Ferrario — return as starting guards for the third season in a row. Costa (24 career starts) and Ferrario (25) have a lot of experience.

Senior Rob Roell, an academic all-league pick, is a valuable reserve having started games at both guard and center. Promising redshirt freshman Terry Stephan is the other second-team guard.

The Badgers are excited about the progress of center Casey Rabach, a consensus second-team all-league selection in his sophomore year. The physical Rabach is a two-year starter and a potential all-American up front. His back-up is converted guard Al Johnson, the cousin of RT Ben Johnson.

Special teams should be special

PLACEKICKER: The graduation of near-perfect placekicker Matt Davenport leaves a hole. Senior kickoff specialist Vitaly Pisetsky assumes Davenport's chores. Pisetsky was a huge weapon in the battle for field position in '98 with his kickoffs. Pisetsky was solid on placements as a prep and needs to show that form in college. The challenger to Pisetsky's position is incoming freshman David Lantigua.

PUNTER: Kevin Stemke, who burst

onto the scene by setting the UW season punting record as a freshman in 1997, is back for his junior campaign. His season averages as a freshman and sophomore rank 1-2 in Wisconsin history. The left-footed Stemke added pooch punting skills to his arsenal and established himself as one of the top specialists in the nation.

KICK RETURNERS: Nick Davis energized what had been an average return game with his exciting skills bringing back both punts and kickoffs. The Badgers enjoyed a huge advantage in average field position during the Rose Bowl season and Davis' returns were a major reason why. Davis had four returns (two punts and two kickoffs) of at least 50 yards. Faulkner teams with Davis on kickoff returns and Rosga is the back-up punt returner.

Badger Notebook

CHASING THE KING: Wisconsin's 10th year head coach Barry Alvarez has pulled to within six victories of becoming the winningest gridiron coach in Badger history. Alvarez, who has registered a 60-42-4 ledger, needs a half-dozen triumphs to pass turn-of-the-century coach Phil King, the career win leader. King led the Badgers to 65 wins and three Big Ten titles while playing a schedule that included a number of high schools, small colleges and medical schools. Alvarez' career winning percentage (58.5) is the best at Wisconsin since Ivy Williamson registered a 67.2 winning rate in the 1950s.

CAN RON CATCH RICKY?: One of the most prestigious records in college sports was broken last fall when Texas tailback Ricky Williams bettered the NCAA career rushing record held formerly by Pitt standout Tony Dorsett. Williams boosted his career record total to 6,279 yards (bowls not included). Ron Dayne enters his final campaign with 4,563 yards (currently 19th in NCAA history). Dayne needs to average 156.0 yards per game during the 11-game regular season to move into the top spot. His career average per game is 142.6 yards, eighth-best in college history (Williams is seventh at 142.7). Additionally, Dayne needs 499 yards to pass Ohio State's Archie Griffin and become the Big Ten's all-time top runner.

SUCCESS IN JANUARY: With a 38-31 upset of UCLA in the 1999 Rose Bowl, the Badgers put themselves in exclusive company with their third January bowl win since 1994. Wisconsin shares the distinction of at least three January bowl wins in the last six years with Florida State, Nebraska, Tennessee, Florida, Michigan and Penn State. The Badger wins came in the 1994 Rose, 1995 Hall of Fame and 1999 Rose Bowls.

STAFF CHANGES: For the first time in three seasons, Barry Alvarez had to reshuffle his staff. With the departure of offensive coordinator Brad Childress to the Eagles, Alvarez promoted running backs coach Brian White to offensive coordinator. Jeff Horton was named quarterbacks coach to replace Childress. Horton is former head coach at both Nevada and Nevada-Las Vegas. Special teams and outside linebackers coach Jay Hayes took a job with the Steelers. Hayes' spot on the staff was filled by former Jacksonville Jaguar assistant special teams coach Joe Baker.

STAT STUFFERS RETURN: Four Badgers that led the Big Ten in a statistical category — Ron Dayne in rushing (138.6) and all-purpose yardage (142.7), Nick Davis in punt returns (15.3), Kevin Stemke in punting (43.8) and Jamar Fletcher (0.64) in interceptions — are back on the 1999 roster.

Dayne is trying to become the first player in Big Ten history to lead the circuit in rushing three times. Davis and Stemke recorded the second-best season averages in their specialties in UW history. Fletcher became the first Badger to top the nation in a statistical category since 1978. His three picks returned for touchdowns set a Big Ten record.

FORMER WALK-ON STARTERS: Barry Alvarez has had great success with developing former walk-ons. The Badgers' 1999 spring depth chart on defense has three former walk-ons — DT Eric Mahlik, LB Donnel Thompson and FS Jason Doering — listed as starters.

ALL-BIG TEN: Wisconsin has a first-team all-conference selection returning in each of the game's three phases. The Badgers' returning first-team all-Big Ten choices include two-time all-America runner Ron Dayne, sophomore cornerback Jamar Fletcher and junior punter Kevin Stemke.

DID YOU KNOW?: Here are some items about the Badger football team:

• Wisconsin and Michigan are the only Big Ten schools to win more than one Rose Bowl championship in the last 25 years ...

• the Badgers' starting offensive line returns four starters (consensus all-American Aaron Gibson, a first-round draft pick by Detroit, is the lone departure) ... the quartet of Chris McIntosh, Bill Ferrario, Casey Rabach and Dave Costa has started 108 games in their careers ... that is the highest total of cumulative starts for an offensive line in the nation, just ahead of Bowling Green (104), Ohio State (104) and Alabama (101) ... McIntosh, who has started at left tackle in 38 straight games, is chasing Mike Thompson's (1991-94) Wisconsin career mark of 46 starting assignments ...

• five of the seven winningest seasons in the modern era of Badger football have come during the Alvarez era ... Wisconsin registered 11 triumphs in '98, 10 in '93 and eight in '94, '96 and '97 ...

• the Badgers led the nation in scoring defense last fall, the first time they topped the country in a team statistical category since the 1962 team posted a 32.2 scoring offense norm ...

• in the decade of the 1980s, Wisconsin's cumulative record (46-67-1) was ninth-best in the Big Ten ... in the decade of the 1990s (entire Barry Alvarez era), the Badgers' cumulative mark (60-42-4) is fourth-best ... Wisconsin, which improved five places in comparing those decades, is the only school to improve more than one spot ... Northwestern (10th to 9th) and Ohio State (2nd to 1st) are the only other schools to climb in the comparative records from the 1980s to the 1990s ... Penn State, which joined the league in 1993, was not included in this comparison.

Two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year Barry Alvarez

Barry Alvarez

Barry Alvarez, the highly successful Badger football coach, took a huge step forward in 1998 toward establishing a legacy at Wisconsin that will stand the test of time.

As he enters the final year of his first decade as Badger coach, Alvarez does so with a resume that suggests he is the school's best-ever coach.

That resume includes two Big Ten championships, five bowl berths, four bowl victories (two in the prestigious Rose Bowl) and two league Coach of the Year honors.

When the former Notre Dame coordinator was hired in 1990, he said that he wanted to build a program much like his college coach Bob Devaney developed at Nebraska. The former Cornhusker mentor is recognized as one of college football's greatest leaders. That dream certainly seems attainable for Alvarez with the solid foundation he has built in his nine years at Wisconsin.

During his tenure, Alvarez has led a program that continues to break records, build on tradition and create giddiness for Badger fans across the state.

- became the first Badger squad in school annals to win 11 games.
- broke the regular-season victory mark (10), bettering the nine-win clubs of 1897, 1898, 1899, 1901 and 1993.
- spent every week in the nation's top 25, just the third UW team in history to do so and finished the year rated fifth (coaches) and sixth (media).
- earned a share of the school's 10th Big Ten championship.
- won every home game for the first time since 1962.
- registered the best winning percentage (.875) in league play by a UW team in 87 seasons.
- posted a school-best nine-game winning streak to begin the season.

For all of those achievements and more, Alvarez earned his second Dave McClain Award, given to the Big Ten Coach of the Year. Alvarez was also a finalist for several organizations' national Coach of the Year award.

During the '98 regular season, Alvarez passed two-time Rose Bowl coach Milt Bruhn as the winningest Wisconsin coach in the modern era. Alvarez' 60 victories leave him five wins shy of all-time leader Phil King, who coached at the turn-of-the-century against a collection of high schools, medical schools, alumni squads and colleges. With Hayden Fry's retirement at Iowa, Alvarez also moved into second-place (behind Ohio State's John Cooper) for coaching seniority in the league.

As Alvarez enters his 10th year at Wisconsin, he sports a 60-42-4 record. That is also his career mark as a collegiate head coach. He has improved his Big Ten record to just one game below the .500 mark after failing to win a conference contest his first year (0-8). In fact, his last six squads have registered a 63.5 win rate (29-16-3) in Big Ten action, fourth-best in the league behind Ohio State, Penn State and Michigan.

Besides guiding the Badgers to the two winningest seasons (10-1-1 in 1993 and 11-1 in 1998) in UW history, Alvarez has produced three other eight-win clubs and joined Woody Hayes (Ohio State) as the only coach in Big Ten history to win two Rose Bowls within a six-year period.

In the decade of the 1990s, the Wisconsin football program has been elevated from laughing stock to a perennial bowl participant.

PERSONAL

Born Dec. 30, 1946, in Burgettstown, Pa.

Alvarez, who turned 52 two days prior to the Badgers' Rose Bowl game last January, has raised spirits for a once-moribund gridiron program.

Alvarez, who enjoyed immense success as a player at Nebraska and as an assistant coach at Iowa and Notre Dame prior to his appointment in Madison, has turned the football fortunes around at a school that won just nine times in the four years before his arrival.

His clubs in the last six years have generated more wins, interest, fan support, TV exposure and honors than any prior era of Badger football.

Hired to bring respect back

Alvarez was named head football coach on Jan. 2, 1990, just after Notre Dame (where he was assistant head coach) defeated West Virginia in the Orange Bowl to win the national championship.

Alvarez was appointed to his position one day after his 42nd birthday. "My old coach, Bob Devaney, told me that I should set a goal for myself to take a head coaching job by the time I was 42," Alvarez said. "I missed it by one day."

Once he settled into his new situation, Alvarez realized ...

- there was fan apathy as the school was coming off its lowest attendance average in 45 years.
- there was a losing attitude since the Badgers had finished no better than eighth place in the Big Ten in the previous five years.
- there was a lack of resources as the school faced the elimination of sports to save money and pay the bills.

The pressure was on the football program to prosper and replenish the department's financial ledgers.

His goals were to spark interest for his program, build recruiting relationships around the nation and pursue success one step at a time. In other words, Alvarez had a plan.

Through it all, he preached togetherness, toughness, discipline, focus and a no-nonsense approach to winning.

Badger pride returns under Alvarez

The result has been a consistently successful program which has brought joy to supporters, notoriety to the school and prestige and revenue to an athletic department which sorely needed both.

During his tenure, Alvarez reversed the fortunes of a program that had hit rock bottom. After a 1-10 rookie season, Alvarez guided the UW to a Big Ten co-championship and Rose Bowl triumph in his fourth year.

Only two coaches in Big Ten history — Alvarez and Ohio State's Wes Fesler (1947-49) — took last-place programs their first year and turned them into eventual league champs.

Besides the obvious on-field improvement, home crowds have increased by more than 36,000 per game since his arrival. The Badgers have ranked in the top 15 nationally for attendance the last five seasons and have played in front of 29 more-than-capacity crowds in the last 34 games at Camp Randall Stadium.

Learning his trade as an assistant

For three years, Alvarez was an assistant for Lou Holtz at Notre Dame. He served as linebackers coach in '87, was promoted to defensive coordinator in '88 and to assistant head coach in '89.

Notre Dame finished 17th, first and second in the final Associated Press poll the three seasons Alvarez was there. The Irish won an incredible 23 consecutive games in 1988 and 1989.

The 1988 Irish team won the national championship with a 12-0 record. As coordinator, Alvarez' defense ranked third nationally in scoring, 10th against the run and 13th in total defense.

Notre Dame was 12-1 in 1989 and the nation's No. 1 team for 11 weeks. Alvarez' defense keyed a 21-6 Orange Bowl victory over top-ranked Colorado.

Alvarez coached all-America linebackers Michael Stonebreaker (a consensus pick), Ned Bolcar, Cedric Figaro and Wes Pritchett at ND.

As an Iowa assistant, he coached linebackers from 1979-86. The Hawkeyes went to bowl games the last six years, after 17 seasons without a winning season.

Alvarez coached five first-team all-Big Ten linebackers at Iowa, where his prize pupil was two-time consensus all-American Larry Station. An academic all-American as well, Station set the Hawkeye career tackle record.

Prior to the UI, he coached at Mason City (Iowa) High School from 1976-78, compiling a 21-9 mark. He won a 4A state title in 1978, when he was league and district Coach of the Year.

His first head coaching job was at Lexington (Neb.) High School from 1974-75. He compiled a 16-4 ledger and was the Nebraska prep Coach of the Year in 1974.

Barry got his coaching start in 1970 as an assistant at Lincoln (Neb.) Northeast High School. The squad won a state title in 1972.

Personal information

A three-year letterman as a Nebraska linebacker, Alvarez was the top tackler among linebackers (112) for the 1967 Cornhuskers. That club led the nation in total (157.6 yards) and passing defense (90.1), was third nationally vs. the run (67.5) and created a school-record 40 turnovers. Nebraska led the Big Eight in total defense all three of Alvarez' varsity years on the way to compiling a 25-7 record and gaining berths in the Orange and Sugar Bowls. He also played in the Blue-Gray Game and Senior Bowl.

Alvarez earned his B.S. degree in '69 and an M.A. degree in '71 from Nebraska.

Barry and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Dawn (Mrs. Brad Ferguson) and Stacy (Mrs. Mike Delzer); a son, Chad; and grandsons, Joe and Jake Ferguson. Alvarez was born Dec. 30, 1946, in Burgettstown, Pa.

A year-by-year review of Coach Barry Alvarez' tenure at Wisconsin

BADGER MIRACLE WORKER

When the University of Wisconsin hired Barry Alvarez to head its football program in 1990, the Badgers were one of 19 schools nationally to change their coach that year. Only three of those coaches are still serving in the same capacity at the school. Alvarez, Florida's Steve Spurrier and Utah's Ron McBride (a former Wisconsin assistant coach) just concluded their ninth campaigns at the schools which hired them in 1990.

Alvarez took over a program which had won just 18.2 percent of its games in the three years prior to his arrival. Alvarez, in other words, had inherited the worst program that season.

In the nine years since, Alvarez has reversed the fortunes of the football team in Madison. His career winning percentage (.585) means that he has orchestrated a dramatic 40.3 increase in winning percentage during his tenure.

Consider that Alvarez ...

- is the second-winningest coach in school history, five wins behind turn-of-the-century coach Phil King.
- has a nine-year tenure at the UW, the second-longest in the Big Ten.
- is the top bowl game winner (4-1) in UW annals (Wisconsin had just one bowl triumph prior to Alvarez).

1998: 11-1 (7-1 Big Ten)

The winningest season (11-1) in school history ended in dramatic fashion with a thrilling 38-31 upset of sixth-ranked UCLA at the Rose Bowl. Game MVP Ron Dayne keyed the win with a 246-yard rushing effort against the Bruins. Wisconsin led the nation in scoring defense and turnover margin. The Badgers' nine-game win streak to open the season tied a school record. Tom Burke (the national leader in sacks) and Aaron Gibson (a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the Outland Trophy) were consensus all-America picks. Barry Alvarez was Big Ten Coach of the Year as his Badgers won the UW's 10th conference football championship.

1997: 8-5 (5-3 Big Ten)

A six-game winning streak catapulted the Badgers to a second consecutive eight-win season and berth in the Outback Bowl vs. Georgia. The Badgers joined the '37 Michigan team as the only squads in league history to win three one-point decisions. Ron Dayne earned first-team all-America honors and Matt Davenport won two games with last-second field goals.

1996: 8-5 (3-5 Big Ten)

The Badgers opened quickly with a 3-0 non-league slate before losing four games (three by a combined total of 10 points) to highly ranked foes. The UW closed 4-1 and then ended the year with a 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl. Ron Dayne set an NCAA freshman rushing record with 2,109 yards.

1995: 4-5-2 (3-4-1 Big Ten)

With the most inexperienced squad in the Big Ten and facing the nation's most difficult schedule (according to the Seattle Times), the Badgers posted a 4-5-2 mark. Darrell Bevell broke nearly every passing record at the UW. The 17-9 upset at Penn State broke the NCAA's longest win streak (20 games).

1994: 8-3-1 (5-2-1 Big Ten)

Wisconsin won its second straight January bowl game by defeating Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. The regular season featured a win at Michigan for the first time since 1962 and a school-record 632-yard total offensive output vs. Indiana. Center Cory Raymer was a consensus all-American. Seven players were drafted by the NFL.

1993: 10-1-1 (6-1-1 Big Ten)

The 10-1-1 Badgers were Big Ten co-champions, beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl and were ranked as high as fifth (coaches) in the final polls. The UW had the NCAA's largest attendance increase, and its .875 winning percentage was the best by a Big Ten team since '79. A school-record eight players were named first-team all-Big Ten. Tailback Brent Moss was the Badgers' first Big Ten MVP since 1962.

1992: 5-6 (3-5 Big Ten)

The UW was 5-6 and climbed in the Big Ten standings for the third season in a row. The Badgers upset 12th-ranked Ohio State, the first win over a nationally rated foe in eight years. Wisconsin received votes in the national polls for the first time in Alvarez' career and ended the year one victory short of a post-season bowl bid. Three of the losses were by a total of four points.

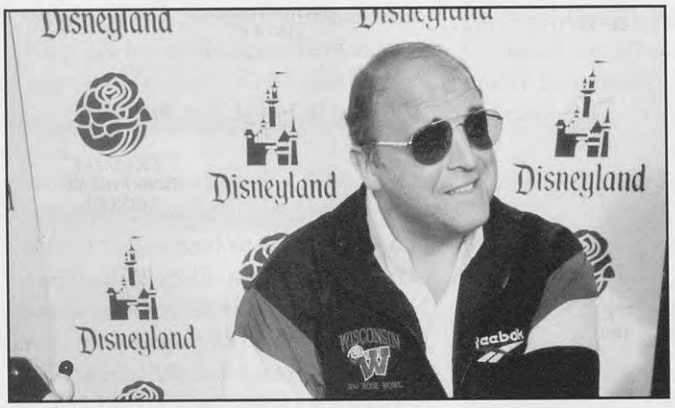
1991: 5-6 (2-6 Big Ten)

Wisconsin improved its win total by four games, the fourth-largest improvement in the NCAA. Troy Vincent was an all-American and runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award. Vincent was the seventh overall pick in the NFL draft by the Dolphins. A victory at Minnesota broke a 23-game road losing streak.

1990: 1-10 (0-8 Big Ten)

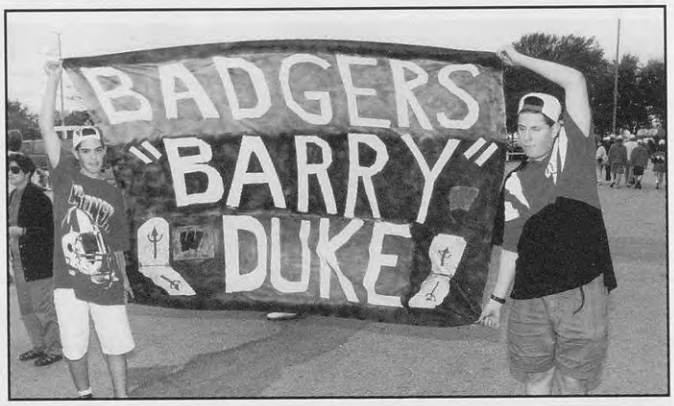
Wisconsin was within striking distance entering the fourth quarter in 10 games, although its only victory was over Ball State. Wisconsin had the third-best attendance gain nationally.

Two trips each to Pasadena and Tampa along with a venture to Tucson highlight the bowl excursions that the Badgers have enjoyed during the Alvarez era.



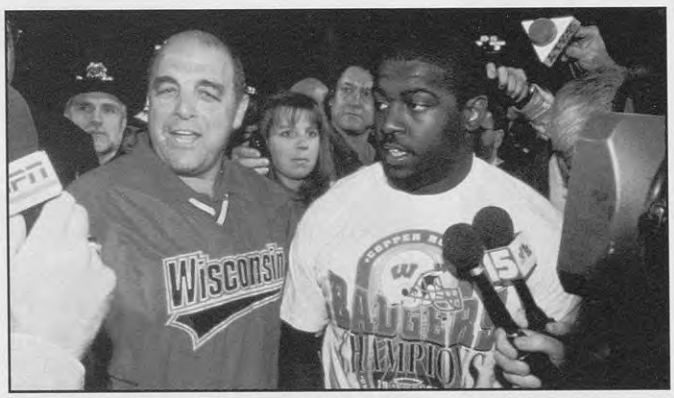
A Rosy Season

The '93 Badgers will be remembered as the squad that was co-champ of the Big Ten, won the school's first Rose Bowl and finished fifth (coaches) and sixth (media) in the final polls. For those achievements, Alvarez was named national Coach of the Year by several organizations. The team was led by Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP Brent Moss (1,637 yards rushing). The season was noteworthy because the bowl-clinching victory over Michigan State came in a game that was played in Tokyo.



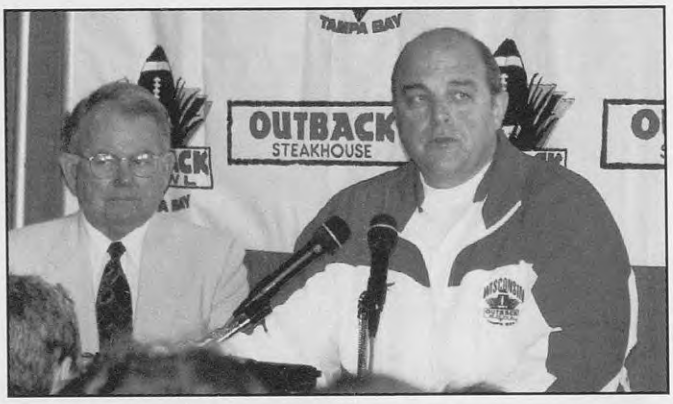
Hall of Fame Campaign

The '94 club had to deal with increased expectations, a difficult road schedule and an unusual number of injuries to key players. Through it all, the Badgers met every challenge head on. For the second year in a row, Wisconsin finished strong, including the school's first win at Michigan since '62 and the 34-20 win over Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Terrell Fletcher helped the Badgers smash the Blue Devils with a 241-yard performance. Seven Badgers were drafted by the NFL.



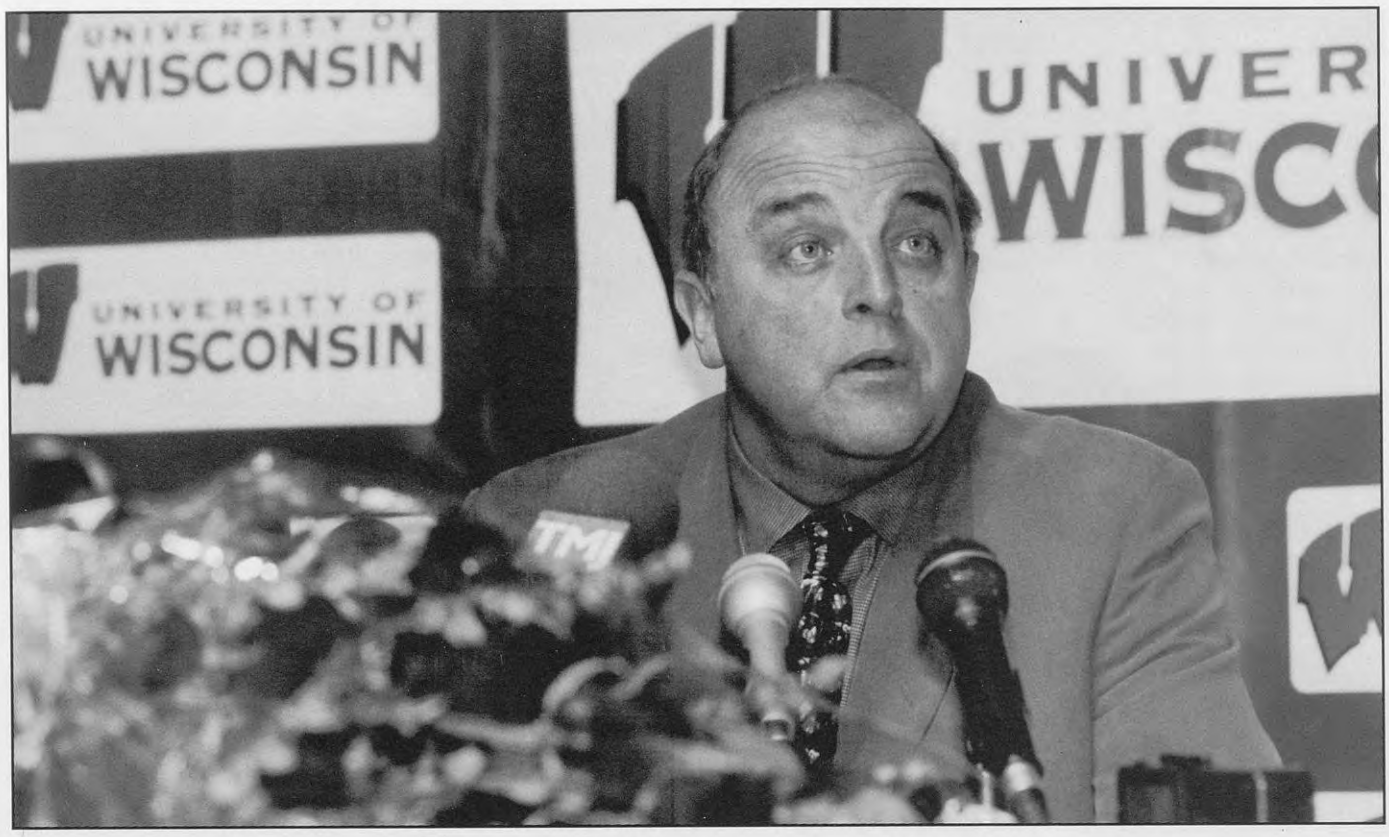
A Copper Championship

Wisconsin's 1996 team closed in dramatic fashion with a 38-10 rout of Utah in the Copper Bowl. The '96 Badgers became just the fourth team in the last 50 years at the school to win at least eight games, registering an 8-5 mark. Ron Dayne (pictured above with Alvarez), an 18-year-old true freshman, broke nearly every rushing mark in UW history, became just the 12th collegian to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season and was MVP of the Copper Bowl with 246 yards.



Another Visit to Tampa

The Badgers won eight of their opening 10 games and were selected to play Georgia in the Outback Bowl. A 33-6 loss to the Bulldogs ended a second consecutive 8-5 campaign. A 56-10 triumph at San Jose State was the school's 500th victory. Wisconsin became the second team in league history to win three one-point decisions in a season. Matt Davenport booted two game-winning FGs and Ron Dayne earned first-team all-America honors after a 1,457-yard season.



No Badger Team Won More Games

Wisconsin's 1998 club exceeded all expectations as it compiled the winningest season (11-1) in school annals, won the Rose Bowl and grabbed a piece of the school's 10th Big Ten football title.

The Badgers featured a suffocating defense, big-play special teams units and a resourceful offense during its record-breaking campaign. A 9-0 start to the season, which equalled the school's best-ever start (the 1901 team finished 9-0), paved the way to one of the most historic campaigns in Badger history.

Wisconsin led the nation in both scoring defense (10.9 points per game) and turnover margin (+2.0 per game) and punished opponents with its Big Ten-best running game.

Three Badgers — Tom Burke, Aaron Gibson and Ron Dayne — made first-team all-America squads. Burke, the national leader in sacks, and Gibson were consensus all-America choices. Gibson was a finalist for the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award, while Dayne was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. Badger mentor Barry Alvarez was the Big Ten's Coach of the Year for the second time in six seasons.

Wisconsin ended the year ranked fifth (by the coaches) and sixth (media) in the final polls after the 38-31 win over UCLA in the Rose Bowl. Dayne, the game MVP, rushed for 246 yards and four TDs. That yardage total was one yard shy of Charles White's (USC) bowl game record.

Kicker Matt Davenport, punter Kevin Stemke and freshman cornerback Jamar Fletcher joined Burke, Dayne and Gibson as first-team all-league picks. Fletcher led the nation in interceptions and returned three picks for scores, a Big Ten record.

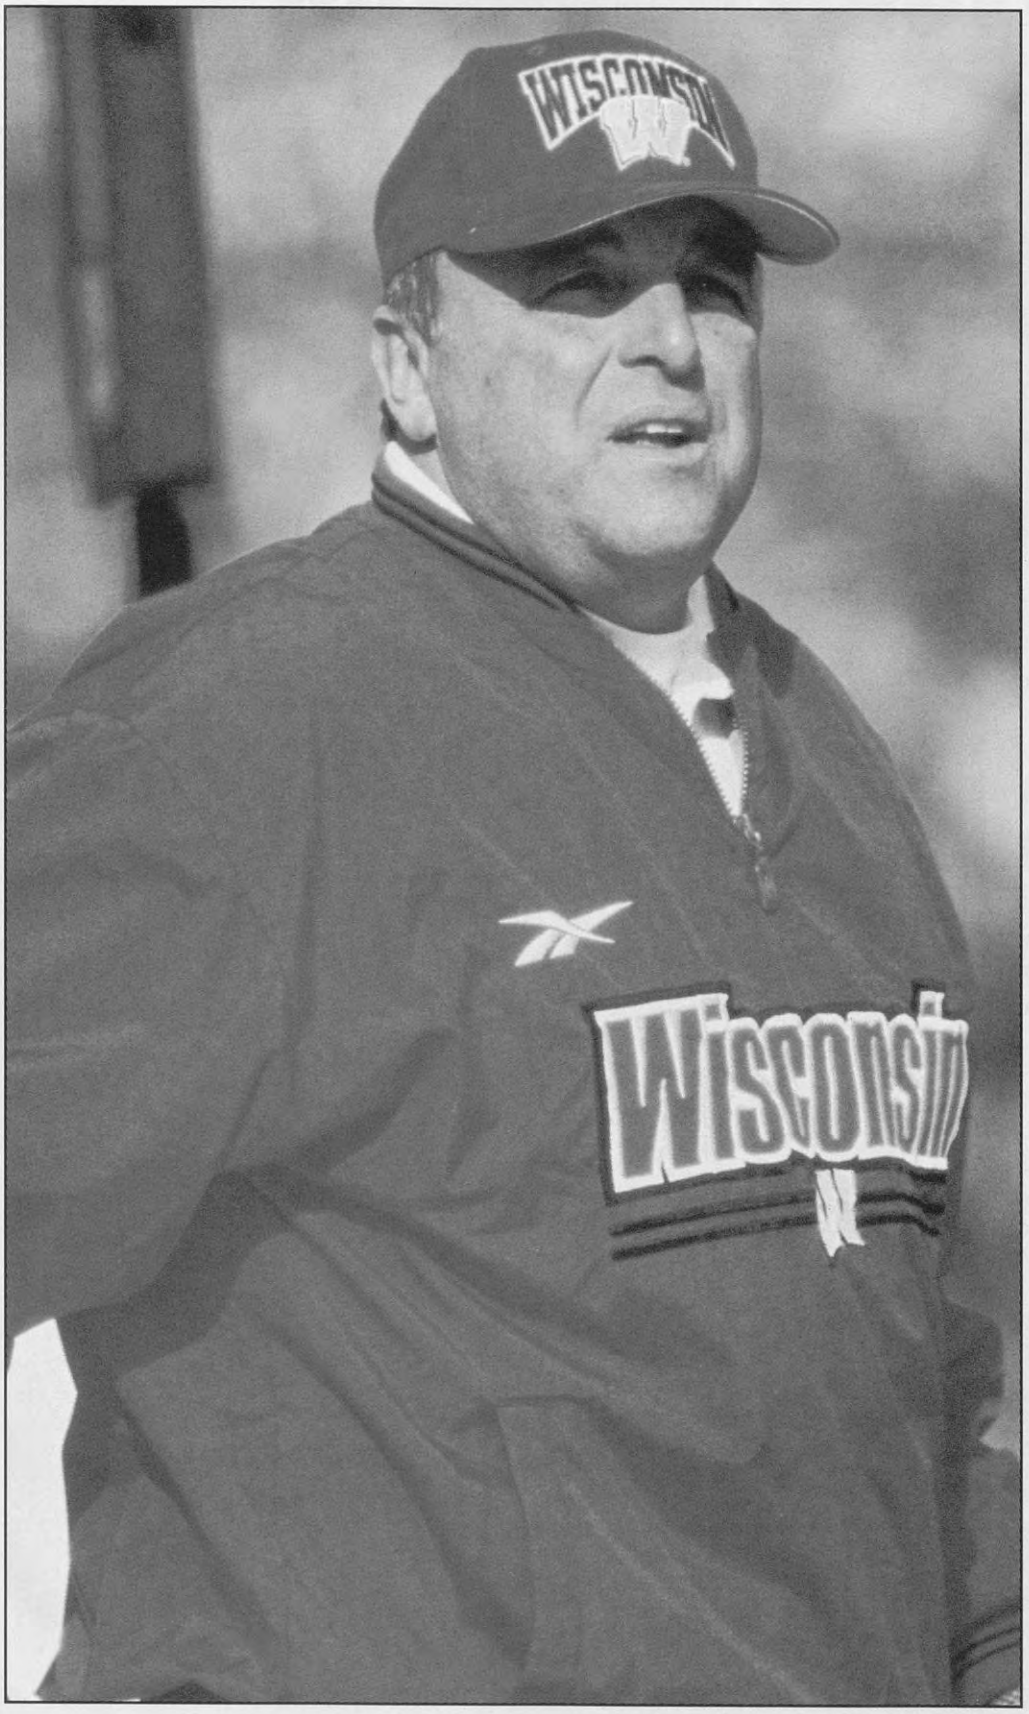
1982 Rose: Iowa lost to Washington, 0-28

Coach Barry Alvarez (left) inherited a football program which had won an average of two games per year in the three years before his arrival. In the last six seasons, Alvarez has coached the UW to an average of 8.1 wins per year. That includes the two winningest seasons in school history.



Coach Alvarez

- Second-winningest coach in Wisconsin history (60), trailing Phil King (65), who coached the Badgers at the turn-of-the-century.

- Seven of his former assistants are now head coaches, college coordinators or NFL assistants. The list includes Dan McCarney (Iowa State), Jay Norvell (Colts), Bill Callahan (Raiders), Paul Winters (Akron), Paul Jette (East Carolina), Brad Childress (Eagles) and Jay Hayes (Steelers).

- Leading tackler among LBs on Nebraska's 1967 team, which led the nation in total defense and created a school-record 40 turnovers.

- Registered a winning percentage of 58.5, a full 12 percentage points higher than Wisconsin's rate in the rest of the modern era (1946-89).

- Recorded the most bowl victories (four) in UW history. Dave McClain has the only other bowl triumph in Badger history.

- Beginning his 10th year at Wisconsin. Only Harry Stuhldreher (13) and Milt Bruhn (11) had longer tenures in Madison.

- Served on coaching staffs of the 20th (Iowa's Hayden Fry) and 22nd (Notre Dame's Lou Holtz) winningest coaches in NCAA history.

- Played for the coach (Nebraska's Bob Devaney) with the 23rd-best winning percentage (.806) in college football history.

Henry Mason
Wide Receivers

- fifth year in charge of Wisconsin wide receivers.
- Badgers ranked fifth in the Big Ten in pass efficiency offense in '98 largely because of the contributions of split end Chris Chambers.
- Chambers was the only player in the Big Ten to average better than 20 yards per catch and his ratio of one TD for every four receptions was third-best in the nation.
- Mason aided the development of Tony Simmons (New England Patriots) and Donald Hayes (Carolina Panthers) at the UW ... Simmons was second in career yards (1,991) and first in TDs (23) at Wisconsin, while Hayes caught 106 passes as a Badger.
- coached wide receivers at Western Michigan prior to Wisconsin, and the Bronco passing attack led the Mid-American Conference three times in four years.
- head coach at Smith-Cotton (Mo.) High School where his 1988 club became the first in 13 seasons to post a winning record.
- Mason was drafted by the Baltimore Colts and also played one season in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization.

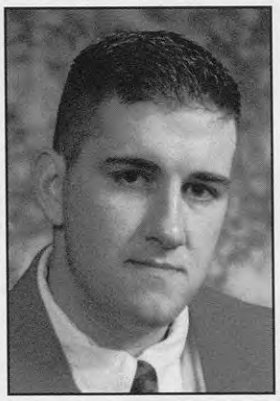
Matt Sheldon
Graduate Assistant

Matt Sheldon, a former high school star at D.C. Everest High School, begins his third season as a defensive graduate assistant.

His primary responsibility is assisting Badger secondary coach Phil Elmassian and working with the scout team defense.

Sheldon, a running back as a prep, helped his school become just the second in state history to earn a national ranking from USA Today. Sheldon played strong safety at the University of Minnesota.

He came to Madison after helping the New Orleans Saints with computer game analysis, video and other quality-control needs.



Jason Eck
Graduate Assistant

Jason Eck, a reserve offensive lineman for the Badgers' 1999 Big Ten champions, begins his initial campaign as an offensive graduate assistant at Wisconsin.

Eck was a three-year scout team center and a three-time scout team player of the week honoree during his career. Eck capped his career by earning academic all-Big Ten honors in '98. He studied psychology at the UW-Madison.

The four-year honor roll student at St. Pius X High School (Atlanta) was a National Merit Commended Scholar as a prep. He is the son of former University of Toledo head basketball coach Jay Eck.

Jake Mlsna
Administrative Assistant

Jake Mlsna is in his second season as the football program's administrative assistant. In that role, he is responsible for travel arrangements, coordination of summer and fall camps and coordination of the team's managerial staff.

Mlsna, a 1997 graduate of the UW with a degree in agricultural business management, was a football manager for the Badgers for three-and-a-half years (1995-97). He worked for the Philip Morris Corporation for six months before returning to the Badger football program.

Mlsna was married to the former Kelly Schroeder last summer.

Director of Athletics

In the ever-changing and challenging world of athletic administration, the steadying hand in charge of Wisconsin's thriving department is Director of Athletics Pat Richter.

Richter, the former Badger all-America gridiron star, three-sport letterman and successful business executive, is beginning his 11th season leading the sports program at his alma mater.

During his administration, the dean of Big Ten ADs ...

- inherited a division that was $2.1 million in debt in 1990 and eliminated the red ink on the ledgers in less than four years.
- watched the football, men's and women's basketball and hockey squads set season attendance marks.
- oversaw plans for significant facility improvements, most notably the construction of the state-of-the-art Kohl Center and the Fetzer Academic Center.

On the field of play, the Badgers have been highly successful during Richter's administration.

The football squad has appeared in five bowls and won two Big Ten championships during the Barry Alvarez era. The 1998 club registered an 11-1 mark and once again caught the state's fancy as more than 50,000 Badger fans attended the '99 Rose Bowl.

The men's and women's basketball clubs, under the direction of Dick Bennett and Jane Albright, have excelled. Each has become a perennial post-season play participant.

Wisconsin won the Big Ten composite all-sports rankings in 1999 led by its football and men's basketball teams, which set school season win records.

The varsity sports teams have continued the long-standing excellence that Badger fans have come to expect. The UW has claimed three — hockey (1989-90), men's soccer (1995) and men's crew (1999) — NCAA titles and 33 Big Ten championships during his tenure.

As a player, Richter earned all-America (1961-62) and academic all-America (1962) honors as an end.

In the first ever college football game between No. 1 and No. 2-ranked teams, Richter and his Badger teammates dropped a 42-37 decision to USC in one of the greatest Rose Bowls ever. He set a game-record with 11 receptions.

Richter led the Big Ten in receiving twice and his name is still prevalent in the Badger record books. As a senior, Richter won Wisconsin's 1963 Big Ten Medal of Honor.

Richter was recognized for his college gridiron exploits in 1997 with his induction into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

He also earned all-league honors in baseball, but the 6-foot-5 center received his scholarship at the UW for basketball.

Pat was a first-round draft pick of the Washington Redskins and played professionally from 1963-71. Richter earned his B.S. degree from the UW-Madison in landscape architecture (1964).

Upon retirement from the NFL, he returned to the UW-Madison to earn his law degree (1971). After working at a Madison law firm, he joined Oscar Mayer and was V.P. of personnel.

Richter was honored with an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award for post-college achievements in 1988. He is a member of the Wisconsin State Athletic and Madison Sports Halls of Fame and the NFL Player Alumni Association. Pat was enshrined in the UW Athletic and Rose Bowl Halls of Fame in '91 and '94, respectively. In 1995, he became the second Badger to gain induction into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame. The Sales & Marketing Executives of Madison named Richter their "Executive of the Year" in 1997.

Pat and his wife, Renee, have four sons: Scott (wife Khaki and grandson J.P.), Brad (wife Chrissy and grandson Max), Barry (wife Kim and grandson Blake) and Tim.

Al Fish
Admin. Officer / Sports Administrator

Al Fish, Administrative Officer for the department of athletics since 1989, oversees several internal units, the University Ridge Golf Course and the Badgers' football and crew squads.

Fish oversees facility development, event management, maintenance, technical services (computers and video departments) and the equipment room.

Fish, who came to the Department after three years (1987-89) as the Director of Policy and Budget for the DHSS, spent two years coordinating construction of the $76.4 million Kohl Center and serving as its interim General Manager.

He worked previously as a liaison for Gov. Tony Earl to the State Assembly, a budget analyst for the State Budget Office and a program evaluator for the Legislative Audit Bureau.

The 1973 graduate of Luther College is married to Susan Goodwin. They have three children: Cassie, Molly and Nick.

Cheryl Marra
Sports Administrator

Cheryl Marra begins her 10th year as an Associate Athletics Director / Sports Administrator at Wisconsin in charge of the volleyball, basketball, swimming and golf teams.

She is the Badgers' Senior Women's Administrator and also oversees the strength and conditioning program and coordinates the sport booster clubs.

Marra came to Wisconsin after serving as the women's athletic director at Denison from 1983-90. She was an assistant professor (seven years) as well as head soccer (11 years) and track (nine) coach at Denison.

Marra serves on the NCAA subcommittee for post-graduate scholarships. She has chaired the NCAA women's soccer committee, and the NCAA committee on women's athletics.

A 1977 graduate of Slippery Rock State, Marra received her M.A. from Ohio State in 1983.

Marra and her husband, Jerry, have three children: Kelly, Kenny and Peter.

Mike Moss
Sports Administrator

Mike Moss starts his fourth year at the UW as an Associate Athletics Director / Sports Administrator. He oversees the hockey, track, cross country, softball and wrestling programs.

Moss is also responsible for the academic affairs and sports medicine units and chairs the department's wellness program. Moss came to Wisconsin after serving as Director of Sports Operations for the Atlanta Olympic Games. He was chief administrator for six sports at the Games.

Prior to that stint with the Olympic organizing committee, Moss was an associate athletic director at Cal. He was in charge of the business office operation for the Bears until 1986 when he was named Associate A.D. for student services.

Moss, a 1961 graduate of Ohio, received his M.A. from California State Hayward. He is also a retired lieutenant in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

His wife's name is Betty Gordon.

Jamie Pollard
Chief Finance Officer

Jamie Pollard enters his second full season as the Badger Athletic Department's Chief Financial Officer.

Pollard, the former Associate Athletic Director at Maryland (1994-98), oversees the ticket office, personnel, summer camps as well as running the business office. Pollard is a member of the department's policy-making management team.

At Maryland, Pollard was responsible for the department's financial management and also oversaw several departments and sports.

Pollard was an Associate A.D. for business affairs at St. Louis University (1989-94) and a staff accountant for Arthur Andersen (1987-89).

The UW-Oshkosh graduate ('87) was inducted into the UWO Athletic Hall of Fame in '99.

At UW-Oshkosh, Pollard was the 1987 Div. III national champion in the 5,000 meters.

Vince Sweeney
External Relations Director

Vince Sweeney, in his ninth year at UW-Madison, begins his fifth season as an Associate A.D. in charge of external relations.

He oversees marketing and promotions, sports information, spirit squads, special events and fundraising. Sweeney is the division's liaison with the National W Club, Alumni Association and UW-Madison Foundation.

Sweeney serves on the Board of the National Association of Collegiate Marketers and Greater Madison Convention & Visitors Bureau. He is a member of the NCAA's subcommittee on basketball marketing and is a contributor to Collegiate Sports Marketing.

Sweeney was named 1994 "Marketer of the Year" by the Madison Chapter of the American Marketing Association.

Prior to joining the UW, Sweeney worked 13 years in sports journalism where he earned several awards.

The Madison native graduated from the UW in 1978 with a B.A. in journalism.

He and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters (Kelsey and Keara).

Tim Bald
Director of Compliance

Tim Bald begins his second season as the department's Director of Compliance. In that role, he is the chief rules administrator for the division of athletics. Bald had served in a similar role at Iowa State (1994-97) prior to his UW-Madison appointment.

Bald worked oversaw all areas of NCAA compliance for the Cyclone athletic department, including student-athlete recruiting, eligibility certification, financial aid and athletic participation.

Bald is a member of the National Association of Compliance Coordinators and has participated in several NCAA regional seminars.

He also served ISU as Football Program Coordinator from 1986-94, serving as an administrative assistant to the head coach.

A 1980 graduate of Loras College, he added an M.S. in sports management from Western Illinois in 1985.

John Chadima
Director of Facilities & Events

John Chadima, formerly the Director of Football Operations at the UW, begins his third year as Director of Facilities and Events for the division.

He works primarily with capital improvements, facility operations and event management.

One of the original members of Barry Alvarez' staff at the UW, Chadima was responsible for coordinating all off-the-field activities (budget, team travel, camp, summer job program and scheduling) for the gridiron squad from 1990-96.

Prior to Wisconsin, he was a football manager at Iowa from 1983-87. Chadima was a graduate assistant in administration for the Iowa Athletic Department (1987-89).

The 1988 Iowa graduate earned a B.S. degree in athletic administration. A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he is single.

John Dettmann
Director of Strength & Conditioning

John Dettmann is in his eighth year as Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Department of Athletics, a role in which he oversees conditioning programs and facilities for all Badger athletic teams.

Prior to the UW, he worked in administration at the Houston (1984-86) and Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., (1988-89) YMCAs. Between those assignments, he was employed at the Enron Corporation.

He earned his B.S. degree in corporate fitness from UW-Oshkosh.

Dettmann was an honorable mention all-American, team MVP and Athlete of the Year as a senior wide receiver at UW-Oshkosh. He was inducted into that institution's Athletic Hall of Fame in '93.

Dettmann was married last spring. His wife's name is Janet.

Terry Gawlik
Assistant AD / Sports Administrator

Terry Gawlik, a former head coach in several women's sports at three schools in Texas, starts her second season as a sports administrator at the UW.

Gawlik assists the department in supervising day-to-day operations of the soccer and tennis teams as well as coordinating tournaments and handling special projects.

Prior to her promotion, Gawlik was an event coordinator at the UW from 1994-97. She also worked as an assistant director in the school's recreation department for three years.

Gawlik coached a number of sports at Austin College (1992-94), St. Mary's (1985-92) and the Mary Hardin-Baylor (1981-85). She won coach of the year honors in basketball and volleyball during her career.

She has a B.S. degree from Southwestern University and an M.E. from SW Texas State.

Dennis Helwig
Head Athletic Trainer

Dennis Helwig is in his 24th year at the University of Wisconsin and his 15th season as Head Football Trainer. Helwig also supervises the Sports Medicine Program for the institution.

Helwig was the Badgers' hockey trainer for 10 seasons, earning four NCAA championship rings, before becoming the division's head athletic trainer in 1984.

He is president of the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers Association. Helwig also worked with the United States Hockey Team at the 1984 Winter Olympics and the 1987 World University Summer Games.

A 1974 graduate of the UW in physical education and dance, he was an assistant trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles (1975) before returning to Madison.

Helwig and his wife, Jan, have a son, Chris. Jan is also an athletic trainer for the Wisconsin Department of Athletics.

Corbin Hunt
Director of Ticket Operations

Corbin Hunt, an assistant ticket manager at the University of Virginia since 1991, has been named Director of Ticket Operations at the UW.

At Virginia, Hunt served as the Assistant Ticket Manager for the Paciolan computer system for four years (1995-98) overseeing all aspects of the Paciolan ticketing and support group system. Hunt served as the liaison to the Virginia Student Aid Foundation and helped implement donor priority point systems for football and basketball ticketing.

Prior to taking over as Paciolan system manager at Virginia, Hunt was Assistant Ticket Manager for sales at UVA from '91-95. His responsibilities included customer service functions, supervision of sales staff and all over-the-counter telephone and mail order sales, as well as management of all gate sales and "will call" operations.

Before his appointment at Virginia, Hunt completed an athletic promotions and events internship at Miami of Florida, where he assisted in game management.

Hunt graduated from Lynchburg College (Lynchburg, Va.) with a B.A. degree in business management (1988) and St. Thomas University (Miami, Fla.) with an M.S. degree in sports administration (1990).

He played lacrosse for four years (1985-88) at Lynchburg earning all-Old Dominion Athletic Conference laurels in '86.

He and his wife, Sarah, have three daughters.

John Kvatek
Video Coordinator

John Kvatek begins his 12th year as a Video Coordinator for a Div. I-A Athletic Department and his fifth campaign in charge of those duties at the UW.

He came to the UW to help develop and implement the nation's first video network for sports applications and design vedeo and CATV systems for the Kohl Center.

The 1998 Big Ten Video Coordinator of the Year worked previously at Virginia Tech, where he served as Athletics Videography Director in 1993-94. Kvatek produced the "Virginia Tech Basketball" TV show and established a department-wide video support unit.

He also served as football video coordinator for five years (1988-92) at Miami (Ohio).

Kvatek, the national executive secretary of the Collegiate Sports Video Association, graduated from Miami with a B.S. degree in mass communications in '95. John and his wife, Michelle, have a son (Conor).

Steve Malchow
Director of Sports Information

Steve Malchow is in his 10th season as Director of Sports Information at the UW. He is in charge of publicity for all 11 Badger men's sports programs.

Malchow worked from 1979-89 at Iowa as a student, graduate and full-time assistant in the Sports Information Office before accepting his post at the UW-Madison.

Malchow is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), which has honored more than 40 of his press guides for excellence. His 1985 football and basketball guides at Iowa were rated first and second in the nation, respectively, by CoSIDA.

He is a member of the U.S. Basketball Writers and College Football Writers Associations. Malchow was also named an "Outstanding Young American" in 1996 and 1998 by the Association of Young Americans.

The 1983 graduate of Iowa earned degrees in marketing, journalism and management sciences.

Jim Roberts
Tech. Systems Director

Jim Roberts is in his 13th year working at the UW and his fifth as Director of Technical Systems (overseeing computer and video needs).

Additionally, Roberts and his staff launched the department's website which peaked with more than seven million hits in January of 1999.

Roberts came to the UW-Madison from Tulsa, where he was the school's equipment manager and director of athletic dorms.

A graduate of North Dakota State, Roberts served that school as equipment manager for all athletic teams, the recreation department and the physical education office.

Roberts was named Manager of the Year by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association in 1985. He is a past chairman of the certification committee for AEMA.

Terry Schlatter
Athletic Equipment Supervisor

Terry Schlatter is in his third year as the Athletic Equipment Supervisor for the Badgers.

The current president of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association, Schlatter worked at Purdue in the same role for 12 years (1985-96) before coming to Madison.

Schlatter was AEMA's 1994 Equipment Manager of the Year and has won district honors from the organization twice.

Schlatter also works each year at the National Football League scouting combine in Indianapolis.

Schlatter, a Purdue graduate, was the Boilermakers' 1978 baseball MVP and was an all-league third baseman.

He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters (Rachel and Renee).

Mike Unitan
Director of Marketing & Promotions

Mike Unitan is in his fourth season as Director of Marketing and Promotions for the Athletic Department.

Unitan and his staff coordinate the marketing efforts for all of the department's programs.

He manages a variety of department activities, including ticket sales campaigns, corporate sponsorships, game promotions and advertising.

Unitan's department is also responsible for selling sponsorship opportunities for the department.

The marketing department won two "Awards of Excellence" from Athletics Management in 1995.

Unitan has been a marketing staff member since 1991, when he first worked as an unpaid student intern. Before being promoted to Director in 1995, he spent three years as an assistant in the marketing office.

Unitan graduated from the UW-Madison in 1992 with a B.S. in economics.

Alan Zussman
Director of Academic Affairs

As Director of the Academic Affairs Office, Alan Zussman oversees a staff of 11 full-time employees who have academic support responsibilities for 625 student-athletes. He has worked in the department since '76.

Zussman oversaw a facility move for his office to the multi-million dollar Fetzer Academic Learning Center in 1997.

He previously worked as an Assistant to the Dean of the College of Letters and Science.

A member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics, he served for three years as an officer and member of its executive board.

Zussman earned his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the UW in communication arts and has completed coursework for his doctorate in educational administration.

He also provides color commentary on Wisconsin Public Television telecasts of men's basketball games.

Sound Bite

Chris Chambers was the only Big Ten receiver to catch at least 20 passes and average more than 20 yards per reception in '98. Chambers made 28 receptions and averaged 20.1 yards.

#88
Chris Chambers

WR, 6-1, 205, Jr./Jr., Bedford, OH (High School)

In 1998: club's leading receiver (yards) in eight games ... registered 563 yards receiving, 17th-most in school history ... average per reception (20.1) was best in the Big Ten ... only player in the league averaging better than 20 yards per catch ... seven TD catches are tied for fourth in UW history, two behind Al Toon's (1983) school record ... ratio of one TD catch for every four receptions was third-best nationally ... involved in Wisconsin's three longest plays from scrimmage ... an 80-yard TD catch to open the scoring at Michigan (tied for the third-longest pass play in Badger history) ... had 60-yard scoring plays against San Diego State and Northwestern ... 20.1-yard average per catch would have ranked second at Wisconsin (Larry Mialik averaged 21.3 yards in 1970), but Chambers needed two more receptions to reach the minimum ... ranked 13th in the league with an average of 46.9 yards per game ... team offensive MVP against UNLV when he established career highs with 81 yards receiving and two touchdowns ... only receiver to record a TD catch in the last eight games (he had four during that span) ... caught at least one pass in 10 of 11 games ... recorded 143 yards receiving (seven catches) and two touchdowns in the spring game.

In 1997: played in 10 football games and made six receptions for 50 yards ... four of his grabs came in the season finale vs. Georgia in Outback Bowl ... one catch vs. Syracuse (18 yards) and Indiana ... ran reverses for five yards vs. Illinois and 12 yards at Penn State ... five punt returns for two yards ... two-sport performer for Badgers as a true freshman (1997-98) ... besides his gridiron action as a wide receiver, he played in seven games as a back-up guard for the basketball team (the last Badger football player to play basketball, too, was Donald Hayes in 1995-96).

High school: earned all-America honors from several publications at Bedford ... top receiver in the midwest and fourth-best in the nation by Prep Star ... two-time first-team all-state ... 26 catches for 461 yards and eight TDs as a senior ... career total of 75 receptions, including 24 TDs ... 62 tackles and six interceptions as a senior ... standout punt returner, he took one back 96 yards for a touchdown ... a decorated track and basketball performer ... third-team all-state on the court with averages of 22 points, six assists and six steals per game as a senior ... football coach was Jim Hadakieovic.

Personal: born 8/12/78 ... undecided on major ... mother's name is Linda.

Ron Dayne

Ron Dayne

TB, 5-10, 252, Sr./Sr., Berlin, NJ (Overbrook)

The announcement came on Dec. 21, 1998. That is when Wisconsin all-America running back Ron Dayne said he was coming back to play his senior year at Wisconsin. Dayne, who became the Badgers' all-time leading rusher in just his 26th game, loved the family atmosphere of the Wisconsin football team; wanted to be with his infant daughter (Jada) for another year; and wanted to try to cement his legacy as one of college football's all-time great players.

Dayne enters his senior season as the leading candidate for the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and the Doak Walker Award after his record-setting effort in the Rose Bowl.

What Dayne has accomplished is simply remarkable. In essence, he has defined the UW football team with his physical play, no-nonsense approach and blue collar work ethic for a school which has averaged nine wins per season during his career. Consider the following about Ron.

• first Badger and only the third Big Ten player to rush for more than 5,000 yards.

• needs 499 yards to pass two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin (Ohio State) and become the Big Ten's all-time leading rusher ... currently ranks fourth in Big Ten career rushing, 42 yards behind MSU's Lorenzo White.

• first Badger since lineman Dennis Lick (former Chicago Bear) in 1974-75 to earn first-team all-America honors twice.

• needs to average 156.0 yards per game to pass Ricky Williams ... Dayne has averaged 142.6 yards per game in his career, and that includes four games as a freshman when he did not start ... that 142.6-yard norm is eighth-best in NCAA history, one-tenth of a yard behind Williams.

• two-time Big Ten rushing champ, the first since Lorenzo White (MSU) ... Dayne is trying to become the first player in Big Ten history to lead the circuit in rushing three times.

• second-fastest player in NCAA history (28 games) to reach 4,000 career yards rushing ... Georgia's Herschel Walker (27) did it one game quicker than Dayne and San Diego State's Marshall Faulk.

• extended his Big Ten record of 200-yard games to nine with his 246-yard performance in the Rose Bowl.

• since the NCAA does not count bowl games in its record-keeping, Dayne has seven 200-yard rushing games (he has two others in bowls) ... Ricky Williams (Texas) and Marcus Allen (USC) have the NCAA record with 11.

• fourth in NCAA history for yards gained through a junior year, trailing Walker (by 696 yards), Nebraska's Mike Rozier (217) and Faulk (26). Rozier and Walker were both Heisman Trophy winners.

• enters 1999 second in Big Ten history for rushing TDs ... Dayne's total of 51 trails Indiana's Anthony Thompson (64).

• became the Badgers' all-time leading rusher vs. UNLV last fall and broke Billy Marek's school record which had stood for 23 years.

• broke UW career marks for rushing attempts (883), rushing TDs (51), scoring (306 points), TDs (51), all-purpose yardage (5,386), 100-yard games (23) and 200-yard games (nine) in 1998 ... boosted his personal total to 42 school records.

• in three years, Dayne became the only player in UW history to accumulate more than 5,000 all-purpose yards ... smashed Terrell Fletcher's (San Diego Chargers) former school mark by 818 yards.

• outrushed the opposing team 20 times in 31 career starts.

• the active leading rusher in the NCAA by more than 600 yards entering 1999.

• an incredible 49 percent of his career yardage has come after contact.

• averaged 168.5 yards per game in the 25 victories during his Badger career and 87.8 in the 10 losses.

• Badgers have registered an 11-1 record in his career when he gets at least 30 carries ... the mark falls to 14-9 when he does not get at least 30 attempts.

• Wisconsin has never lost a game when he rushes for at least 200 yards (9-0) and has a 19-4 mark when he gains at least 100 yards.

• owns five NCAA records, including most yards gained in consecutive games (628 vs. Illinois and Hawaii in 1996).

• gained at least 100 yards rushing in six quarters during his career.

• a '99 team offensive captain as selected by his teammates.

When 1998 Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams (Texas) broke Tony Dorsett's (Pitt) 23-year-old career college rushing mark, many people thought the new record might be out of reach for future backs. Badger senior Ron Dayne enters his final college season well within reach of William's mark of 6,279 yards. Dayne needs 1,717 yards to pass Williams, an average of 156.1 yards in his 11 regular-season games this fall. Williams entered his final year ranked 37th in career rushing in the NCAA. For comparison sake, Dayne is presently 19th with 4,563 yards.

Rose Bowl MVP Ron Dayne needs 1,717 yards to become college football's top career rusher

ALVAREZ ON DAYNE'S RETURN TO WISCONSIN

"I wasn't really surprised he decided to stay. He and I talked earlier in the year and I said, 'Don't worry about this now. When the season's over, we'll look at all the facts and that is what he did."

"The information that we received indicated that he would be better off staying another year, and he still had some goals he wanted to achieve. I'm obviously pleased he decided to come back."

DAYNE ON HIS RETURN TO WISCONSIN IN 1999

"It wasn't a real difficult decision. I want to improve as a football player, and there are a few things I want to achieve in college. I have always wanted to get a degree, especially now for my daughter."

"I am having a lot of fun in college and I wasn't ready to leave my daughter yet. Her mother is staying for her senior year (at UW-Madison), and I wanted to see my daughter and see her."

In 1998 (as a junior)

One of three finalists (along with Boston College's Mike Cloud and Texas' Ricky Williams) for the Doak Walker Award . . .Walter Camp Football Foundation first-team all-American ... first Badger to earn first-team all-America honors twice in a career since Chicago Bear lineman Dennis Lick (1974-75) ... only unanimous first-team all-Big Ten choice on offense by both coaches and media ... shared team's Wayne Souza Award (appreciation honor offense) with Mike Samuel ... Rose Bowl Most Valuable Player in Badgers' 38-31 win over UCLA ... tied modern-era bowl record (shared by USC's Sam Cunningham and UCLA's Eric Ball) with four touchdowns ... rushed for 246 yards (the same number he had in the 1996 Copper Bowl vs. Utah), one yard shy of Charles White's Rose Bowl record ... ABC player of the game vs. Bruins ... broke the school's 23-year-old career rushing mark, the oldest in the Badger record book, against UNLV when he ran for 108 yards ... did not play in season opener at San Diego State after injuring ankle in training camp ... reached the century mark vs. Ohio (111), UNLV (108), Northwestern (168), Indiana (130), Purdue (127), Illinois (regular-season best 190), Iowa (164) and Minnesota (133) as Badgers began the season 9-0 ... led the Big Ten in rushing by 23 yards per game (over Ohio State's Michael Wiley) ... first conference player to lead the Big Ten in rushing twice since Lorenzo White (Michigan State) in 1985 and 1987 ... joins former Heisman Trophy winner Alan "The Horse" Ameche as the only Badgers to top the league in rushing twice ... ranked ninth nationally in rushing (127.9) and 32nd in all-purpose yards (132.4) ... besides leading the league in rushing, he ranked third in all-purpose yards, eighth in scoring and ninth in total offense (127.9) ... registered nine games of at least 100 yards rushing despite facing defenses geared to stop him week after week ... reached century mark on the ground in just seven games as a freshman and sophomore ... outrushed the opposing team eight times in 11 games ... four-time Badger offensive MVP (Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa) ... Big Ten P.O.W. against Northwestern and Illinois ... gained 58.9 percent of the yardage for Badgers' league-leading ground attack ... accounted for 38.6 percent of Wisconsin's total offense ... 1,525 yards rushing and 295 carries are third-most in UW season annals ... 15 rushing touchdowns are tied for fourth-best season at Wisconsin ... scored at least one TD in six consecutive games ... scored three TDs in wins over Ohio and Illinois.

Ron Dayne has come to epitomize Badger football with his physical, blue-collar approach to the game. Nearly half of his career yardage has come after contact.

In 1997 (as a sophomore)

Rushed for 1,457 yards (fifth nationally with an average of 142.0 per game) ... yardage total was fourth-best in school annals despite missing 12 quarters (entire games vs. Boise State and Michigan, three quarters vs. Iowa and one period against San Jose State) of action ... first-team all-America honors from Football News ... finalist for Doak Walker Award ... consensus second-team all-Big Ten honors ... named Madison Magazine's Sports Personality of the Year in a vote by city residents ... served as a spokesperson for the Dane County Humane Society in its efforts to encourage people to give shelter to homeless animals ... Dayne did TV and radio spots, a poster and billboards ... the theme of the campaign was to seek "Humane Treatment of Animals, Not Linebackers" ... became the fifth Badger to rush for more than 3,000 career yards (making that plateau in his 17th game) ... the other members of that club and the game they reached that level in their careers are Marek (27th), Brent Moss (36th), Alan Ameche (40th) and Terrell Fletcher (41st) ... set Badger record for yards rushing by a sophomore (Billy Marek had 1,207 in 1973) ... set a school mark for yards rushing in a quarter (170 in the opening stanza at San Jose State) ... had an 80-yard TD run vs. the Spartans on his first carry ... season totals of 1,457 yards, 263 attempts, 15 touchdowns all ranked fourth in UW history ... those figures were compiled despite playing all season with shoulder, groin, ankle and knee ailments ... named Badger offensive MVP four times ... recorded 200-yard games against San Jose State (254), Indiana (202) and Illinois (207) ... made century mark for yards gained against San Diego State (145), Purdue (141), Minnesota (183) and Penn State (126) ... averaged 12.7 yards per carry at San Jose State (20-254), tied for fourth-best in UW history.

In 1996 (as a freshman)

Joined a group of 10 other players in college history to rush for more than 2,000 yards (bowl games included) in a season ... totalled 2,109 yards (eighth-best in NCAA history) with a school-record 21 touchdowns despite not starting until fifth game ... most-prolific freshman runner in NCAA history ... broke an NCAA mark for yards gained in consecutive games when he totalled 628 yards vs. Illinois (289) and Hawaii (339), Dayne broke the old mark of 626 yards set by Cal State Fullerton's Mike Pringle in 1989 ... finished fourth nationally in rushing ... average per carry was second-best among NCAA's top 20 rushers (Air Force option quarterback Beau Morgan was only player ahead of him) ... third-team Associated Press all-American ... first-team freshman all-American by The Sporting News ... first-team all-Big Ten by media and second-team by coaches ... Big Ten co-freshman of the year (with Ohio State's Andy Katzenmoyer) by coaches ... gained 1,863 yards (the NCAA does not recognize bowls in seasons stats) to break Herschel Walker's (Georgia) freshman mark of 1,616 yards set in 1980 ... tied Walker's record of four 200-yard games by a freshman ... game average of 155.3 (not counting the bowl) is second in NCAA freshman history, just behind Marshall Faulk's (San Diego State) mark of 155.8 set in 1991 ... set national freshmen records for carries in a game (50 vs. Minnesota) and season (295) ... the old records were 45 carries in a game by James McDougal (Wake Forest, 1976) and 292 in a season by Steve Bartalo (Colorado State, 1983) ... averaged 162.2 yards per game, breaking the Wisconsin record (136.4 by Big Ten MVP Brent Moss in 1993) by more than 25 yards ... averaged 195.8 yards per game as a starter ... broke the Big Ten rushing record with 2,109-yard campaign ... bettered the mark of 2,066 yards set by Lorenzo White (Michigan State) in 1985 ... became just fourth Badger in modern era to lead the conference in rushing (joining Moss, 1993; Marek, 1974; and Alan Ameche, 1951-52) ... a 30.2-yard (per game) lead over Northwestern's Darnell Autry for league rushing crown ... only player to be named Big Ten player of the week three times ... rushed for a school-record 339 yards at Hawaii, the second-highest figure for a freshman in NCAA history (Faulk of San Diego State had 386 vs. Pacific in 1991) ... Dayne's total vs. Rainbows was achieved in just under three quarters (he left with 1:46 left in the third period) ... broke UW mark for yards gained in a half (250) at Hawaii ... also gained more than 200 yards (212) in the opening half at Illinois ... gained more than 100 yards in five quarters ... personally outrushed eight opponents, including two games when he played only in fourth period ... gained 1,231 yards in the month of November (244 vs. Purdue, 297 vs. Minnesota, 62 at Iowa, 289 at Illinois and 339 at Hawaii) ... set Badger bowl record with 246-yard effort against Utah in Copper Bowl ... scored four TDs, one off school record, against Illinois and Hawaii ... Badgers' offensive MVP seven times ... broke school freshman records for yards rushing in a game and season, held previously by Alan Ameche (1951) ... gained 42 percent of team's total offense ... registered 100-yard games vs. No. 14 Northwestern (139) and No. 3 Penn State (129) ... set Badger record with 50 carries vs. Minnesota ... carried the ball on 31 of the team's 41 first-half plays against the Golden Gophers ... Dayne's 31 first-half carries were just short of Tony Sands' (Kansas) NCAA mark of 34 carries in a half ... recorded fourth, ninth and 13th-best games (vs. Hawaii, Minnesota and Illinois) in Big Ten history ... Dayne's personal average as a starter would have ranked fourth in Big Ten and 29th nationally among teams ... gained just 218 yards in first three games despite getting just one carry prior to the fourth quarter in those contests ... finished 13th in voting for Heisman Trophy.

NCAA Three-year Rushing Totals

The list below shows the top rushing totals in college history for players following their junior season. Ron Dayne is fourth on the list, trailing Georgia's Herschel Walker, Nebraska's Mike Rozier and San Diego State's Marshall Faulk. Dayne's total of 4,563 yards is the highest in NCAA history for a player that didn't leave school prior to his senior season. The list does not include bowls.

Yards After Contact (YAC)

Ron Dayne has made nearly half of his collegiate yardage after contact. With opposing defenses designed to slow him, it has been rare for him to get a carry without contact. Shown below are Dayne's yearly totals for yards after contact (YAC). His total of 2,372 yards after contact would rank eighth in UW history for regular career rushing yards.

NCAA Career Averages

Ron Dayne has averaged 142.6 yards rushing per game during his UW career. That norm is the highest in Big Ten history and eighth-best in college football history. Dayne's average includes four games his freshman year when he came off the bench. Since Dayne joined the starting lineup, the Badgers have compiled a 21-9 record. He has outgained the opposing team 20 times in his career.

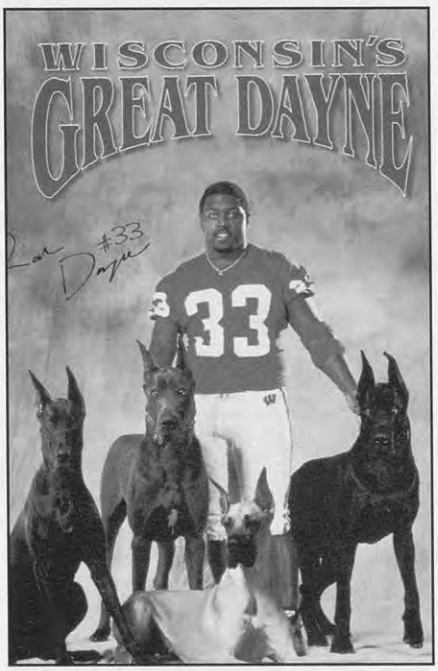
The NCAA does not recognize bowl game appearances when compiling college records. Dayne's career total of 4,563 yards rushing is 19th in college history. Dayne needs 1,717 yards to pass Texas' Ricky Williams and become college football's all-time top rusher.

Dane County Humane Society

Wisconsin's most-famous "Great Dayne" lent his name and time to promote a cause for the humane treatment of animals during the 1997 football season. Dayne, in conjunction with the Dane County Humane Society, was featured in a campaign urging for the "Humane Treatment of Animals, Not Linebackers." Dayne did PSAs for radio and television and posed for billboards. The poster at the right was given out at the '97 season opener vs. Boise State. For his efforts, Dayne received the Humane Society's "You Made a Difference Award." Dayne has been an animal lover since his youth when he had a Doberman named Butch.



Ron Dayne's work for the Dane County Humane Society earned him the "You Made A Difference" Award from the local chapter in 1996. Dayne's campaign asked for the "humane treatment of animals, not linebackers."

Inside the Numbers

91.6: percentage of games that Wisconsin has won when Dayne gets at least 30 carries.

216-10: Dayne's discus throw as a high school senior in the Golden West Invitational, the third-longest effort in national prep history.

37.8: percentage of Wisconsin's total offense that Dayne has accounted for on the ground during his three-year career.

628: the NCAA-record number of yards that Dayne gained rushing in consecutive games to close the 1996 season. He rambled for 289 vs. Illinois and 339 at Hawaii to eclipse the old national mark of 626 by Cal State Fullerton's Mike Pringle.

499: yards that Dayne needs to surpass Archie Griffin (Ohio State) and become the prestigious Big Ten Conference's all-time leading rusher.

2: times that Dayne has led the Big Ten in rushing ... Heisman Trophy winner Alan "The Horse" Ameche is the only other Badger to claim a pair of league rushing titles. No player in Big Ten history has led the league in rushing three times.

11: players, besides Dayne in 1996, that have rushed for more than 2,000 yards in a single season (bowls included).

5: times that Dayne has been named Big Ten offensive player of the week in his career.

9: total of 200-yard rushing games in his career, including a pair of 246-yard efforts in bowl games ... since the NCAA doesn't recognize bowls, Dayne is credited with seven games over 200 yards ... he needs four to tie Ricky Williams (Texas) and Marcus Allen (USC) for the NCAA record of 11.

25: pounds that Dayne has lost since his high school senior year playing weight of 275 at Overbrook High School.

Bob Greise, ABC Sports

"Dayne just ran the ball down our throats and that was the difference in the game. We had 5,000 guys in the box and still didn't stop him."

UCLA Assistant Coach Nick Aliotti

Only fourth former walk-on to be named team captain during the Barry Alvarez era ... developed a reputation as one of college football's hardest hitters ... Badger walk-on success story ... worked his way into starting lineup by end of his freshman year ... came off bench against NCAA champ Michigan in '97 and has been a fixture in the starting lineup ever since ... started 14 consecutive games over two seasons ... has practiced at free and strong safety.

In 1998: honorable mention all-Big Ten in secondary ... called alignments in the backfield ... one of the reasons that Wisconsin improved from 10th in the Big Ten in pass efficiency (in 1997) to seventh nationally (1998) ... scored highest point total on Coach Phil Elmassian's secondary rating sheet ... ranked fourth on squad and first in secondary with 94 tackles (7.8 per game) ... tackle total was the most by a DB at Wisconsin in three seasons ... missed only four tackles in over 400 plays ... picked off three passes to help UW rank tied for seventh nationally in interceptions ... broke up six passes, tied for third-most on team ... that included four PBUs (equalling UW single-game record) in victory over Purdue when Drew Brees attempted 83 passes ... Badger defensive player of the week against UNLV with five tackles (two for loss) and a fumble forced ... top tackle games came vs. Penn State (13), San Diego State (12) and Purdue (11) ... picked off passes in back-to-back games against Northwestern and Indiana plus Minnesota.

In 1997: played on special teams for the opening 10 games and made one tackle ... came off the bench vs. national champion Michigan to record 13 tackles (eight solos) in 44 plays ... started the regular-season finale at Penn State and was credited with a team-best nine stops (all solos) ... concluded the season by equalling his career-best with 13 stops (nine solos) vs. Georgia in the Outback Bowl ... 35 of his 36 tackles came in the final three games (vs. No. 1 Michigan, No. 6 Penn State and No. 11 Georgia) ... recorded tackles for loss vs. the Wolverines and Nittany Lions ... saw action in every game on special teams ... recovered a fumble on the last series vs. San Jose State.

High School: three-sport letterman at Rhinelander ... first-team all-conference in basketball and football ... registered 76 tackles, four interceptions and two fumble recoveries as a senior ... intercepted eight passes as a junior ... played in Wisconsin Shrine Game ... honor roll ... coach was Bill Makris.

Personal: born 4/22/78 ... history major ... parents are Terry and Alexandria ... brother, Troy, is a Badger defensive back.

John Favret

End, 6-4, 238, Sr./Jr., Clev. Hts., OH (St. Ignatius)

One of the best big-play defenders in the Big Ten ... started at defensive end in 25 consecutive games, every contest of his freshman and sophomore campaigns ... TFL total of 22 after two years is second-best (Mike Thompson had 30) at Wisconsin after two years ... UW career leaders Tarek Saleh and Tom Burke had four and 13 TFLs, respectively, at the same time of their careers.

In 1998: won Jay Seiler Award (with Chris Ghidorzi), a coaches' appreciation award for a defensive player ... honorable mention all-Big Ten ... sixth on team with 67 tackles ... 12 of those were for losses ... tipped six passes at the line, including three vs. UCLA all-American Cade McNown in Rose Bowl ... intercepted a pass, recorded two quarterback sacks and forced a fumble against UNLV ... nine tackles against Ohio's wishbone attack and Indiana's multiple offense were his season bests ... forced a fumble against Hoosiers ... recorded at least one tackle for loss in nine games ... averaged 5.6 tackles per game ... involved in four turnover plays (one interception, one fumble recovery and two fumbles forced) as Badgers led the nation with a school-record +22 turnover margin.

In 1997: first-team freshman all-America by The Sporting News ... honorable mention all-conference (media) ... started all 13 games and made 53 tackles ... only third freshman in school history (teammates Chris McIntosh and Bill Ferrario are the others) to start 13 games in rookie campaign ... only freshman listed among conference leaders in TFLs and sacks ... 10 tackles for loss were second-most by a rookie (Mike Thompson had 13 in 1991) in school history ... eight sacks were second-most on the team and best by a UW freshman during Alvarez era ... four of his sacks came in the win over Boise State when he was named Big Ten defensive player of the week ... recorded five tackles for minus yardage against the Broncos, tied for third-most in Wisconsin history (one shy of the all-time record) ... career-best 13 tackles vs. Boise State were a Badger season high for a down lineman ... an interception on Northwestern's six-yard line set up a short scoring drive in Badgers' one-point victory ... also caused a fumble and recorded a sack vs. the Wildcats ... team's defensive MVP against Boise State and Northwestern.

In 1996: scout team defensive player of the year ... won weekly scout team award vs. UNLV ... redshirted.

High School: USA Today honorable mention all-America pick at St. Ignatius ... regional all-America honors by Super Prep, Prep Football Report and Blue Chip ... school won two national and four state championships during his career ... registered 97 tackles and 13 sacks as a senior ... squad's most valuable defensive lineman ... defensive player of the year in seven-county region ... coach was Chuck Kyle.

1998 Review

Winningest Team in History

Wisconsin (11-1 overall, 7-1 Big Ten tri-champion) concluded the winningest season in school history with a 38-31 win over UCLA in the 85th Rose Bowl game presented by AT&T.

The upset of the sixth-ranked Bruins let the Badgers defeat ranked squads in back-to-back games (Wisconsin defeated No. 14 Penn State in the regular season finale) for the first time since 1959. The victory was Wisconsin's second Rose Bowl triumph in six years and boosted its all-time bowl mark to 5-6.

Final Poll Position

Wisconsin ended the year ranked fifth and sixth, respectively, in the ESPN/USA Today (coaches) and Associated Press (media) polls. Those were the identical rankings that the Badgers received after their 1994 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA.

Wisconsin was ranked every week this season for only the third time in school history. The Badgers were among the nation's top 10 for nine of the final 10 weeks after beginning the season rated 20th in each major poll.

The Accomplishments

Besides becoming the first team in 109 years of Badger football to win 11 games, the 1998 Badgers ...

- became the winningest squad in school annals.
- were the first team in school history to win 10 regular-season games.
- registered a school-record seven Big Ten wins.
- shared (with Ohio State and Michigan) the Big Ten championship, the school's 10th league title all-time and second for Alvarez.
- posted an .875 winning percentage in conference play, tops at the UW since the 1912 Badgers were 5-0 against Big Ten competition.
- posted only the school's fourth undefeated home campaign in the modern era.
- won six home games for the first time since 1962.
- recorded a nine-game winning streak to open the season for just the second time in Wisconsin history (the 1901 squad finished 9-0).
- fashioned a 91.6 overall winning percentage, the best at the school except for a trio (1901, 1906 and 1912) of unbeaten teams.
- won its fifth bowl in history and raised the school's all-time postseason mark to 5-6 (Wisconsin improved to 4-1 during the Alvarez era in bowls).
- joined UCLA as the first schools to repeat as a Rose Bowl representative in the last six seasons.
- won a New Year's Day bowl game for the third time since 1994 (joining only Penn State, Michigan, Florida State, Nebraska, Florida and Tennessee).

* — Bowl Championship Series

Numerically Speaking

60.4 — Percentage of quarters (29-48) that Wisconsin did not allow a point. The Badgers recorded two shutouts for the first time since 1983. Wisconsin's 10.2-point defensive scoring average led the NCAA. The last time the Badgers led the nation in a team statistical category was 1962 when the UW offense averaged 32.2 points per game.

101 — The school-record number of tackles behind the line of scrimmage recorded by the '98 defense. Led by Tom Burke's Wisconsin-record total of 31, the Badgers bettered the 1992 team aggregate of 95. This year's 44 sacks surpassed the '92 squad's record total of 43.

40 — Points (six TDs and two safeties) that Wisconsin scored in non-offensive situations. Jamar Fletcher returned three interceptions for TDs; Nick Davis returned two punts for scores; and Ryan Marks recovered a blocked punt for a TD.

10 & 8 — TD passes thrown by Wisconsin and its opponents in '98.

1 — Times that Wisconsin suffered a negative turnover margin. The Badgers had one more turnover than Michigan in their only loss of 1998.

3rd & 5th — What the Wisconsin scoring offense (31.8) and scoring defense (11.9) averages of 1998 ranked in the school's history.

4 — Number of defensive categories in which Wisconsin was ranked among the nation's top 10 statistically for 1998. The Badgers were first in scoring defense (10.2), third in rushing defense (89.6), seventh in pass efficiency defense (97.7) and fifth in total defense (270.3). Only Wisconsin, Florida State, Ohio State and Kansas State were ranked among the NCAA's top 10 in each of those statistical categories.

215-57 — Wisconsin's scoring advantage in the second half. The Badgers scored almost as many points in the third (113) and fourth (102) quarters as the opponents tallied for the entire season (143). The Badgers' 215 second-half points were more than Alvarez' first three Wisconsin teams scored in the entire season.

31 — Number of victories compiled by the senior class of 1998. That is the most for a group of seniors since the 1901 contingent won 35 contests.

0.8 — Percentage of carries on which Wisconsin lost a fumble. The Badgers had more carries (600) than any Big Ten team and the fewest fumbles lost. Wisconsin's five lost fumbles were the fewest in school history (seven by the 1983 and 1961 teams).

Star Players of 1998

Ron Dayne — led the Big Ten in rushing for the second time (1,525 yards), broke the UW career rushing record and earned all-America mention for the second time . . . was named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award and enters 1999 as the leading candidate for the Heisman Trophy.

Tom Burke — set Big Ten records for tackles for loss (31) and quarterback sacks (22) . . . those figures led the nation, too (although the NCAA does not officially recognize national leaders in those categories) ... joined Aaron Gibson as the first consensus all-Americans since Cory Raymer in '94.

Aaron Gibson — first Badger in history to be a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the Outland Trophy . . . named first-team all-American by five different publications . . . joined Burke as a consensus all-American.

Jamar Fletcher — broke a Big Ten record when he returned an interception for a touchdown in the Rose Bowl, his third of the season . . . led the nation in interceptions . . . first Badger to top the NCAA in a stat category since Ira Matthews (punt returns) in '78.

Matt Davenport — scored 99 points, most in Wisconsin history for a kicker . . . set season (.905) and career (.868) FG percentage records . . . tied a school record with four FGs against Minnesota . . . fourth nationally in FG% and second in league scoring.

Mike Samuel — first QB in school annals to record three eight-win seasons as the starter . . . tied Darrell Bevell as the winningest quarterback (27) in UW history . . . broke school mark for rushing TDs by a QB and finished third in career passing.

Kevin Stemke — season average (43.8) was one-tenth of a yard shy of his own UW record set as a freshman . . . established school mark for punting yards (3,155) in a season . . . consensus first-team all-league punter . . . 10th nationally in punting.

Chris Chambers — only player in the Big Ten to average more than 20 yards per catch . . . ratio of TDs-to-catches (1:4) was third-best nationally.

Chris McIntosh — all-league tackle has started every game in his career (38 straight) . . . should smash UW career mark of 46 games started set by Mike Thompson.

Century Club Tacklers

A three-tackle effort by end Tom Burke in the Rose Bowl allowed the senior to join linebackers Donnel Thompson (109) and Chris Ghidorzi (104) in the century club for tackles. The last time UW had at least three players reach 100 stops was 1991 when Reggie Holt (144), Brendan Lynch (131), Gary Casper (129) and Mike Thompson (105) accomplished the feat.

Good Guy

Cecil Martin, a team captain, was named to the American Football Coaches Association "Good Works" team for the second time in as many years. The team community service leader established an out-of-season visitation program at the UW Children's Hospital for football players.

Takeaways & Giveaways

The Badgers' nation-best turnover margin (+2.0 per game) was built on their excellence across the board in avoiding turnovers on offense and creating them on defense. Wisconsin tied for seventh nationally with 18 interceptions and was third with 29 total turnovers created. The Badgers were tied for second in fewest fumbles lost (four) and tied for fifth in fewest interceptions (five). The figures above do not include bowl games, but the Badgers' turnover margin success continued in the Rose Bowl where Wisconsin had a +1 margin against UCLA.

All-Star Badgers

Two Badger seniors accepted invites to play in post-season all-star games. Quarterback Mike Samuel and fullback Cecil Martin participated in the Hula Bowl. Martin also played in the East-West Shrine Game.

You Can Look These Up

- The Badgers trailed for only one hour, 18 minutes and 24 seconds during their 12-game schedule. The UW was tied or had the upper hand for 10 hours, 51 minutes and 36 seconds this fall. Wisconsin never trailed in six of its 11 victories.
- Barry Alvarez was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson/College Football Writers' Association Coach of the Year Award.
- Tim Rosga blocked three punts in 1998, tied (with Kenny Gales) for the second-most in school season history.
- Kevin Stemke was the first Badger in 26 years to lead the league in punting.
- The Badgers were 11-0 in 1998 in games that linebacker Chris Ghidorzi played. Wisconsin lost the only game that Ghidorzi missed (at Michigan).
- The TV audience for the Rose Bowl (13.6 rating) was the second-best among all post-season games, trailing the 17.2 mark of the Fiesta Bowl.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Wisconsin scored the game's final 19 points to win its 1998 season opener, 26-14, at San Diego State. Quarterback Mike Samuel had two big plays to help rally the Badgers, who played without star tailback Ron Dayne (ankle injury).

Wide receiver Chris Chambers scored first on a 60-yard pass from Samuel before SDSU answered on backup quarterback Brian Russell's two-yard run. Russell entered the game solely to run an option play.

The Aztecs scored off a UW turnover to go ahead 14-7 in the third quarter when SDSU's Jerome Haywood recovered a Wisconsin fumble in the end zone. Badger kicker Matt Davenport booted field goals from 47 and 40 yards to bring Wisconsin back within one point (14-13) entering the fourth quarter.

Samuel scored the game-winning touchdown on a 47-yard run with 11:56 left. Samuel then connected with TE Dague Retzlaff for the two-point conversion and a 21-14 lead.

Matt Davenport added his third field goal of the game in the fourth quarter and the Badgers recorded a safety to close the scoring. With Dayne out of the lineup, sophomore Eddie Faulkner started at tailback. Faulkner was injured early and freshman Carlos Daniels came off the bench to rush for 113 yards on 28 carries.

Sept. 12, 1998 • Camp Randall Stadium • Madison, WI

MADISON, Wis. — Wisconsin shut out Ohio 45-0 in a game that the Badgers controlled on both sides of the ball. The UW held the Bobcats to 102 total yards, while the Badgers racked up 336 yards in total offense. Wisconsin rushed for four TDs and passed for two others.

In Wisconsin's home opener, Ron Dayne moved to within 33 yards of Billy Marek, the school's all-time leading rusher. Dayne finished the game with 20 carries for 111 yards and three touchdowns.

Some new faces also took center stage in the game. Back-up running back Carlos Daniels rushed for 42 yards and one touchdown. Freshman Nick Davis returned six punts for 113 yards and rookie Joey Boese turned in an impressive performance with four solo tackles and one interception. Quarterback Scott Kavanagh entered the game in the third quarter and tossed touchdown passes to Chad Kuhns (four yards) and Marcus Carpenter (11 yards).

Wisconsin's senior quarterback Mike Samuel registered an eight-for-nine passing performance for 96 yards and eclipsed the 4,000-yard passing mark for his career to move into third place on the UW all-time list.

The shutout was Wisconsin's first since blanking Stanford in 1996. Ohio entered the game with a 361-yard rushing offense average, but the Bobcats netted just 65 yards.

MADISON, Wis. — Ron Dayne passed Billy Marek to become Wisconsin's all-time leading rusher as the Badgers downed UNLV, 52-7. Dayne needed only 33 yards to break the record and finished the day with 108 yards on 13 carries.

UNLV's Ted Darnell scored first on a 50-yard interception return for a touchdown, but Wisconsin tallied the game's final 52 points. Five different players scored touchdowns for the Badgers. Quarterback Mike Samuel scored on a pair of one-yard sneaks and also connected with Chris Chambers on a 29-yard TD pass.

Scott Kavanagh entered the game in the second half and passed for two touchdowns. The Badgers finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with TD runs from redshirt sophomore Matt Unertl and junior Jean Jourdain.

The Badgers finished with a total of 514 yards (325 rushing, 189 passing) and held UNLV to 159 yards (23 rushing, 136 passing).

Wisconsin threw three touchdown passes for the first time in 34 games (last time vs. Michigan State in 1995) and completed its fourth perfect non-conference slate of the Alvarez era.

Marek, the former rushing record holder attended the game and said, "There have been so many great running backs here over the years and it's tough to reach a record. Ron certainly made short work of it."

Sept. 26, 1998 • Camp Randall Stadium • Madison, WI

MADISON, Wis. — Northwestern snapped Wisconsin's string of 13 consecutive shutout quarters, but only after the Badgers had amassed a 38-0 lead over the Wildcats in a 38-7 Big Ten victory at Camp Randall Stadium.

Junior Ron Dayne carried the ball 22 times for 168 yards, his 17th career 100-yard rushing effort. In the process, Dayne moved into 10th place on the Big Ten career rushing list with 3,953 yards. The victory was Coach Barry Alvarez' 53rd at Wisconsin, making him the winningest coach in the modern era at the UW.

Five different Badgers scored touchdowns for the second consecutive game, including Ryan Marks, who returned a Tim Rosga blocked punt eight yards to give Wisconsin a 7-0 lead. Quarterback Mike Samuel ran for a one-yard TD and threw a 60-yard pass to Chris Chambers in the second quarter to give the UW a 21-0 halftime lead.

Matt Davenport's 31-yard field goal opened the scoring in the second half before Dayne's 46-yard touchdown run. Freshman Nick Davis accounted for Wisconsin's final points with a 68-yard punt return for a touchdown, the Badgers' first punt return for a TD since 1996.

Oct. 3, 1998 • Memorial Stadium • Bloomington, IN BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — Wisconsin got three second-half TDs and a pair of defensive stands late in the fourth quarter to overcome Indiana, 24-20.

Ron Dayne gained 130 yards and scored the go-ahead touchdown as the Badgers rallied in the second half to defeat the Hoosiers in their first Big Ten road game.

The first half was a battle of field goals and the Hoosiers led 6-3 going into halftime. Indiana returned the second-half opening kickoff 100 yards for the first touchdown of the game and a 10-point lead.

Quarterback Mike Samuel threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to Chris Chambers and added a one-yard TD run to put the Badgers ahead 17-13. Indiana responded again on a four-yard scoring run by Chris Gall for a 20-17 IU advantage entering the fourth quarter.

Dayne saw action in the fourth quarter for the first time of the season, and scored the game-winning TD with 10:53 remaining. Dayne became the ninth junior in college history to rush for over 4,000 yards. Dayne did it in his 28th game, second fastest in history to Georgia's Herschel Walker (27 games).

End Tom Burke was the star for the defense with four tackles for loss. Wisconsin's defense limited Hoosier quarterback Antwaan Randle El to just 34 yards rushing (23 carries) and 145 yards passing.

Oct. 10, 1998 • Camp Randall Stadium • Madison, WI

MADISON, Wis. — Despite Purdue QB Drew Brees' NCAA record-breaking passing performance (55-83, 494 yards), the Badgers came away with a 31-24 homecoming win over the Boilermakers in a night game at Camp Randall Stadium.

The Badgers intercepted four passes for the first time since the Copper Bowl in 1996 and withstood a remarkable performance by Brees to gain the victory.

After Purdue's Travis Dorsch opened the scoring with a field goal, Mike Samuel recorded a pair of rushing TDs for a 14-3 Badger lead. The Boilermakers responded with a pair of FGs and a TD pass by Brees to tie the game at 17 entering halftime.

Jamar Fletcher turned the game around with a 52-yard interception return for a score late in the third period. Ron Dayne extended the Badger advantage to 31-17 with a one-yard run in the fourth quarter.

The Boilermakers added another touchdown with 22 seconds left in the game to bring the final score to 31-24. An onside kickoff attempt was recovered by the Badgers who then ran out the clock.

Dayne rushed 33 times for 127 yards, his 19th career game over 100 yards, equaling the school record set by Brent Moss. Samuel rushed for more yardage (58) than he passed for (44). Brees broke an NCAA mark for completions (53) and Randall Lane established a Big Ten record with 18 catches.

Oct. 17, 1998 • Memorial Stadium • Champaign, IL

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — Wisconsin came close to recording its second shutout of the season, defeating Illinois by a score of 37-3 at Memorial Stadium. Wisconsin's stifling defense held the Illini to 28 yards rushing and 194 yards of total offense.

The Badgers also unleashed a powerful running game as Ron Dayne gained a regular-season best of 190 yards and scored three touchdowns. Wisconsin rushed 62 times for 274 yards as six different players got carries.

The Badgers, however, led just 10-0 at halftime. Dayne added two touchdowns in the third quarter (runs of one and three yards) as Wisconsin outscored its hosts 20-0 in the third period. Cornerback Jamar Fletcher ran an interception back 22 yards for a touchdown for the second consecutive game. Fletcher tied Bob Radcliffe's school mark (set in 1949) for interceptions returned for TDs.

The Badgers came close to posting their second shutout of the season but with 2:20 left in the fourth quarter Illinois' Neil Rackers converted on a 38-yard field goal.

On defense, Chris Ghidorzi had 11 tackles while Tom Burke chipped in 10, including three for losses. Illinois freshman Rocky Harvey, touted as one of the league's top rookies, gained eight yards on 10 carries. The Badgers had a 15-minute advantage in time of possession and nearly doubled the Fighting Illini's total offensive output (380-194). For the second week in a row, the Badger defense created four turnovers.

Oct. 24, 1998 • Kinnick Stadium • Iowa City, IA

IOWA CITY, Iowa — Wisconsin recorded its second shutout of the season with a 31-0 win over Iowa at Kinnick Stadium. It was the Badgers' first victory in Iowa City since 1974.

The Badgers led 10-0 at halftime after a TD run by Ron Dayne and a Matt Davenport field goal. Mike Samuel ran for 71 yards in the game, including a 26-yard run to set up Dayne's first touchdown and a 37-yard run in the drive that led to Davenport's 38-yard field goal in the second quarter.

Wisconsin increased its lead to 22-0 by the end of the third quarter with a touchdown, a safety and a field goal.

Ross Kolodziej recovered an Iowa fumble in the third quarter to set up another Samuel touchdown. The score was Samuel's 21st career rushing TD, which tied him with Dale Hackbart (1957-59) for most touchdowns by a quarterback in Wisconsin history. Eddie Faulkner put the final points on the scoreboard with a one-yard run with 26 seconds left in the fourth quarter.

Tom Burke led the Badger defense with 12 tackles, including five quarterback sacks. The last time Wisconsin's defense shut out a Big Ten opponent on the road was a 49-0 win over Northwestern in 1983. It was Barry Alvarez' second consecutive victory over his former boss, Hayden Fry.

MADISON, Wis. — Wisconsin kept the Paul Bunyan Axe in Madison with its fourth consecutive victory over the Golden Gophers. The 26-7 win boosted the Badgers' record to 9-0, their best start since 1901.

Wisconsin's defense continued to show why it entered the game ranked second nationally against the run and fifth in total defense. The Badgers held Minnesota to 28 yards rushing and 180 through the air as four UW players intercepted passes.

Ron Dayne rushed 35 times for 133 yards, his eighth consecutive game over 100 yards. Wisconsin improved to 18-4 during Dayne's career when he reaches the century mark. Dayne also became UW's all-time career scoring leader (282 points).

After the Badgers assumed a 10-0 lead, Minnesota got on the board with a 53-yard touchdown pass from Billy Cockerham to Luke Leverson to make it 10-7 at halftime.

Davenport then proceeded to kick three second-half field goals (48, 18 and 22 yards) to put the Badgers safely ahead 19-7. Mike Samuel completed the scoring with a 10-yard run with seven minutes left in the game to make the final score 26-7.

The Badgers held a 15-minute advantage in time of possession, owned a +3 turnover margin and got an excellent effort from punter Kevin Stemke who averaged just a shade under 50 yards (49.8) punting. The Badgers' nine-game winning streak equalled the longest in school history (1901).

Nov. 14, 1998 • Michigan Stadium • Ann Arbor, MI

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Michigan's Clarence Williams and Anthony Thomas both eclipsed 100 yards rushing and the Badger offense generated just 190 total yards in a 27-10 Wolverine victory. The loss broke Wisconsin's nine-game winning streak.

Michigan's defense held Ron Dayne to just 53 yards rushing, and the UW uncharacteristically suffered two turnovers. Dayne's string of 100-yard rushing games was snapped at eight. Wisconsin played without leading tackler Chris Ghidorzi, who suffered a hamstring pull in practice. The Wolverines took advantage by rushing for 257 yards, an opponent season high.

Wisconsin opened the scoring on an 80-yard Chris Chambers reception from Mike Samuel, tied for the third-longest pass play in school history. Michigan answered three minutes later with a Jerame Tuman six-yard TD pass from QB Tom Brady.

Michigan extended its lead to 21-7 before three field goals (two by Michigan and a 39 yarder by Matt Davenport) closed the scoring.

"I just feel bad that we couldn't fire our best shot," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "Obviously, I have to give credit to Michigan, but it was certainly wasn't our type of ballgame."

The crowd of 111,217 fans at newly expanded Michigan Stadium was the largest ever to witness a Badger football contest.

Nov. 21, 1998 • Camp Randall Stadium • Madison, WI

MADISON, Wis. — Wisconsin earned a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl with a 24-3 win over Penn State. The win pushed the Badgers' record to 10-1, making the 1998 squad the winningest (regular season games) team in school history and giving it a perfect (6-0) home record.

Special teams were a key for Wisconsin as Nick Davis returned a punt 82 yards to open the scoring in the first quarter. The UW converted a recovered fumble on the punt team into a 37-yard pass from Mike Samuel to Chris Chambers. The Badgers went up 17-0 on a 38-yard field goal by Matt Davenport. Penn State scored its only points when Travis Forney kicked a 34-yard field goal in the third quarter. Samuel ran one yard for a score with 11:48 left in the game to make the final score 24-3.

Tom Burke, the national leader in tackles for loss and quarterback sacks, was credited with five tackles for loss (third time in 1998) and four sacks. Jason Doering led the Badger defense with 13 tackles. The defense held its sixth foe to under 10 points.

On offense, Ron Dayne carried the ball 23 times for 95 yards and Mike Samuel rushed 18 times for a career-best 89 yards and one touchdown.

"I could not be more proud of a group of players and the coaching staff for the job they did this year," said Coach Barry Alvarez, who earned the right to take his second Badger squad to Pasadena.

Jan. 1, 1999 • Rose Bowl • Pasadena, CA

PASADENA, Calif. — The 1998 Badgers completed the winningest campaign in school history with a thrilling 38-31 upset of sixth-ranked UCLA in the 85th Rose Bowl. For the second time in six years, Barry Alvarez' Badgers defeated the higher rated Bruins on their home field in the "Granddaddy of Them All."

Ron Dayne keyed the triumph with 246 yards rushing, a yard shy of Charles White's (USC) Rose Bowl record. Dayne equalled his career high with four TDs, which tied the bowl's modern-day record. Bruin QB Cade McNown nearly matched Dayne's heroics (19-34 passing for 340 yards), but he threw one interception that decided the outcome. Badger freshman Jamar Fletcher intercepted a sideline throw by McNown and returned it 46 yards to give UW a 38-28 lead early in the fourth period.

UCLA narrowed the margin to seven points on Chris Sailer's 30-yard field goal with 6:05 left. The Badgers, however, could not run out the clock and McNown set up for the potential game-winning drive with 1:42 left. After three incompletions, UCLA's final attempt was snuffed out by freshman Wendell Bryant's sack of McNown.

Dayne was named Rose Bowl MVP with his four-TD performance. QB Mike Samuel had his best game of the season (154 yards passing and 65 yards rushing) and, the UW defense, typical of its play all year, made the stops when they were needed.

More than 55,000 Badger fans made the Rose Bowl a home game atmosphere for the visitors from Madison.

'99 Rose Bowl MVP Ron Dayne

1st-team All-Americans

Robert Butler

Robert Butler
Tackle (1912)

A member of Wisconsin's last undefeated team in 1912, Robert "Butts" Butler was the school's first consensus all-American. He was a Collier's all-American in 1912 (first team) and 1913 (second team). In the 1912 season finale against Minnesota, he and his 10 teammates played the entire game in a 14-0 victory. Butler played pro ball for the Canton Bulldogs and was a teammate of the legendary Jim Thorpe.

Ray Keeler

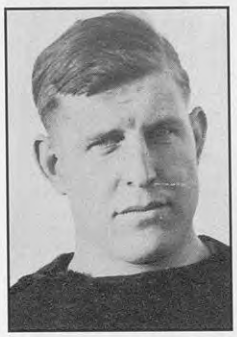
Ray Keeler
Guard (1913)

Consensus all-America lineman Ray "Tubby" Keeler was a three-time letterman in football and track at the UW. Despite a 185-pound frame, he earned all-America recognition as a junior from the International News Service / Frank Menke. He captained the 1914 squad and served on the Athletic Board (1914-15) as a student representative. Keeler went on to coach the UW-La Crosse football team from 1917-29.

Arlie Mucks

Arlie Mucks
Guard (1914)

One of Wisconsin's truly great athletes, Arlie Mucks was probably best known for his success as a discus thrower. The 1914 football all-American (as selected by INS / Frank Menke) placed second in the discus in the 1912 Olympics as a high school athlete. He was undefeated in the discus and shot put as a collegian and set a then-world record discus mark of 155-2 in 1916. He is the only person to win national titles in two events three straight years.



Howard Buck

Howard Buck
Tackle (1915)

A consensus all-American, Howard "Cub" Buck was labeled by many as the best lineman of his era. He played "roving center" on defense and was credited with making half of his team's tackles. Former Canton teammate Jim Thorpe said Buck was the finest lineman he ever played with. Buck also played for Green Bay (1921-25) and is a member of the Packers' Hall of Fame. After his playing career, he became the first head football coach at Miami (Fla.) in 1926.

Paul Meyers

Paul Meyers
End (1919)

End Paul Meyers earned first-team all-America honors from Walter Eckersall as a senior. Meyers was an all-Big Ten choice in both 1916 and 1919. The three-year letterman, who played for three different coaches, was the Badger team captain and a third-team all-America choice by Eckersall in 1916.

George Bunge

Charles Carpenter
Center (1919)

The two-time all-America center made Walter Eckersall's honor squads in both 1916 (third team) and 1919 (first team). Carpenter, the first all-America center at the UW, captained the 1919 squad. He was the recipient of Wisconsin's Big Ten Medal of Honor in '19. The Madison native later served as president of the school's Athletic Board.

Frank Weston

George Bunge
Center (1920)

Center George Bunge earned all-America honors in 1920 (first team by Consolidated Press) and 1921 (third team by the International News Service). The Badgers posted a three-year mark of 16-4-1, including a second-place Big Ten finish in 1920, during his career.

Frank Weston
End (1920)

One of the truly great athletes of his era, Frank "Red" Weston also carried his talents beyond the sports arena. He was a member of the UW Medical School faculty for more than 40 years. Weston served as senior class president in 1921. On the gridiron, he was captain of the 1920 team and was named all-America by four organizations. He was a member of the school's Athletic Board and has been enshrined into the Madison Sports and Wisconsin Athletic Department Halls of Fame.

Ralph Scott

Ralph Scott
Tackle (1920)

An all-conference and Colliers' all-America tackle in 1920, Ralph Scott was noted for his outstanding blocking ability on offense. The giant 210 pounder also played tackle on defense for the '20 Badgers, who were 6-1 and finished second in the Western Conference.

Marty Below

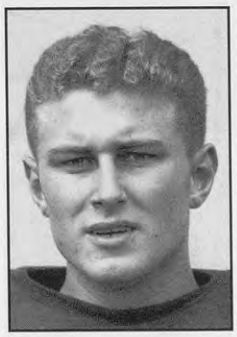
Marty Below
Tackle (1923)

A transfer from UW-Oshkosh, Marty Below played tackle for the Badgers and was a first-team all-American by INS, Athletic World and Walter Eckersall in 1923. Inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1988, he was praised by Red Grange who once said, "Marty was the greatest lineman I ever played against." At UW-Oshkosh, Below was a four-sport athlete after serving in the Marines during World War I.

Milo Lubratovich

Milo Lubratovich
Tackle (1930)

A tackle, who broke his leg against Alabama as a sophomore, Milo Lubratovich rebounded two years later to become a consensus all-American and play in the East-West Shrine Game. Lubratovich received all-America mention from 10 different publications, including first-team honors from NEA, UP, Hearst and Central Press. He also played professional baseball in the Brooklyn Dodgers' organization for five years (1931-35).



Howard Weiss

Howard Weiss
Fullback (1938)

After converting from halfback to fullback three games into his sophomore year, Howard Weiss went on to earn Big Ten MVP and all-America honors in 1938. He was a first-team all-America choice by INS and a second-team pick by four other organizations. He is perhaps best remembered for his 41-yard touchdown run through the entire Northwestern defense in a 1938 upset win at Evanston. Elected class president, Weiss was sixth in the 1938 Heisman Trophy balloting and later played two years with the Detroit Lions.

1924: Adolph Bieberstein, G (A-S—3rd)

1925: R.J. Stipek, G (CP—2nd; C—3rd); Doyle Harmon, HB (WE—3rd)

1928: Rube Wagner, T (WE—3rd; NANA—3rd)

Dave Schreiner

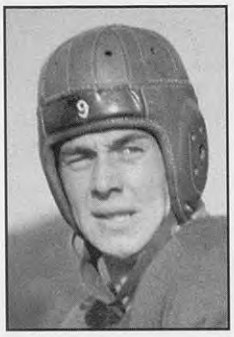
Dave Schreiner
End (1941-42)

Wisconsin's first two-time, first-team all-American, Dave Schreiner was considered one of the finest ends to ever play college football. Schreiner, a first-team all-American by 14 different outlets in his career, was a two-time Associated Press all-America choice. He was named conference MVP in 1942. Schreiner still holds the UW game record with three touchdown receptions (all in one quarter) against Marquette. He was drafted by the Detroit Lions. Schreiner died in World War II in 1945.

Pat Harder

Pat Harder
Fullback (1942)

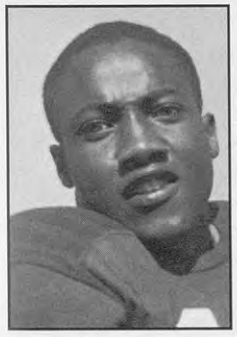
All-American Marlin "Pat" Harder was one of Wisconsin's greatest fullbacks. Despite a college career that was cut short by his enlistment with the Marines, Harder led the 1942 club to an 8-1-1 record. Also a kicker, he led the league in scoring twice. Harder was named MVP of the 1943 Chicago Tribune College All-Star Game. The second pick in the 1943 NFL draft, Harder led the NFL in scoring three years.



Earl Girard

Earl Girard
Quarterback (1944)

Earl "Jug" Girard played two seasons at the UW and earned all-America recognition from Look magazine as a 17-year-old freshman. Regarded as a "triple-threat" quarterback, he was proficient at running, passing and punting. Girard was drafted into the U.S. Army after his freshman season and returned to school in 1947. He set the school record for most punt return yards in a game (158) vs. Iowa in 1947. Girard was a first-round draft pick by the Packers.



Ed Withers

Ed Withers
Defensive Back (1950)

Ed Withers, a prep star at Central High School in Madison, came to the UW after serving a year in the Army. The aggressive defender had eight career interceptions and probably would have had more if opposing QBs had not thrown away from him. Withers' three interceptions (103 return yards) helped lead Wisconsin to a 14-0 victory over Iowa in his all-America year. The school's first black all-American, Withers was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in 1951.

1944: Earl Girard, QB (L—1st)

1949: Robert Wilson, C (C.P.—2nd; AP—3rd; G-R—3rd; A-P—3rd)

Hal Faverty

Hal Faverty
Defensive End (1951)

Like so many other Wisconsin athletes during his era, Hal Faverty sandwiched his playing days around service in the Armed Forces. As a 25-year-old senior, he was one of the most experienced players on the 1951 squad. Faverty was named a first-team all-American by the International News Service. He was a linebacker on the "Hard Rocks" defense, which allowed a school-record 5.9 points per game.

Pat O'Donahue

Pat O'Donahue
End (1951)

A senior on the 1951 team that went 7-1-1 and finished eighth in the Associated Press poll, Pat O'Donahue was a fixture on Wisconsin's top-ranked defense. He was a quiet player who led by example. A penetrator on the line, O'Donahue played on the 1949-51 teams and was named all-America by AP, NEA and Look. He played pro football with the 49ers and Packers and was inducted into the UW Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Dave Suminski

Dave Suminski
Tackle (1952)

Dave Suminski earned first-team all-America honors from the Associated Press in his first year as an offensive tackle. An anchor on Wisconsin's 1953 Rose Bowl defensive unit, he started the previous two seasons on offense. In his last college game, the Badger defense held USC to just 48 yards rushing. Suminski was taken by the Redskins in the 1953 NFL draft and later played with the Chicago Cardinals and the Canadian Football League's Hamilton Tiger Cats.

Don Voss

Don Voss
End (1952)

Don Voss was one of the top ends in Wisconsin history, even though his football career was ended by a knee injury suffered in the Rose Bowl his sophomore year. As a rookie, he was named to the Associated Press freshman all-America team and was a member of Wisconsin's "Hard Rocks," the best defensive unit in the country. A year later he helped the Badgers to Pasadena and their first-ever bowl game and was named to Look magazine's all-America squad.

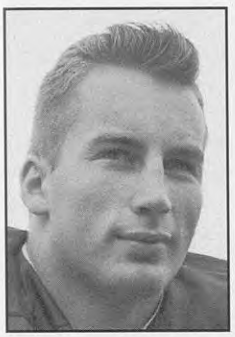
Alan Ameche

Alan Ameche
Fullback (1953-54)

One of the school's most-honored players, Alan "The Horse" Ameche, was a three-year first-team all-American. The '54 Heisman Trophy winner set numerous records as a fullback, including the NCAA mark for career rushing yardage (3,345). A two-time academic all-American, he was voted Wisconsin's all-time greatest player in 1969. Ameche, who led his alma mater to the 1953 Rose Bowl, had his jersey #35 retired by the school. He also became the first Badger inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame (1992).



Dan Lanphear

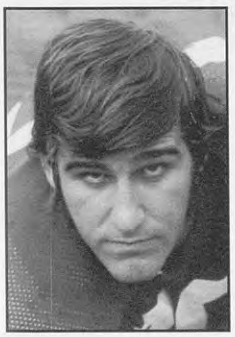
Dan Lanphear
Tackle (1959)

Madison native Dan Lanphear rebounded from an injury-plagued junior season to gain all-America honors from six organizations his final year. His best game on the gridiron may have been in a 12-3 win over Ohio State in 1959. In that contest, Lanphear recovered a fumble, blocked a punt for a safety and knocked two Buckeye running backs out of the game with strong hits. He played for the AFL's Houston Oilers and was a member of their championship teams in 1960 and 1961.

Pat Richter

Pat Richter
End (1961-62)

Pat Richter was a two-time all-America end, earning consensus honors in 1962. He set Rose Bowl records in 1963 with 11 catches for 163 yards, marks that stood for 31 years. A first-round draft choice of the Redskins, Richter played professionally for eight seasons. He is a member of Wisconsin's all-time team, won an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1988 and was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996. Richter was named the school's Director of Athletics in 1989 and is now the longest-tenured AD in the Big Ten Conference.



Dennis Lick

Dennis Lick
Tackle (1974-75)

One of the UW's most punishing offensive linemen, Dennis Lick earned consensus all-America status in '75 despite missing the last three games due to injury. Lick also received first-team honors in 1974 from Football News. He blocked for Billy Marek, UW's second all-time leading rusher. He was selected in the first round of the 1976 NFL draft by the Bears and played until his retirement in 1981.

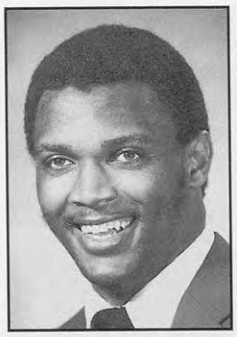
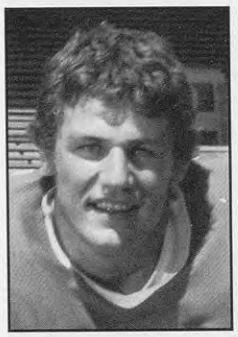
Key for abbreviations on page 168.



Ray Snell

Ray Snell
Tackle (1979)

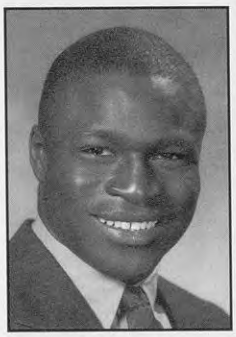
Baltimore native Ray Snell was a first-team all-America pick by The Sporting News as an offensive guard in 1979. Known for his speed and agility, the 295-pound lineman blocked for Ira Matthews and Dave Mohapp at Wisconsin. Snell was the 22nd pick overall (by Tampa Bay) in the first round of the 1980 NFL draft.



Tim Krumrie

Tim Krumrie
Noseguard (1981)

An all-Big Ten pick at noseguard his last three seasons, Tim Krumrie earned consensus all-America recognition his junior year. He is second on Wisconsin's career tackles list with 444, more than 100 stops ahead of the next closest defensive lineman. Krumrie was a member of UW's 1981 Garden State Bowl team and earned 1982 Independence Bowl Defensive MVP honors. A 10th-round draft pick by the Cincinnati Bengals, he enjoyed a lengthy NFL career and played in Super Bowl XXIII.



Richard Johnson

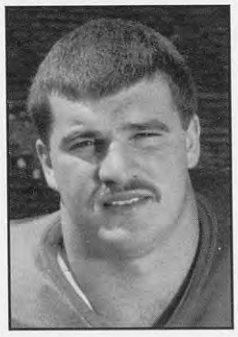
Defensive Back (1984)

A speedy defensive back, Richard Johnson was named to all-America lists in 1985 by the Football Writers' Association (first-team) and The Sporting News (second). He holds the UW career mark for blocked kicks (nine). Johnson was named Sports Illustrated's national defensive player of the week after Wisconsin's 35-34 win at Missouri in 1984. He blocked two kicks, intercepted a pass and recovered a blocked punt for a TD.



Paul Gruber

Paul Gruber
Tackle (1987)

Tackle Paul Gruber left the UW as one of the school's prized linemen. A player with tremendous size, strength and speed, he was regarded by some as the top college lineman in '87. He was a first-team all-American by The Sporting News as a senior. Gruber moved to the pro ranks in 1988 with Tampa Bay. Gruber earned NFL All-Pro honors several times with the Buccaneers and at one time played six consecutive seasons without missing an offensive snap.

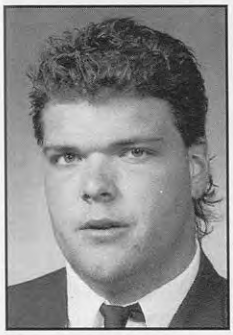
Troy Vincent

Troy Vincent
Defensive Back (1991)

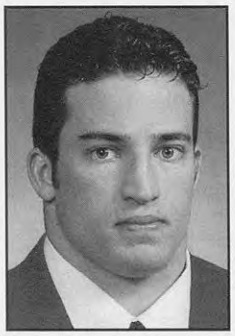
After playing just one year of high school football, Troy Vincent blossomed into one of the country's best cornerbacks and punt returners. A 1991 all-America selection, Vincent was honored as Big Ten co-Defensive Player of the Year. He was runner-up for the 1991 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top DB. He was taken by the Miami Dolphins as the seventh overall choice in the 1992 NFL draft.



Cory Raymer

Cory Raymer
Center (1994)

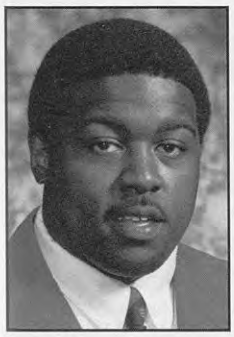
One of the most celebrated players of the Barry Alvarez era, center Cory Raymer was Wisconsin's first consensus all-America pick in 13 years. He was a four-year starter who allowed just one-half of a sack in his last three seasons. Raymer played a large role as the team increased its rushing average from 94 to 244 yards per game during his career. Raymer, a two-time first-team all-league choice, was a second-round draft pick by the Redskins in 1995.



Tarek Saleh

Tarek Saleh
Defensive End (1996)

A two-time consensus first-team all-Big Ten selection, Tarek Saleh earned first-team all-America honors from Football News in 1996. Saleh paced the Big Ten in quarterback sacks twice. A 240-pound defensive end, Saleh concluded his career as the school's record holder in tackles for loss and sacks. Saleh was named Copper Bowl defensive MVP in his final game with the Badgers.



Ron Dayne

Ron Dayne
Tailback (1997-98)

With his inclusion on the Football News first-team all-America squad in '98, Ron Dayne became the first Badger since Dennis Lick (1974-75) to earn first-team all-America honors twice in a career. The two-time Big Ten rushing champion (the first since Michigan State's Lorenzo White) earned first-team all-America honors after his 1,457-yard sophomore and 1,525-yard junior campaigns. He enters his senior year with a chance to become the first three-time first-team all-American in Badger history.

MULTIPLE-TIME ALL-AMERICANS

Pat O'Dea (1898, 99)
Wilson Berthke (1903, 05)
Robert Butler (1912, 13)
Ray Keeler (1913, 14)
Howard Buck (1914, 15)
Charles Carpenter (1916, 19)
Paul Meyers (1916, 19)
Frank Weston (1919, 20)
George Bunge (1920, 21)
Marty Below (1922, 23)
Adolph Bieberstein (1923, 24)
Greg Kabat (1931, 32)
Dave Schreiner (1941, 42)
Alan Ameche (1952, 53, 54)
Pat Richter (1961, 62)
Dennis Lick (1974, 75)
Tim Krumrie (1981, 82)
Tarek Saleh (1995, 96)
Ron Dayne (1996, 97, 98)

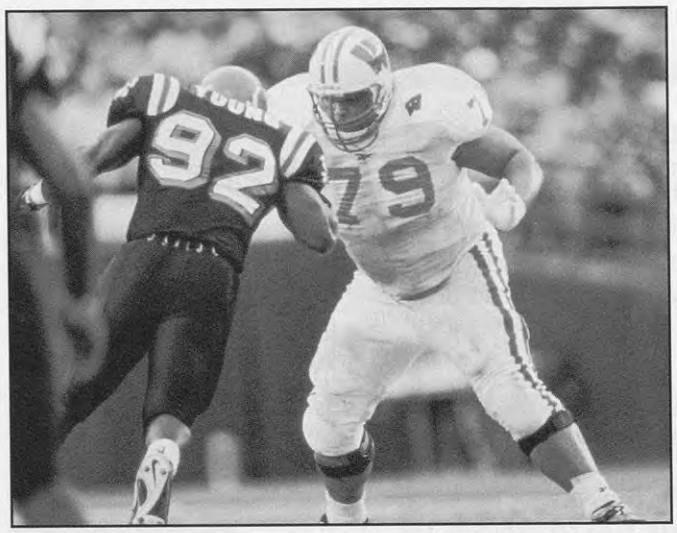
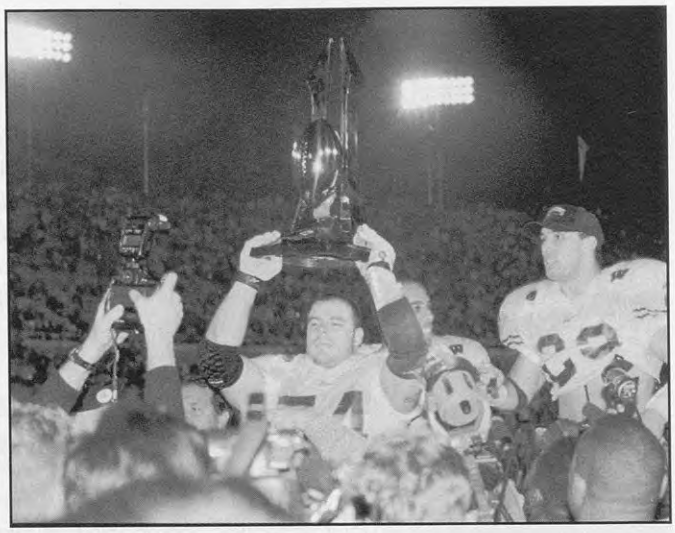
1st-team All-Americans



Aaron Gibson
Tackle (1998)

Gibson earned first-team all-America accolades from Walter Camp, AFCA, FWAA, A.P. and the Football News to join teammate Tom Burke as the first consensus all-Americans since Cory Raymer (1994). The largest player in Division I-A was the school's first finalist for the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award. A three-year starter, Gibson was a main reason the Badgers led the Big Ten in rushing enroute to the '99 Rose Bowl.



Tom Burke
Defensive End (1998)

A first-team all-America choice by all six of the organizations that are used to determine consensus all-America selections. Burke led the nation and set Big Ten records for tackles for loss (31) and quarterback sacks (22). The top player on a defense which led the nation in scoring (10.9 points), Burke was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year by the media after recording 100 tackles for the '99 Rose Bowl champions.

Wisconsin's Retired Numbers

ALAN AMECHE

Alan Ameche was one of the greatest backs in UW history. The 1954 Heisman Trophy winner was a three-time all-American and ended his career as the NCAA's career rushing leader. He led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl, where he rushed for 133 yards. The five-time Pro Bowl pick was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

ELROY HIRSCH

Although he played football only one season at the UW, Elroy Hirsch is one of the most beloved figures in Badger sports history. Hirsch, nicknamed "Crazylegs," rushed for 786 yards for Wisconsin's 8-1-1 team in 1942. He also starred for nine seasons with the Rams before returning to Wisconsin as Director of Athletics from 1969-87.

DAVE SCHREINER

Dave Schreiner, the two-time all-America end, was named Western Conference Player of the Year in 1942. Schreiner lettered three years at the UW as an end both on offense and defense. He is a member of the National Football Foundation and W Club Halls of Fame. He was voted to the UW's all-time team in 1969.

ALLAN SHAFER

The memory of former quarterback Allan Shafer is continued with the "Living Memorial" Scholarship that is given in his name. Shafer was fatally injured during the 1944 Wisconsin-Iowa game. Shafer is one of two Badgers (Jay Seiler is the other) to die from a football-related injury.

College Hall of Fame

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION COLLEGE HALL OF FAME

Dave Schreiner (elected in 1955)
The two-time all-America end was the Western Conference's MVP after the '42 season. Schreiner has his No. 80 jersey retired by Wisconsin.

Pat O'Dea (elected in 1962)
"The Kangaroo Kicker," as he was called, was a two-time all-America fullback and punter between 1896-99. He was also a two-time team captain.

Robert Butler (elected in 1972)
"Butts" Butler was a three-year letterman at tackle and won all-league (1912-13) and all-America (1913) laurels. He played pro ball for Canton.

Alan Ameche (elected in 1975)
The 1954 Heisman Trophy winner was a multi-year all-American in the classroom and on the field. His jersey No. 35 is retired at the University.

Marty Below (elected in 1988)

Pat Harder (elected in 1993)
Pat Harder, an all-America fullback, was the Big Ten's scoring and rushing champion in 1941. Harder was a three-time NFL scoring champ, too.

Pat Richter (elected in 1996)
UW Director of Athletics Pat Richter was a two-time all-America end and led the nation in receiving as a junior. He is also a member of the CoSIDA Academic all-America Hall of Fame.

A True Scholar-Athlete

Don Davey, who played professionally with both the Green Bay Packers and Jacksonville Jaguars, is the only four-time academic all-American in NCAA university-division history. A mechanical engineering major, Davey left the UW - Madison with a number of quarterback sack and tackle for loss records. He was a third-round NFL draft pick of the Packers before being traded to Jacksonville prior to the 1995 season. He was also academic all-Big Ten four times.

Academic Awards

GTE Academic All-America All-Time Team

Four former Badger football greats were named to GTE's Academic All-America All-Time team at the College Sports Information Directors' of America convention in 1998.

Fullback Alan Ameche was a first-team choice and center Ken Bowman, defensive lineman Don Davey and defensive back Dale Hackbart were named to the second team.

All four Badgers are former academic all-Americans. Davey is the only four-time academic all-America pick in university-division history.

GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame

Two former Badger gridiron stars (Alan Ameche and Pat Richter) have been inducted into the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

To gain admittance to the Hall, student-athletes must be former academic all-Americans who distinguished themselves off the playing field after graduation.

Ameche, who played professionally after graduation, retired in Philadelphia after his career and became one of the city's philanthropic leaders. Richter also played pro football before returning to the UW to earn his law degree. He worked at a Madison law firm and at Oscar Mayer before his appointment as Director of Athletics at the University of Wisconsin.

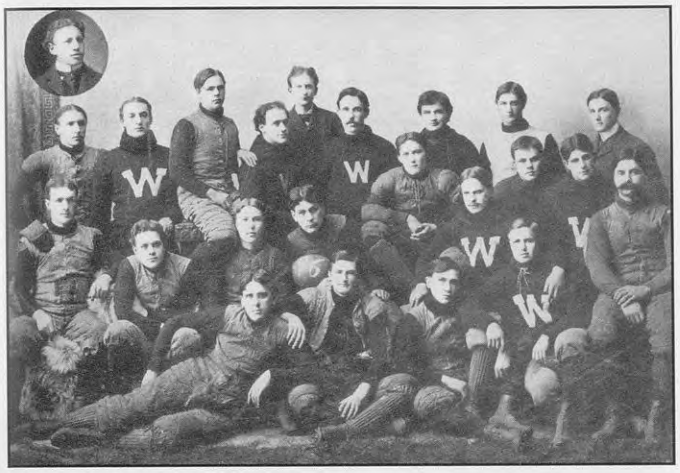
With six more triumphs, Barry Alvarez (left) will pass Phil King as the school's winningest football coach. King coached from 1896-1902 plus the 1905 campaign and won three Western Conference titles.

League Champions

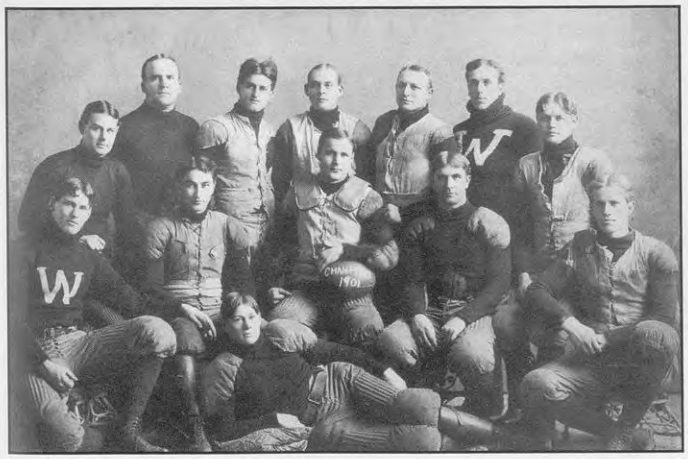


1896 Western Conference Champions
Coach Phil King

After opening the season with seven victories, the Badgers tied Northwestern 6-6 and lost to the Carlisle Indians. Despite the late-season swoon, the Badgers claimed the inaugural Western Conference title. The Badgers' tough defense registered shutouts in six of its seven victories. The season-ending loss to the Carlisle Indians was the first night game in school history. It was played indoors at the Chicago Coliseum.

1897 Western Conference Champions
Coach Phil King

Wisconsin won its second straight conference title and registered eight shutouts on the way to a 9-1 mark. The only loss was a 6-0 decision to the UW Alumni. Victories over Minnesota, Chicago and Northwestern propelled the Badgers to the Western Conference title. Australian kicker Pat O'Dea, the famed "Kangaroo Kicker," booted 14 field goals to lead the club. It was the second of three league titles for Coach Phil King.

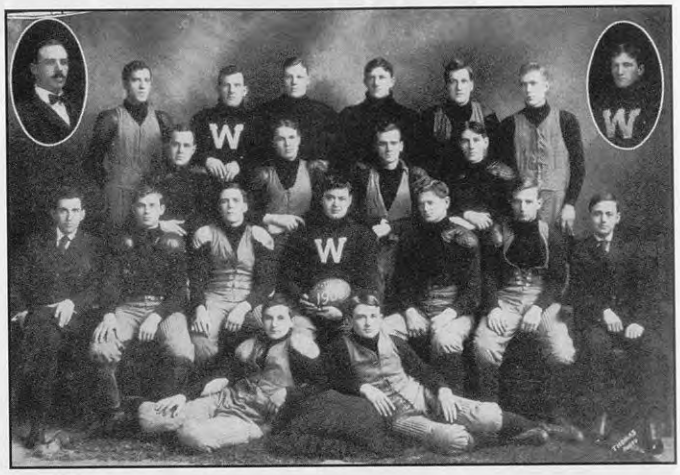


1901 Western Conference Champions
Coach Phil King

Phil King's Badgers won nine straight games to become the first undefeated team in school history. Using a potent offense and stingy defense, Wisconsin defeated every opponent by at least three TDs and recorded eight shutouts to claim a share of the Big Ten title. The Badgers outscored the opposition 317-5. Wisconsin's slate included two wins over high school teams and conference wins over Chicago and Minnesota.

1906 Western Conference Champions
Coach Dr. C.P. Hutchins

Although traditional league powers Minnesota, Michigan and Chicago were missing from the schedule due to a faculty reform movement that limited the number of games, Wisconsin claimed a share of the conference championship with the Gophers. Center Ewald Stiehm, Wisconsin's first all-league performer, helped the Badgers to a 5-0 slate. Coach Dr. C.P. Hutchins' team posted Western Conference wins over Iowa, Illinois and Purdue by a combined score of 63-15.

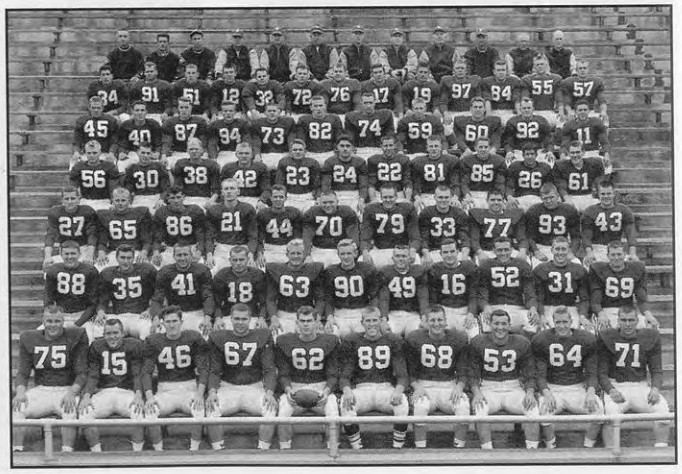


1912 Western Conference Champions
Coach William Juneau

The Badgers ended their third undefeated (7-0) season with a 28-10 win at Iowa. Coach William Juneau's squad was the last Badger team to post a perfect record. Led by consensus all-America tackle Robert "Butts" Butler, the Badgers placed a school-record nine players on the all-Western Conference team. Wisconsin registered four shutouts and allowed only 29 points all year.

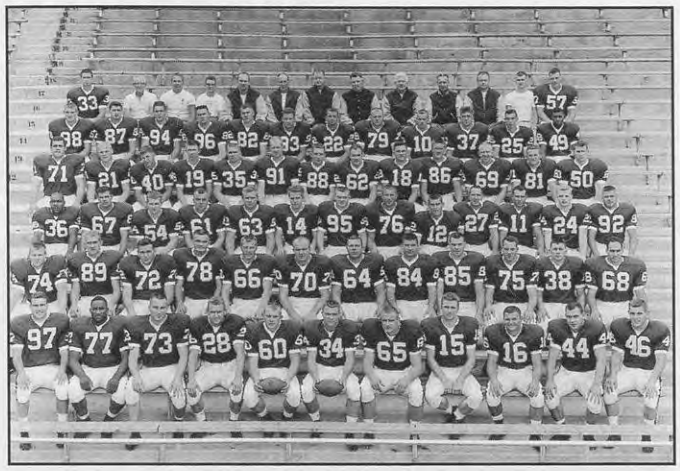
1952 Big Ten Champions
Coach Ivy Williamson

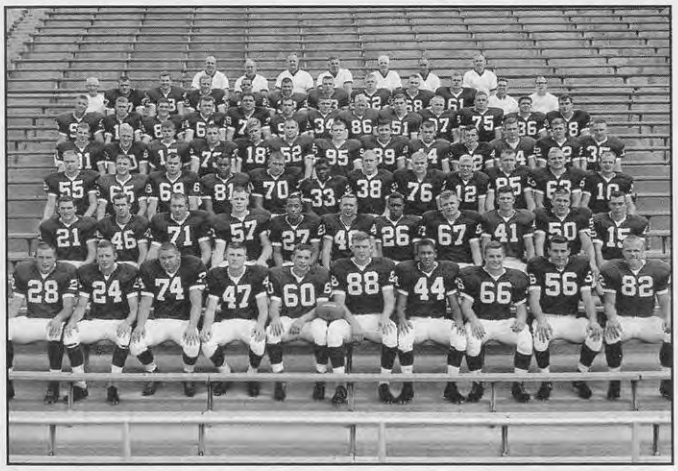
Following a 20-6 win over Illinois in the second game of the season, Wisconsin sat atop the polls as the nation's No. 1 team. It is the only time in school history that the Badgers were ranked first. Wisconsin lost the following week, but went on to a 6-3-1 record and the school's first Rose Bowl appearance. After losing to USC 7-0 in Pasadena, the Badgers ended the season ranked 10th by UPI and 11th by Associated Press.



1959 Big Ten Champions
Coach Milt Bruhn

Needing a victory in the regular-season finale to clinch a league title, Wisconsin recovered from an early deficit and beat Minnesota 11-7. It was the Badgers' first undisputed title since 1912. At the Rose Bowl, Washington scored 17 points in the first quarter on the way to a 44-8 win. All-Big Ten QB Dale Hackbart and all-Big Ten guard Jerry Stalcup were stars on a club that finished the season ranked sixth by Associated Press and United Press International.



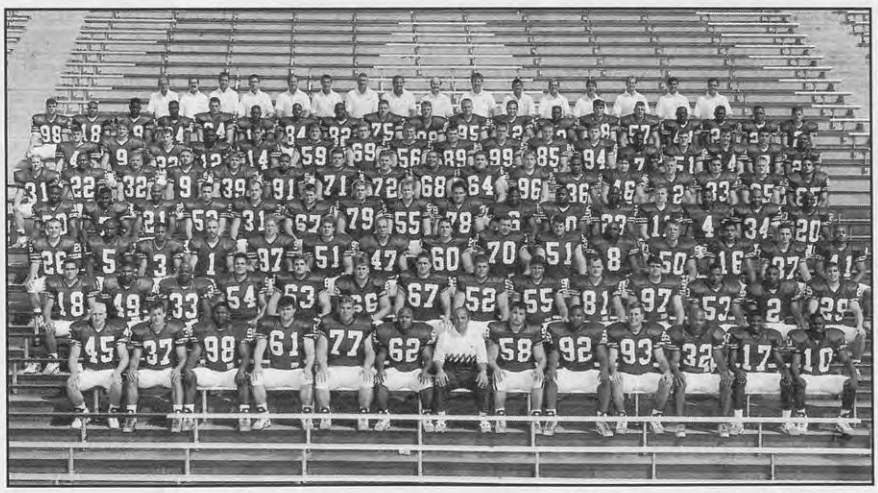


1962 Big Ten Champions
Coach Milt Bruhn

Opening the season with a 69-13 rout of New Mexico State, the Badgers rolled to an 8-1 record and the Big Ten title. Although USC defeated Wisconsin 42-37 in perhaps the most exciting Rose Bowl ever, the Badgers finished the storybook campaign ranked second in both the AP and UPI polls. Ron Vander Kelen set a Rose Bowl record with 401 yards passing as the UW scored 23 straight points in a fourth quarter rally. Pat Richter was a consensus all-American after catching 49 passes.

1993 Big Ten Champions
Coach Barry Alvarez

The 1993 Badgers established a new standard of excellence, shattering school records and earning numerous honors. After claiming Wisconsin's first Big Ten title in 32 years (a co-championship with Ohio State), the Badgers defeated UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. The 10-1-1 club set a Wisconsin record for wins and boasted eight first-team all-Big Ten players, including Big Ten and Rose Bowl Most Valuable Player Brent Moss. Wisconsin ended the season ranked fifth and sixth by the coaches (CNN/USA Today) and media (Associated Press), respectively.



The Winningest Team in Wisconsin History (11-1)

Coach Barry Alvarez

The 1998 Badgers concluded the winningest campaign in school history with a 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over sixth-ranked UCLA. The triumph was Wisconsin's second in Pasadena in six seasons. Besides the Rose Bowl victory, this team

- was the first in history to win 10 regular season games
- registered a school-record seven Big Ten wins
- won the UW's 10th Big Ten championship
- recorded a nine-game winning streak to open the season for just the second time in Wisconsin history
- posted a 91.6 winning percentage, the best at the school except for a trio (1901, 1906 and 1912) of unbeaten teams
- won six home games for the first time since 1962

Three Badgers — DE Tom Burke, T Aaron Gibson and RB Ron Dayne — made all-America teams. Barry Alvarez was Big Ten Coach of the Year. Gibson was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy and Dayne was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. Burke led the nation in tackles for loss and quarterback sacks (setting Big Ten records in both) and Jamar Fletcher topped the NCAA in interceptions. UW topped the NCAA in turnover margin and scoring defense.

1953 Rose Bowl
Jan. 1, 1953

PASADENA, Calif. — Southern Cal scored the game's only points on a 22-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by Alan Ameche's 133 yards rushing, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground. However, both defenses rose to the occasion when necessary.

One of Wisconsin's best scoring chances came in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Ameche broke loose for a 54-yard run as the Badgers got to the USC 21-yard line. On third down, Archie Ray Burks fumbled on an end run and USC recovered.

The Trojans then put together the game-winning drive (73 yards), which ended with Bukich's TD pass. Wisconsin countered with a 13-play, 84-yard drive that ended at the Trojan 2-yard line when Jerry Witt was stopped a yard short of a first down on a fake field goal play.

1960 Rose Bowl
Jan. 1, 1960

PASADENA, Calif. — Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl victory over Wisconsin.

Washington tallied the first TD on a 6-yard run by Don McKeta 10 minutes into the game. George Fleming booted a 26-yard field goal after the Huskies recovered one of four Wisconsin fumbles. Fleming then returned a punt 53 yards for a score on the final play of the period for a 17-0 Husky lead.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a 4-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8.

Washington quarterback Bob Schloredt, who shared game MVP honors with Fleming, tossed a 23-yard TD pass to close the first-half scoring. Schloredt completed four passes for 102 yards and rushed for 81 yards.

Wisconsin mounted a challenge in the third quarter, but four plays inside the Husky 10-yard line failed. The Badger defense entered the bowl with a defensive average of barely 10 points allowed per game for the regular season.

1963 Rose Bowl
Jan. 1, 1963

PASADENA, Calif. — A 23-point fourth quarter explosion wasn't quite enough as the Badgers dropped a 42-37 Rose Bowl encounter to Southern Cal. The Trojans had claimed a 42-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter before the huge Badger comeback.

USC had a 21-7 halftime lead and extended it on the first play of the third stanza, before Ron Vander Kelen led one of the biggest charges in bowl history.

Vander Kelen reached paydirt on a 17-yard scamper to reduce the margin to 28-14. USC responded with a pair of touchdown passes by Pete Beathard and the Trojans led 42-14.

Lou Holland (13-yard run) and Gary Kroner (4-yard reception) tallied for the Badgers within three minutes. A bad center snap on a punt resulted in a UW safety. After the free kick, Vander Kelen hit three straight passes, including a 19-yard score to Pat Richter for the final 42-37 margin.

Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both Wisconsin and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points scored was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

1981 Garden State Bowl
Dec. 13, 1981

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

The Badger defense limited UT to 89 yards rushing, but Volunteer QB Steve Alatorre unleashed a potent passing attack. Alatorre threw for 315 yards. WR Anthony Hancock caught 11 passes for 196 yards.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a 3-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost.

Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220.

1982 Independence Bowl
Dec. 11, 1982

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game with a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

Randy Wright threw a game-record two TD passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 degrees below zero.

Wright, the game offensive MVP, completed nine of 24 throws. However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in UW and Independence Bowl history. The Wisconsin defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

KSU had taken a 3-0 lead on Steve Willis' 29-yard field goal before the Badgers scored 14 straight points. Tim Krumrie was the game Defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry.

Game totals showed five turnovers, 14 punts, 22 completions in 59 attempts (.372) and 14 penalties.

1984 Hall of Fame Bowl
Dec. 29, 1984

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Trailing by a point after the Wildcats' Joe Worley booted a 52-yard field goal with eight minutes left, the Badgers drove inside Kentucky's 20-yard line.

Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a 3-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

However, UW was assessed 13 penalties for 133 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records. The Badgers also threw two interceptions. Kentucky, which was making its second straight postseason appearance in Birmingham, had no turnovers.

1994 Rose Bowl
Jan. 1, 1994

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

More than 70,000 Badger fans attended the game and provided a distinct home-field advantage in the Bruins' home facility.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second down from the UCLA 21, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badger 18-yard line before Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

"The win, as much as it was for our players and coaches, was for our fans," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "They supported us all the way."

1995 Hall of Fame Bowl
Jan. 2, 1995

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half. Jeff Messenger's 19-yard return of one of those pickoffs resulted in the Badgers' first score.

Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third period. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

After the Blue Devils cut the margin to seven (27-20) on Robert Baldwin's second score, Fletcher turned a critical third-and-one play into a 49-yard touchdown run to clinch the win.

More than 30,000 fans made the trip to Tampa as Wisconsin won its third game in a row and second bowl in two years to close the season 8-3-1.

1996 Copper Bowl
Dec. 27, 1996

TUCSON, Ariz. — Freshman tailback Ron Dayne concluded his remarkable rookie season with a 246-yard, three-touchdown performance in Wisconsin's 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

Dayne was named the game's Most Valuable Player. He totalled 152 yards by halftime as the Badgers opened up a commanding 31-3 lead. QB Mike Samuel got the UW on the board with a 38-yard run. After Utah kicked a field goal, Dayne scored (two carries for 77 yards) to give the Badgers a 14-3 lead.

The Utes were driving again when Cyrill Weems intercepted a pass and returned it 82 yards for a TD and a 21-3 bulge. The Badgers' secondary picked off four Mike Fouts passes.

The featured matchup between Dayne and Utah's Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, the nation's two largest runners, never materialized. The Ute ballcarrier hurt his ankle early in the game.

Badger defensive end Tarek Saleh was game defensive MVP with six tackles, one for a loss, one pass broken up and a blocked field goal. It was the Badgers' third bowl win in four seasons.

1998 Outback Bowl
Jan. 1, 1998

TAMPA, Fla. — A potent offense and suffocating defense were on display in Georgia's 33-6 win over the Badgers in the 1998 Outback Bowl.

Buoyed by a game MVP performance from Bulldog QB Mike Bobo (26-28 passing for 235 yards), the Bulldogs scored the game's opening 33 points. UGA completed 89.7 percent of its passes, the best-ever mark vs. a Badger defense.

In a game that featured two of the nation's best runners — Wisconsin's Ron Dayne and Georgia's Robert Edwards — the Bulldog ballcarrier was the most effective. Edwards rushed for 110 yards and, more importantly, scored three TDs.

Georgia's multi-threat receiver Hines Ward caught a bowl-game record 12 passes (122 yards), threw one pass (incomplete) and rushed seven times (for eight yards).

"I don't think we played our best game,"Wisconsin Coach Barry Alvarez said. "But I think Georgia had an awful lot to do with that."

1999 Rose Bowl
Jan. 1, 1999

PASADENA, Calif. — The 85th Rose Bowl was billed as a battle between Wisconsin's nationally rated defense and UCLA's vaunted offense. In truth, the Badgers' Ron Dayne rambled his way to four touchdowns and the UW defense got a stop in the final minute to earn a hard-fought 38-31 Rose Bowl triumph over the sixth-ranked Bruins.

UCLA's defense had no interest in tackling Dayne, whose 246 yards rushing were one yard shy of the game record. The Badgers mixed in some timely running (65 yards) and passing (154) from QB Mike Samuel in building a 31-21 lead in the third period.

The Bruins cut the lead to three on Jermaine Lewis' second TD and were driving again when freshman Jamar Fletcher intercepted all-American Cade McNown and returned the pick for a TD.

Once again UCLA battled back and pulled within 38-31. The Bruins' last-gasp drive started on their 46-yard line with 1:42 left. Three incompletions by McNown set up Wendell Bryant's game-clinching sack on fourth down.

The Badgers had beaten UCLA in Pasadena for the second time in six years. More than 55,000 fans enjoyed the school's second Rose Bowl win. Dayne's record-setting performance earned him bowl MVP honors.

Badger Lore

Alvarez vs. Wisconsin

Coach Barry Alvarez was a linebacker for the Nebraska teams that played Wisconsin in 1965 and 1966. In the 1966 contest, Alvarez intercepted a John Ryan pass at the Nebraska 28-yard line and returned it 25 yards. Nebraska won both games — 37-0 (in '65) and 31-3 ('66) — in which Alvarez participated.

Ameche, Alan "The Horse"

Born in Italy as Lino Dante Ameche, the future Heisman Trophy winner changed his name to Alan at age 16. Lino, in his mind, was not rugged enough.

Widely respected for his strength as a youth, he won the light heavyweight Golden Gloves novice boxing championship of Kenosha by default. All of his rivals dropped out after learning Ameche had entered the tournament.

During his college recruitment, he was being heavily pressured to attend Notre Dame by Fred Miller, the philanthropic owner of Milwaukee's Miller Brewing Co. Wisconsin partisans, however, threatened a boycott against the buying and consumption of Miller beer if Ameche attended Notre Dame. Under threat of boycott, Miller backed off and Ameche signed with Wisconsin.

In 1953, when rule changes made it necessary for him to be an all-purpose player, Ameche played defense with such ferocity that he ended up playing 55 minutes or more in each game, prompting a nickname, "The Iron Horse."

Ameche, drafted by Baltimore, eventually turned down a lucrative offer to join the pro wrestling tour and signed with the Colts. He led the NFL in rushing his first season and was named Rookie of the Year.

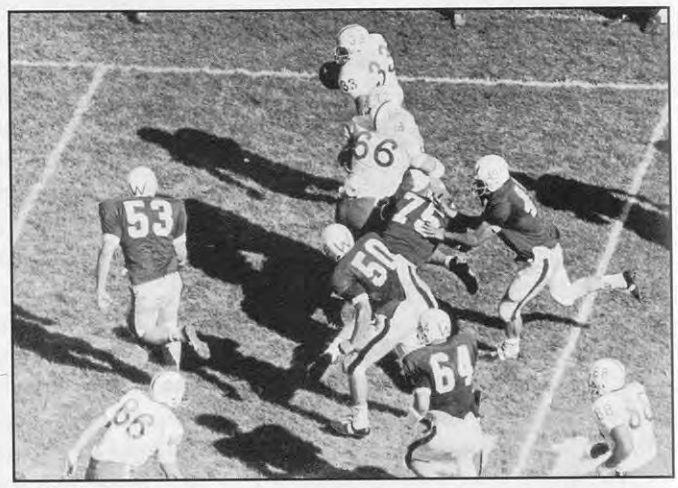
Artificial turf

The artificial turf at Camp Randall Stadium was first installed in 1968. Wisconsin was the second school in the nation to install Tartan Turf, which was designed by the 3M Company. The $210,000 project was funded by the UW Parking and Transportation Board in exchange for permission to convert practice fields on the north end of Camp Randall into a 500-car parking lot. The initial surface turned black in some areas when the green fiber tips broke off, so 3M sprayed the field green for the 1969 season. Camp Randall Stadium's playing surface was most recently replaced prior to Wisconsin's 1998 Big Ten championship season. At the same time, the school replaced the playing surface in the McClain Athletic Center, too. The new turf features yard lines and field markings that are sewn in.



Nebraska linebacker Barry Alvarez (33) returns an interception 25 yards in a 31-3 Cornhusker victory over Wisconsin at Camp Randall Stadium in 1966.

Badger nickname

The team's nickname, "Badgers," was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin. The territory was dubbed the "Badger State," not because of animals in the region, but rather an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Prospectors came to the state looking for minerals. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bakken, Jim

Wisconsin's special events coordinator played 17 years in the NFL for St. Louis, setting almost all of the team's placekicking records and retiring as the team's all-time leading scorer. He set NFL records in '70 converting seven of nine field goals in a 28-14 win over Pittsburgh. Bakken was selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1962 draft by general manager Elroy Hirsch.

Band caps

When a Badger team wins an athletic contest, members of the band turn their hats around and wear them backwards. The practice started in the 1920s to symbolize the band looking back at the victory in days when they marched out with the departing crowd.

Bucky Badger

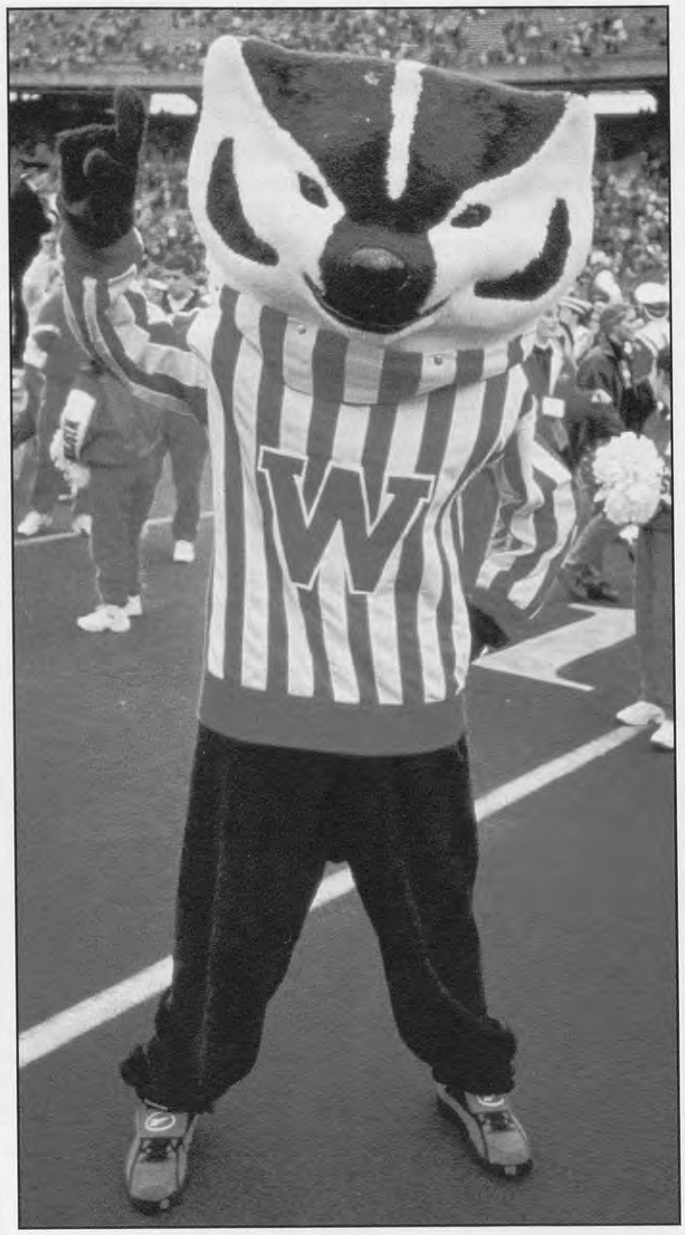
Badgers in various forms have been recognized as the school mascot for decades. The version currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white letter sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by artist Art Evans. At that time, the badger went by names like Benny, Buddy, Bernie, Bobby and Bouncey. Art Lentz, the department's publicity director, had the idea to bring the mascot to life.

The original badger mascot was too vicious to control. On more than one occasion, the live badger escaped handlers before a sideline hero recaptured the animal with a flying tackle. It was decided in the interest of fan and player safety that Wisconsin's mascot be retired to the Madison Zoo. The Badger Yearbook replaced the live badger with a small raccoon named Regdab (badger backwards) and passed it off as a "badger in a raccoon coat."

In 1949, a student in the university's art department, Connie Conrad, was commissioned to mold a paper-mache badger head. Gymnast and cheerleader, Bill Sagal, of Plymouth, Wis., was directed by homecoming chair Bill Sachse, to wear the outfit at the homecoming game. A contest was staged to name the popular mascot. The winner was Buckingham U. Badger, or Bucky. The name apparently came from the lyrics in a song which encouraged the football team to "buck right through that line."

Bucky Badger has persevered through the years, even surviving a threat by then assistant attorney general, Howard Koop, in 1973. He suggested that Bucky be replaced by Henrietta Holstein, a loveable cow. Koop argued that "kids love cows. A generation could grow up supporting the university and Henrietta Holstein." Koop's effort to overthrow Bucky failed.

Bucky even survived a cameo appearance by former Sports Illustrated writer Rick Telander. In preparation for a book about the athletic department, Telander wore Bucky's costume at a '91 volleyball game. Telander overcame "terminal claustrophobia" in his appearance.



Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've Said It All," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karmen for Budweiser beer commercials. Copyrighted by Sandlee Publishing Corporation in 1970, the song has become legendary at the University because of its polka-like rhythm. Band director Michael Leckrone said the song's popularity got started at a 1975 hockey game. "The crowd wanted to hear a polka," he said. "I didn't have any polkas. We had, just by accident, this beer commercial in the tunes we play. I told the band if we substituted the word 'Wisconsin' for 'Budweiser' it would work."

Leckrone said the song became a football tradition after a 1978 come-from-behind victory over Oregon. "Wisconsin was behind by three touchdowns, and the crowd was really dead. I played the song to get everyone pepped up. About 20 seconds after that, Wisconsin scored a TD. I played it again, and Wisconsin scored another touchdown. From then on, the band could never play enough 'Bud,'" said Leckrone.

Colors

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer with the band as they play traditional favorites, like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song. Originally, the post-game concert was designed to give the fans something to listen to on their way out of the stadium, but it developed into a post-game party as the band built in audience participation activities.

Graduating law students

At the homecoming game, graduating law students throw canes over the crossbar of the goal post in a pre-game ceremony. If students catch their cane, legend claims they will win their first case. If the cane is dropped, the case will be lost. The custom originated at Harvard and came to the UW-Madison in 1910.

"Hard Rocks"

The 1951 Wisconsin defense, known as the "Hard Rocks," led the country in total defense (154.8 per game) and was second in rushing defense (66.8). That defense allowed only 5.9 points per game and actually outscored the opponents 58-53 for the season. The defense was so terrorizing that the athletic department received a letter from one fan asking Wisconsin to "punt on first down" so he could see more of the defensive platoon.

Eight of the nine seniors on the "Hard Rocks" scored in their careers. The ninth, Bill Lane, came close. With Indiana backed up deep in its own territory for a punt, the seniors told Lane they would refrain from rushing in order to form a wedge, or "meatchopper," for him to run behind and score. Much to the seniors' dismay, freshman Don Voss missed the call and blocked the punt.

After the season, the defensive platoon challenged the offense in a charity game with one interesting twist. The offensive team could have the ball all the time, since the defense felt it could outscore its opponents even without the ball.

Hirsch, Elroy "Crazylegs"

Though he only played one season in Madison, Hirsch's legacy grew through 18 years as athletic director and many more as a goodwill ambassador.

Hirsch was first tagged "Crazylegs" on Sept. 26, 1942, after a 60-yard touchdown run vs. Notre Dame prompted a local writer to say, "His crazy legs were gyrating." After leaving Wisconsin, he starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams.

During those days in L.A., he kept busy by making three movies, including "Crazylegs, All-American" in which he portrayed himself. After retiring as a player, he worked in the Rams' front office before returning to Madison as athletic director from 1969-1987.

His No. 40, the number he wore at every stop in his football career but one, is retired at Wisconsin. Because of a mandatory league numbering system he wore No. 80 (double-40) for the Chicago Rockets, but had the No. 40 stitched on the inside of his jersey.

Marek, Billy

The three-time, first-team, all-Big Ten running back wasn't recruited to play high school football because he had Osgood Slaughter disease (a knee ailment that affected teenagers) and didn't play seventh and eighth grade football.

The 5-foot-8 Marek carried the ball only once as a freshman at the UW, then put together three consecutive 1,200-yard seasons. In danger of falling shy of 1,000 yards in 1974 after missing nearly three full games with injuries, Marek rushed for 704 yards in the final three games, including 304 and five touchdowns in a 49-14 rout of Minnesota. His play earned him Sports Illustrated's national offensive back of the week honors.

Marek was at the center of an April Fool's Day joke played by Wisconsin State Journal columnist Tom Butler in 1975. Butler wrote a tongue-in-cheek piece about moving the Big Ten's leading rusher to the defensive secondary for his senior season. The article ended with the phrase, "April Fools!" Unfortunately, wire service reporters did not make it to the last line, and called head coach John Jardine's house for confirmation. The AP eventually moved the story on its national wire for about a half-an-hour before the hoax was discovered.

Motion "W"

When Barry Alvarez came to Madison, he decided that the helmet logo needed to be updated to signal a new era in Wisconsin football. He entertained 15-20 different designs in 1990 before Rayovac artist Rick Suchanek developed the "Motion W," which included a tail at the back of the logo. Alvarez thought the tail was a bit much, but when it was removed, decided to go with it. The University bought the rights to the design, and the logo has been adopted by all other UW sports.

Mott, Jim

There is no greater authority on UW athletics than former Sports Information Director Jim Mott. His association with the sports information office began as a student assistant in 1953. He was named assistant SID a year later and was appointed director in 1966, a position he held until his retirement in 1990.

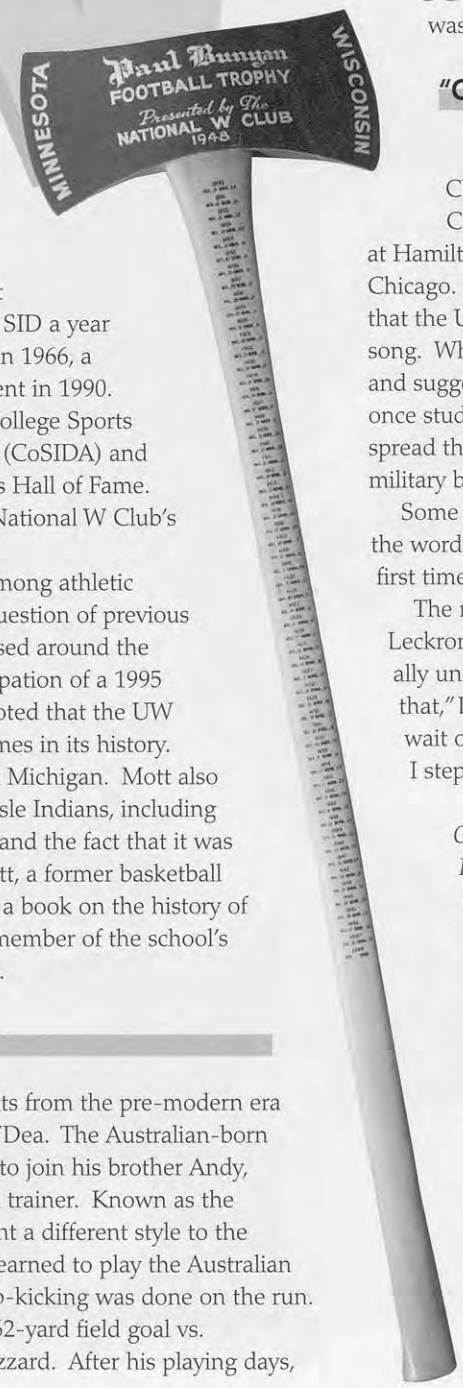
He is a past president of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and is a member of that organization's Hall of Fame. Mott was also inducted into the National W Club's Hall of Fame in '95.

Mott's memory is legendary among athletic department staffers. When the question of previous home night games was being tossed around the sports information office in anticipation of a 1995 contest against Colorado, Mott noted that the UW had two previous home night games in its history. Obvious was the 1986 battle with Michigan. Mott also recalled the 1896 loss to the Carlisle Indians, including the date of the game, final score, and the fact that it was played in Chicago Coliseum. Mott, a former basketball letterman at the UW, has written a book on the history of Wisconsin athletics and is still a member of the school's football and basketball stat crews.

O'Dea, Pat

One of several Wisconsin greats from the pre-modern era of college football is kicker Pat O'Dea. The Australian-born O'Dea came to Madison in 1896 to join his brother Andy, who was crew coach and football trainer. Known as the "Kangaroo Kicker," O'Dea brought a different style to the American game of football. He learned to play the Australian game where all punting and drop-kicking was done on the run. O'Dea drop-kicked a legendary 62-yard field goal vs. Northwestern during a heavy blizzard. After his playing days, he coached at Notre Dame and Missouri before moving to San Francisco. O'Dea, who essentially had disappeared, was thought to have joined an Australian contingent which travelled through the country. Press releases surmised that he "probably lies beneath an unmarked grave in France."

The truth was, he had moved to California under the assumed name of Charles J. Mitchell, to escape the pressure of being a star ex-athlete. "Probably, I was wrong," he said in an interview with San Francisco sportswriter Bill Leiser after the 17-year exile. "I wanted to get away from my past. As Pat O'Dea, I seemed very much just an ex-football player. I was very happy as Charles Mitchell for awhile."



"On, Wisconsin"

The tune was originally composed in 1909 by Chicago's William Purdy, and the words were written by Carl Beck. Purdy and Beck had been fraternity brothers at Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.) and were roommates in Chicago. Purdy was going to submit the song for a $100 prize that the University of Minnesota was offering for a new football song. When Beck heard the music, he offered to write words and suggested that Purdy offer it to Wisconsin, where Beck had once studied. The song was an instant hit on campus and spread throughout the world. It was especially popular with military bands.

Some 2,500 schools have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs. "On, Wisconsin" was sung for the first time at the 1909 homecoming game vs. Minnesota.

The music was adapted by current Band Director Michael Leckrone in 1969. The original version had been played virtually unchanged since its inception. "I got a lot of flak for that," Leckrone said. "The old version was one you had to wait on. I wanted to generate immediate crowd reaction, so I stepped it up a bit."

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame,
Fight, Fellows, Fight, Fight, Fight
We'll win this game!

Paul Bunyan Axe

The most-played rivalry in Division I football continues this fall when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet. The UW-UM series is the nation's oldest and has been played continuously for 90 years. The neighboring schools have met on the gridiron in 106 of the last 107 seasons (the exception was 1906). The game has alternated sites between the university campuses since 1946. Much prestige was always associated with the game, and the significance was emphasized with its place on the schedule. Between 1933 and 1982, the Wisconsin-Minnesota game was always the final regular-season contest for each school.

The series took an added twist in 1948 when more than state bragging rights were on the line. After a 16-0 setback that season, the Wisconsin lettermen's group, the National "W" Club, presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by Paul Bunyan. He was the mythical giant of Midwestern lumber camps. Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with scores inscribed on the handle, for display on its campus.

Slab of Bacon

The Slab of Bacon trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series. Apparently, the trophy was presented to the winning school by a sorority from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was discovered in a storage room at the UW Department of Athletics in 1994. It is currently housed in the football office at Wisconsin. "We took home the bacon," Coach Barry Alvarez said, "and kept it."

"Varsity"

The traditional arm-waving at the end of the song, "Varsity," was the 1934 brainstorm of band leader Ray Dvorak. He saw Pennsylvania students wave their caps after losing a game. Dvorak later instructed Wisconsin students to salute UW President Glenn Frank after each game.

Var-sity! Var-sity! U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee our Alma Mater

1954 Heisman Trophy Winner

Alan Ameche, the bruising fullback from Kenosha, Wis., is the only Badger to win the Heisman Trophy, given to college football's top player.

In his trophy-winning season, Ameche collected 1,068 total points to outdistance Oklahoma linebacker / center Kent Burris (838) and Ohio State halfback Howard Cassady (810). Ameche received 214 first-place votes and won the east and midwest voting precincts.

Ameche, a two-time, first-team all-American, won the trophy in 1954 after rushing for 641 yards and nine touchdowns.

Additionally, he made first-team all-America squads by the Football Writers' Association, Look, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Paramount News, All-Academic, Athletic Publications, Catholic Weekly and UNICO (National Italian Association). He was also named United Press National Back of the Year as a senior.

The Big Ten's leading rusher twice in his career, Ameche brought much distinction and honor to the UW. He was an academic all-American twice. Ameche also became the first Badger to earn membership in the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. He was inducted in 1992.

Nicknamed "The Horse," Ameche left Wisconsin as the NCAA's career rushing leader. His 3,345 yards are currently fifth in Wisconsin history. Ameche led the Badgers to a 26-8-3 record during his career and a berth in the 1953 Rose Bowl.

Player Records

Darrell Bevell is the only quarterback in school history to throw more than 1,000 passes. He is the UW's all-time yardage leader (7,686).

Alan Ameche (above) ended his illustrious Badger career as the NCAA's all-time leading rusher. If Ron Dayne can rush for at least 1,717 yards in '99, he will also leave the UW with college football's top rushing mark.

We're No. 1

The Badgers have been ranked as the nation's No. 1 squad just once in their history. That was on Oct. 7, 1952, after a 20-6 win over Illinois. The Badgers lost the next week to Ohio State but went on to a 6-3-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth.

Badgers and Gophers meet for the 109th time in 1999

There is more at stake than just a win or loss on the team record when Wisconsin and Minnesota face each other on the gridiron. The most-played rivalry in NCAA Division I-A football (108 meetings, including every year consecutively since 1907) is also a battle for possession of Paul Bunyan's Axe. The winner of the game each fall gets to keep the Axe on its campus.

"The records can be thrown away when these two rivals meet on the football field," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "It didn't take very long for me to understand the importance of this game and the great history associated with it."

The Badgers have taken four straight from their border rivals. One of the last Gopher victories ('93) was the Badgers' only loss in a 10-1-1 season. "The loss to the Gophers in '93 might have cost us a national championship," Alvarez said.

"There are a lot of folks who have personal attachments to this matchup," Alvarez said. "The game is a critical one each season for our players and supporters."

Traveling Badgers

Coach Barry Alvarez and his Wisconsin teams have enjoyed the opportunity to play games in all parts of the nation as well as the only Big Ten encounter played in a foreign country. Consider some of these sites of Badger contests: Seattle (Washington), Dallas (SMU), Tokyo (Michigan State), Pasadena, Calif. (UCLA twice), Boulder, Colo. (Colorado), Tampa, Fla. (Duke and Georgia), Palo Alto, Calif. (Stanford), Las Vegas (UNLV), Honolulu (Hawaii), Tucson, Ariz. (Utah), East Rutherford, N.J. (Syracuse) and San Diego (San Diego State). In future years, Wisconsin will make trips to Eugene, Ore. (vs. Oregon), Honolulu (Hawaii), Las Vegas (UNLV), Tucson, Ariz. (Arizona), Morgantown, W.V. (West Virginia) and Chapel Hill, N.C. (North Carolina).

Pre-Modern Era Records

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) recognizes official football statistics and records beginning with the 1946 season. The NCAA does not recognize marks set prior to the "modern era."

Many great performances were turned in by Badgers prior to the 1946 season. Following are some of the individual efforts by Wisconsin players, prior to the 1946 season, which would rank on the school's all-time lists.

Series Notes

Wisconsin trails in the series, 43-10-1 ... ironically, the Badgers have more wins in Ann Arbor (six) than Madison (three) ... Michigan's 27-10 win in Ann Arbor last fall was the Badgers' lone loss ... Wisconsin and Michigan are the only Big Ten schools to win more than one Rose Bowl since 1975 ... Alvarez is 2-3 vs. Michigan ... as an assistant, Alvarez was on Iowa and Notre Dame staffs that posted a 6-3 mark vs. the Wolverines ... Lloyd Carr is 2-0 vs. the Badgers.

Series Notes

The all-time series between the Badgers and Hawkeyes is tied at 36-36-2 ... Wisconsin posted a 31-0 shutout over Iowa last season giving UW back-to-back wins in the series for the first time since 1973-74 ... the Badgers last won three straight from Iowa between 1972-74 ... prior to the recent two-game win streak for Wisconsin, the Hawkeyes had registered a 17-0-1 mark between 1977-96 ... Alvarez is 2-5 vs. the school where he was an assistant coach from 1979-86 ... Iowa's Kirk Ferentz and Alvarez served on the same coaching staff at Iowa ('81-86).

Coverage Guidelines

Credentials

PRESS BOX & SIDELINE: Requests for credentials to cover Badger football should be sent on company letterhead to: Steve Malchow, SID, University of Wisconsin, 1440 Monroe Street, Madison, WI 53711. The fax number is (608) 262-8184. Requests should be received at least 10 days in advance of the game.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits. Those passes which cannot be mailed will be left with the parking attendant (white vehicle) at Lot 18 (southeast corner of the Stadium across the street from the fire station).

Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities: 1) TV and radio stations originating a live broadcast; 2) national publications and newspapers filing for the following day's publication; 3) newspapers designated by the visiting SID; 4) TV and radio stations covering for nightly news; and 5) other requests, which will be evaluated on a space-available basis. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not allowed in the media areas as dictated by the NCAA.

PARKING: A very limited number of parking passes are available for working media. Make your request to the Sports Information office.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and reporters on assignment. You must display both a credential and an armband prominently to be on the field level. Your media credential alone will not give you access to the sidelines (until the final five minutes of the game). Armbands can be picked up in the Reinke Room (north end) of the Field House. Media members cannot work between the 25-yard lines.

Game-day Services

MEDIA SERVICES: Facilities for the press are located on the fourth level of the press box. Flipcards, notes and programs are delivered to each working location prior to kickoff. A full stat packet will be available after the game.

FAX SERVICE: Final game statistics are entered immediately after the game on the Big Ten's Fax-On-Demand service. If you do not wish to use the Fax-On-Demand service, statistical packets will be faxed to your outlet for $10 (payable at the game).

INTERVIEWS: With approximately four minutes left in the game, media members will be escorted to the interview areas by Associate SID Justin Doherty. Coach Barry Alvarez meets the media in the McClain Center Lounge (first floor). Requested players are available in the weight room (lower level of the McClain Center). The Wisconsin locker room is closed to the media.

PHONES: Several courtesy phone lines on level four of the press box are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Media requiring their own phones should call Wisconsin Bell (800/447-7738) to order lines.

Interview Requests

PRACTICES: All Badger practices, including Friday walk-throughs, are closed to the media. Interviews are conducted according to these guidelines.

HEAD COACH: Barry Alvarez holds a weekly media conference Mondays at 1 p.m. in the "W" Club Room at Camp Randall Stadium. A transcript of Alvarez' comments is available on the Fax-on-Demand system (cell #3201). Alvarez is available for interviews after practice Tuesday through Friday. He will do interviews after Friday walk-throughs on the road.

Media Relations Contacts

Steve Malchow, Director
Call with credential requests, interviews for Coach Barry Alvarez and general football information.

Justin Doherty, Associate Director

Julie Kluge, Assistant Director

Britt Kinder, Research Intern

Sports Info. Office: (608) 262-1811
Sports Info. Fax: (608) 262-8184

Additionally, Alvarez is available every Tuesday from 11:50-noon CT on the Big Ten Teleconference. This session is for media use only. Call the SID Office if you need the phone number for this session.

PLAYERS: Badger players can be interviewed during the week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice (approximately 6 p.m.). Phone calls by players to out-of-town media are made at the players' convenience between 7:30-10 p.m. CT on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Interviews should be arranged through Associate SID Justin Doherty (608/262-1811) by noon of the day the player is requested for a phone interview. Home numbers will not be made available to the media, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the SID staff.

Practice & Interview Schedule

Practice schedules are subject to change. Contact the SID office for confirmation. The typical weekly schedule is:

Day	Practice	Interview Availability
Monday	None	1 p.m. media conference
Tuesday	3 p.m.	Players available post-practice
Wednesday	3 p.m.	Players available post-practice
Thursday	3 p.m.	Alvarez interviews only
Friday	3:30 p.m.	Alvarez interviews only
Saturday	Game day	Players available after game
Sunday	2 p.m.	No interviews

Tentative Fall Schedule

Preseason fall practice is held at the Holy Name Catholic Center (3577 High Point Road, Middleton, WI).

Fax-on-Demand Codes

The Big Ten and its member schools provide 24-hour access to the latest press releases, statistics and notes on Big Ten sports. To gain access to this system, media members should simply call the Fax-On-Demand phone number (800-300-2050) and supply their personal identification number (PIN). If you have questions about obtaining a PIN, contact Pivotal Communications at 770-399-0096.

Requested information will be faxed back immediately after the request is placed. Because of this technology, Wisconsin does not mail its weekly releases.

Media Relations Staff

Steve Malchow
Director of Sports Information

Steve Malchow, SID

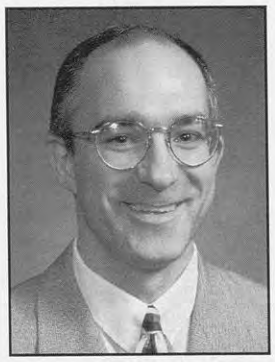
Malchow worked from 1979-89 at the University of Iowa as a student, graduate and full-time assistant in the Sports Information Office before accepting his post at Wisconsin.

He is a member of CoSIDA, which has honored more than 40 of his press guides for excellence. His 1985 football and basketball books were rated first and second in the nation, respectively.

The 1983 graduate of Iowa earned degrees in marketing, journalism and management sciences.



Justin Doherty
Associate Director of Sports Information

Justin Doherty, Associate SID

Justin Doherty begins his fifth year as an Associate SID at Wisconsin after two-and-a-half years as the SID at North Dakota.

Doherty coordinates media relations for men's basketball and assists with football. He is editor of the football and basketball programs and oversees publicity for golf, tennis and swimming.

At UND he directed publicity efforts for a 15-sport athletics program. He was also the assistant SID at Northern Michigan (1990-92) and sports editor at the Marshall (Mich.) Chronicle after earning his B.A. in journalism from Michigan State. He was a student assistant in the MSU sports information office from 1984-89.

Julie Kluge
Assistant Director of Sports Information

Julie Kluge, Assistant SID

Julie Kluge is in her 10th year as a full-time member of the Sports Information staff. She has worked for the Department since 1984.

Kluge directs publicity for the Badgers' nationally recognized hockey, cross country and track teams. The 1988 UW-Madison graduate has B.S. degrees in zoology and secondary education.

Kluge is editor of the Wisconsin hockey media guide and game program. Several of her hockey media guides have been named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA.

She was an assistant director in the P.R. office of the WCHA and works annually for the NCAA at its national hockey championship.

Radio Coverage

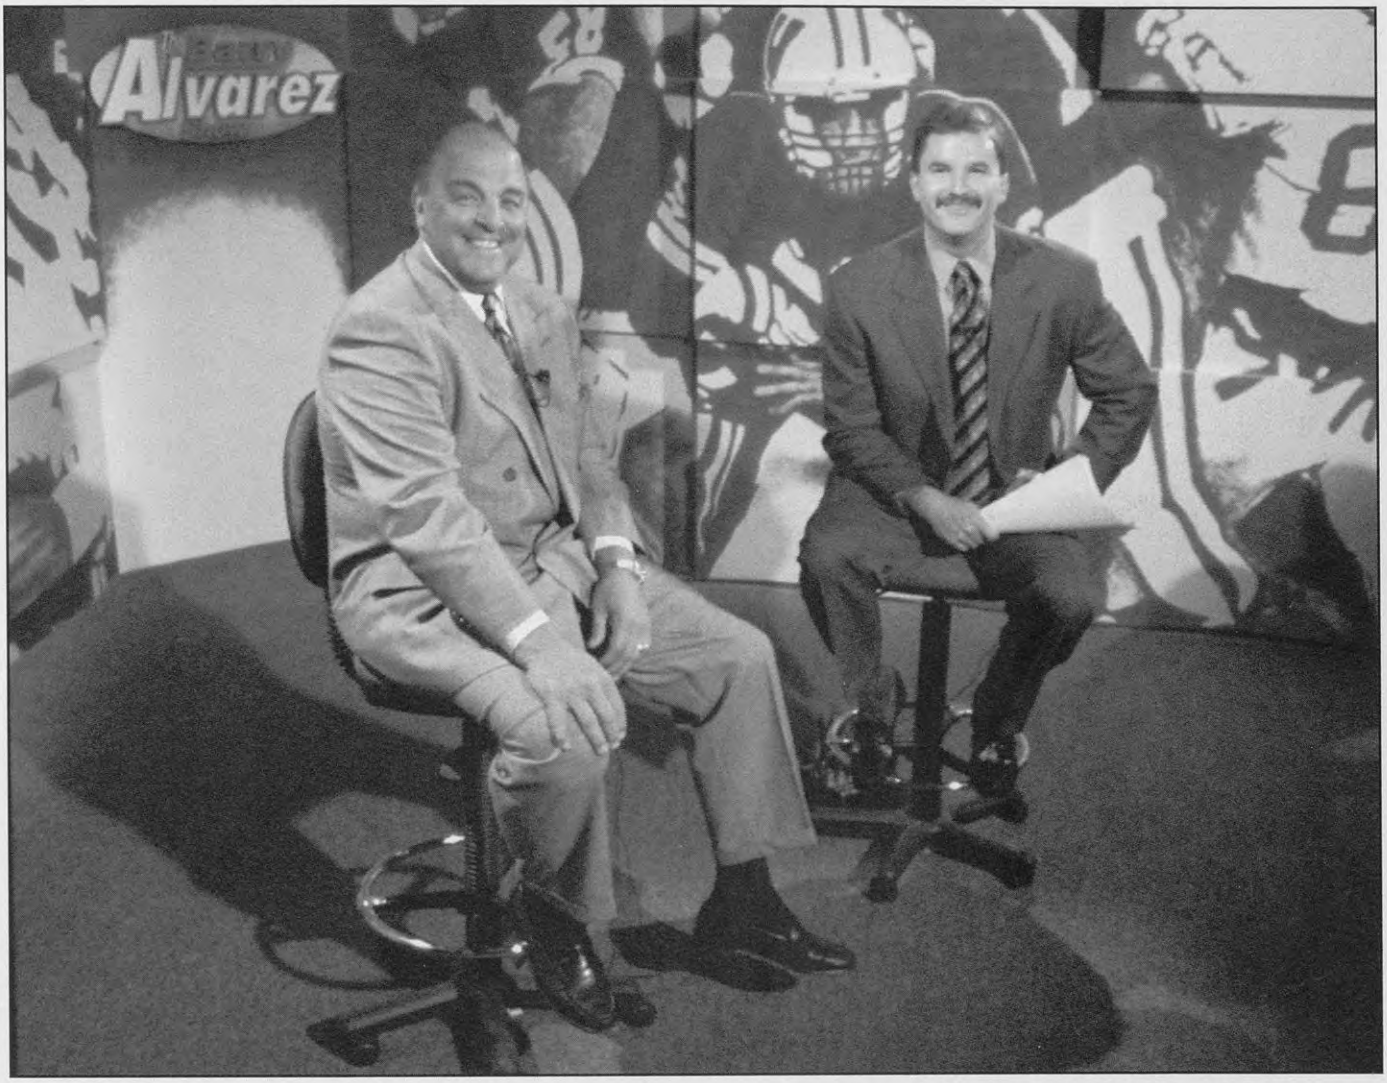
For the sixth year in a row, exclusive radio coverage of Badger football can be heard on the 43-station Wisconsin Radio Network. The Athletic Department and Learfield Communications entered into an agreement for radio broadcast rights for Wisconsin football and basketball prior to the 1994 season.

WIBA (1310 AM) and WOLX (94.9 FM) are the rights holders in the Madison market, and WTMJ (620 AM) carries the games in Milwaukee.

Entering his sixth season handling play-by-play duties for Wisconsin football is Matt Lepay. He has also called Badger basketball the past 11 seasons. A 1984 graduate of Ohio State, Lepay was Sports Director at WTSO in Madison before joining WIBA in 1994. He previously served as Sports Director at WNCI in Columbus, and prior to that worked at stations in Athens and Piqua, Ohio. Lepay also provides frequent sports reports for WISC-TV. Lepay is host of the Barry Alvarez Show, both on WIBA Radio and WISC-TV.

Joining Lepay on the broadcast is Mike Lucas, long-time sports columnist at the Capital Times. Lucas, who worked on the broadcast team for the Badgers' delay television package on the Wisconsin Public Television Network before assuming color commentary duties on the radio, also provides daily sports commentaries on WIBA. He has reported on Badger sporting events for the Capital Times since 1971.

Television Coverage



Coach Barry Alvarez with Matt Lepay, the Badgers' play-by-play announcer on the Wisconsin Radio Network. Lepay hosts the weekly Barry Alvarez TV Show each Sunday throughout the season.

The Barry Alvarez TV Show

The "Barry Alvarez Show," produced by WISC-TV, is a 30-minute program of highlights, interviews and features on Badger football. Seven stations — WISC-Madison (11 a.m.), WISN-Milwaukee (11 a.m.), WSAW-Wausau (11 a.m.), WFRV-Green Bay (11 a.m.), WXOW-La Crosse (11 p.m.), WQOW-Eau Claire (11 p.m.) and WJMN-Marquette, Mich. (11 a.m.) — show the program each Sunday throughout the season.

Television Coverage

All Badger home football games will be televised on a delayed basis by Wisconsin Public Television (WHA-Madison, WPNE-Green Bay, WLEF-Park Falls, WHWC-Menomonie, WHLA-La Crosse, WHRM-Wausau and WMVT-Milwaukee). Broadcast across the state educational network, the football replays on WPT air every Saturday at 10:30 p.m.

Index
